EMPLOYEES AND OFFICIALS OF TIN PLANTS IN CITY SUPPORTED BY CITIZENS

Action Taken At Big Mass Meeting Of Citizens On Wednesday Night

SPEAKERS EXPRESS ATTITUDE OF CITY

Unanimity Of Support Is Shown In Plan To Continue Work Here

In the event of a steel holiday the management and men of the tin plants of New Castle will find the citizenry of the city in back of them in their endeavor to continue operations. This fact was indicated in a forceful way Wednesday night when a public mass meeting was held in City Hall, and the sentiment of the citizens articulated in a resolution which will be found at the end of this article.

In the history of the city it is doubtful if there ever was a meeting quite in the class of the one on Wednesday night. Bankers, merchants, professional men and laborers met on a common ground of understanding and co-operation. They were there to voice their commendation of the actions of the tin workers in both Shenango and New Castle plants, and to join hands to buttress that action, should there be any outside interference here.

Short And Concise

The meeting was not a long one, but it was an expressive one. The objective was clearly set forth and the speakers drove towards that object without lost motion or unnecessary words. The tin workers had asked for an indication of co-operation in their stand and they got it, vigorously, concisely and wholeheartedly.

DeLace Cole, president of the Better Business Bureau opened the meeting and with little preliminaries called for nominations for chairman of the meeting. O. P. Brown was named and Attorney Ralph Cooper

GREENSBURG, Ind., June 14.—Miss Gladys Shutter, 20, of Cleveland, for whom posses and state police were searching over a wide area was found asleep and uninjured at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. Carrier Cruise, at Napoleon, Ind., today.

We can always revive talk of it and interest in it, but we just can't seem to revive payment of it. In fact a great many of the ideas we have loaned 'em, they haven't even paid back.

Well, it's good to get it all stirred up before the new congressional elections. The following sounds awful good on the platform:

Rule Declares City Must Pay Teachers More

State School Head Objects To 20 Per Cent Reduction For Year

SAYS CUT WILL NOT BE ALLOWED

Will Only Approve 15 Per Cent Cut; Board Is Much Confused

A new budget problem for the New Castle board of education, one which looms as a source of new worry, was revealed publicly for the first time last night when Dr. James N. Rule, state superintendent of public instruction at Harrisburg, in a new letter to Secretary Hugh M. Marquis, told the board it could only reduce teachers' salaries 15 percent and not 20 percent this year.

Under the schedule of the board's budget-makers the teachers are to receive a 20 percent reduction during the next term as they did during the past. The year's budget has been approved on that basis.

After Mr. Marquis read his letter, the board was somewhat shocked and, later in the meeting, the members admitted that the letter of Dr. Rule was confusing.

The letter from Harrisburg said that "a false situation" is set up in respect to the New Castle board's needs, and grants the directors approval to "reduce the salaries of teachers during the school year 1934-35 to not less than 85 percent of the salaries prescribed."

To Consider Letter

While the board attempted a discussion of the letter the matter was not clarified and it was referred to the board's budget committee for study. The committee meets Friday evening.

The board asked the committee to

Kiwanians Enjoy Game Farm Outing

Clubmen Stage Affair There Last Night; Entertained Well

New Castle Kiwanians motored to the 325-acre Jordan state game farm last night to enjoy a picnic dinner and afterward inspect the modern equipment that hatches between 22,000 and 25,000 game birds for the state each year.

The dinner was served soon after the 37 members arrived in the early evening.

Superintendent V. T. Warfel had made elaborate plans for the entertainment of his guests, including an educational tour of the farm and a motion picture show in which game farm pictures were projected by John P. Boyles. A mushball game in which made-up teams played also was a feature.

Arrangements for the club outing, one of the most successful ever held, were in charge of William R. Hanna, chairman of the club's agricultural committee and his aides.

Memberships In Chamber Of Commerce Grow

Teams Report Many Additional Memberships And Subscriptions Today

EXPECT TO END DRIVE ON FRIDAY

Team captains and workers in the Chamber of Commerce membership expansion movement, left the report meeting at noon today, determined if possible, to put the campaign for 300 membership and $12,000 in funds over by noon tomorrow.

They are faced with a big task, they realize, but are showing new determination in their efforts.

Good Reports

Today's report added 28 additional memberships to those already reported, bringing the total to 101, with pledges of $5,035 and $1,027.50 in actual cash secured.

Fred L. Rentz was the speaker at today's meeting, and told the assembly that New Castle needed an organization like the Chamber of Commerce, in fact, could not get along without such an organization.

He related some experiences in the past history of the Chamber of Commerce, of which he is the only original director now serving on the present board, to bear this out. He pointed out that the Chamber of Commerce is the watchdog guarding New Castle citizens from the inroads of crooked speculators and the life. There are policemen who never make an arrest but they are on the job to do their best if needed and that is just what the Chamber of Commerce is doing, he asserted.

Sales Manager Earl B. Machin, at the close of the meeting today, asked all the team workers to stand

Push For Action In Senate Upon New Labor Bill

Administration Leaders To Seek Agreement For Immediate Enactment

SEEK USE OF BILL TO AVERT STRIKE

Measure Will Likely Pass Senate Within Next 24 Hours, Belief

By WILLIAM K. HUTCHINSON
International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, June 14—Administration leaders in congress today sought an agreement for immediate enactment of President Roosevelt's new labor bill in order to use its conciliating features to avert a strike in the steel industry.

While delegates of the steel workers union met in Pittsburgh to vote on a general strike, the Republican membership of the senate met in party conference to chart their course on the bill. The administration plans to secure senate approval of the measure before sending it to the house.

Will Likely Pass Shortly.

The bill has met only lukewarm support. But there are indications it might pass the senate within the next 24 hours, subject only to desultory opposition. This is due to a rather general feeling that it was the best measure for the settlement of industrial disputes that can be enacted promptly, without extending the session of congress.

The bill would:

1. Empower the president to appoint boards to investigate labor disputes and encourage their settlement. The actual settlement, however, would be left to direct negotiations between employers and employes.

2. Direct these boards to conduct secret elections among employes in

Steel Union Delegates To Vote On Strike

Gather In Pittsburgh To Consider Action; Expect Green Friday

PRESIDENT TO ACT UNDER LABOR BILL

No Representative Of Federal Government Is Sent To Pittsburgh

(International News Service)

While executive and legislative branches of the government put forth intensive efforts to avert a general steel strike, steel union delegates gathered in Pittsburgh today to vote on a walkout which, they claim, would result in 300,000 workers deserting steel plants throughout the nation.

Rallying cry of the delegates, numbering about 250 and representing that many district union divisions, was "recognition—or strike". This unyielding attitude was maintained in the face of a drastically revised labor bill expected to be rushed to passage at Washington.

Outstanding Developments.

Outstanding developments, as the momentous vote on a general strike neared, included:

1. Threat of a nation-wide general strike—to include all industry—was voiced by Earl J. Forbeck, left-wing union leader at Pittsburgh. Forbeck said he would propose a gigantic sympathy strike to William Green, A. F. of L. president, who is slated to address the strike convention tomorrow.

2. Possibility of quick enactment of the revised labor bill, vesting powers in the president to settle industrial disputes, was brightened by action of the Republican minority in getting behind the measure.

3. Absence of Recovery Administrator Johnson from recent conciliatory negotiations was ascribed to a reported reprimand from President Roosevelt because of Johnson's caustic reference to "immature union leaders" in a recent radio address.

President Relies On Measure.

Washington, June 14.—Evidence that President Roosevelt is relying upon the labor bill now pending in congress to avert the threatened steel strike, rather than upon direct contacts with both sides, was seen today when Gen. Hugh S. Johnson announced that the federal government is sending no representatives to the Pittsburgh strike meeting.

At the same time Johnson said Kenneth Simpson, a member of the steel code authority, and R. W. Shannon, assistant deputy administrator, were in New York attending the regular monthly meeting of the Iron and Steel Institute, but merely as observers.

Johnson said Simpson and Shannon would not confer with the steel employers in regard to the threatened strike.

Johnson pointed out that the recovery administration had no authority to deal with the union leaders and that he had negotiated

Kiwanians Enjoy Game Farm Outing

Clubmen Stage Affair There Last Night; Entertained Well

New Castle Kiwanians motored to the 325-acre Jordan state game farm last night to enjoy a picnic dinner and afterward inspect the modern equipment that hatches between 22,000 and 25,000 game birds for the state each year.

The dinner was served soon after the 37 members arrived in the early evening.

Superintendent V. T. Warfel had made elaborate plans for the entertainment of his guests, including an educational tour of the farm and a motion picture show in which game farm pictures were projected by John P. Boyles. A mushball game in which made-up teams played also was a feature.

Arrangements for the club outing, one of the most successful ever held, were in charge of William R. Hanna, chairman of the club's agricultural committee and his aides.

Teams Report Many Additional Memberships And Subscriptions Today

EXPECT TO END DRIVE ON FRIDAY

Team captains and workers in the Chamber of Commerce membership expansion movement, left the report meeting at noon today, determined if possible, to put the campaign for 300 membership and $12,000 in funds over by noon tomorrow.

They are faced with a big task, they realize, but are showing new determination in their efforts.

Good Reports

Today's report added 28 additional memberships to those already reported, bringing the total to 101, with pledges of $5,035 and $1,027.50 in actual cash secured.

Fred L. Rentz was the speaker at today's meeting, and told the assembly that New Castle needed an organization like the Chamber of Commerce, in fact, could not get along without such an organization.

He related some experiences in the past history of the Chamber of Commerce, of which he is the only original director now serving on the present board, to bear this out. He pointed out that the Chamber of Commerce is the watchdog guarding New Castle citizens from the inroads of crooked speculators and the life. There are policemen who never make an arrest but they are on the job to do their best if needed and that is just what the Chamber of Commerce is doing, he asserted.

Push For Action In Senate Upon New Labor Bill

Administration Leaders To Seek Agreement For Immediate Enactment

SEEK USE OF BILL TO AVERT STRIKE

Measure Will Likely Pass Senate Within Next 24 Hours, Belief

By WILLIAM K. HUTCHINSON
International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, June 14—Administration leaders in congress today sought an agreement for immediate enactment of President Roosevelt's new labor bill in order to use its conciliating features to avert a strike in the steel industry.

While delegates of the steel workers union met in Pittsburgh to vote on a general strike, the Republican membership of the senate met in party conference to chart their course on the bill. The administration plans to secure senate approval of the measure before sending it to the house.

Will Likely Pass Shortly.

The bill has met only lukewarm support. But there are indications it might pass the senate within the next 24 hours, subject only to desultory opposition. This is due to a rather general feeling that it was the best measure for the settlement of industrial disputes that can be enacted promptly, without extending the session of congress.

The bill would:

1. Empower the president to appoint boards to investigate labor disputes and encourage their settlement. The actual settlement, however, would be left to direct negotiations between employers and employes.

2. Direct these boards to conduct secret elections among employes in

PRESIDENT TO ACT UNDER LABOR BILL

(International News Service)

While executive and legislative branches of the government put forth intensive efforts to avert a general steel strike, steel union delegates gathered in Pittsburgh today to vote on a walkout which, they claim, would result in 300,000 workers deserting steel plants throughout the nation.

Rallying cry of the delegates, numbering about 250 and representing that many district union divisions, was "recognition—or strike". This unyielding attitude was maintained in the face of a drastically revised labor bill expected to be rushed to passage at Washington.

Outstanding Developments.

Outstanding developments, as the momentous vote on a general strike neared, included:

1. Threat of a nation-wide general strike—to include all industry—was voiced by Earl J. Forbeck, left-wing union leader at Pittsburgh. Forbeck said he would propose a gigantic sympathy strike to William Green, A. F. of L. president, who is slated to address the strike convention tomorrow.

2. Possibility of quick enactment of the revised labor bill, vesting powers in the president to settle industrial disputes, was brightened by action of the Republican minority in getting behind the measure.

3. Absence of Recovery Administrator Johnson from recent conciliatory negotiations was ascribed to a reported reprimand from President Roosevelt because of Johnson's caustic reference to "immature union leaders" in a recent radio address.

President Relies On Measure.

Washington, June 14.—Evidence that President Roosevelt is relying upon the labor bill now pending in congress to avert the threatened steel strike, rather than upon direct contacts with both sides, was seen today when Gen. Hugh S. Johnson announced that the federal government is sending no representatives to the Pittsburgh strike meeting.

At the same time Johnson said Kenneth Simpson, a member of the steel code authority, and R. W. Shannon, assistant deputy administrator, were in New York attending the regular monthly meeting of the Iron and Steel Institute, but merely as observers.

Johnson said Simpson and Shannon would not confer with the steel employers in regard to the threatened strike.

Johnson pointed out that the recovery administration had no authority to deal with the union leaders and that he had negotiated

Unanimity Of Support Is Shown In Plan To Continue Work Here

In the event of a steel holiday the management and men of the tin plants of New Castle will find the citizenry of the city in back of them in their endeavor to continue operations. This fact was indicated in a forceful way Wednesday night when a public mass meeting was held in City Hall, and the sentiment of the citizens articulated in a resolution which will be found at the end of this article.

In the history of the city it is doubtful if there ever was a meeting quite in the class of the one on Wednesday night. Bankers, merchants, professional men and laborers met on a common ground of understanding and co-operation. They were there to voice their commendation of the actions of the tin workers in both Shenango and New Castle plants, and to join hands to buttress that action, should there be any outside interference here.

Short And Concise

The meeting was not a long one, but it was an expressive one. The objective was clearly set forth and the speakers drove towards that object without lost motion or unnecessary words. The tin workers had asked for an indication of co-operation in their stand and they got it, vigorously, concisely and wholeheartedly.

DeLace Cole, president of the Better Business Bureau opened the meeting and with little preliminaries called for nominations for chairman of the meeting. O. P. Brown was named and Attorney Ralph Cooper

Rule Declares City Must Pay Teachers More

State School Head Objects To 20 Per Cent Reduction For Year

SAYS CUT WILL NOT BE ALLOWED

Will Only Approve 15 Per Cent Cut; Board Is Much Confused

A new budget problem for the New Castle board of education, one which looms as a source of new worry, was revealed publicly for the first time last night when Dr. James N. Rule, state superintendent of public instruction at Harrisburg, in a new letter to Secretary Hugh M. Marquis, told the board it could only reduce teachers' salaries 15 percent and not 20 percent this year.

Under the schedule of the board's budget-makers the teachers are to receive a 20 percent reduction during the next term as they did during the past. The year's budget has been approved on that basis.

After Mr. Marquis read his letter, the board was somewhat shocked and, later in the meeting, the members admitted that the letter of Dr. Rule was confusing.

The letter from Harrisburg said that "a false situation" is set up in respect to the New Castle board's needs, and grants the directors approval to "reduce the salaries of teachers during the school year 1934-35 to not less than 85 percent of the salaries prescribed."

To Consider Letter

While the board attempted a discussion of the letter the matter was not clarified and it was referred to the board's budget committee for study. The committee meets Friday evening.

The board asked the committee to

Hitler Is Nervous

Hitler appeared not quite at ease. Mussolini was perfectly composed.

Holding his hat in his hand while Mussolini retained his cap, Hitler, walking side by side with Il Duce, inspected the guard of honor and then went to a motorboat.

The Lido airport is an ideal place to receive a guest whom police wish to guard. It can only be reached by boat and no boat was allowed to cross the lagoon. Probably no such event has been witnessed by so few persons.

Speeding over the pale blue waters into the grand canal, Mussolini's motorboat took Hitler past a chain of thirteen Italian destroyers.

Behind the cordiality of the two dictators today lay the consciousness that just over the northern border a few miles from here Austria is suffering anew from a wave of Nazi terror. Unless two pints of bile juice flow daily from your liver into your bowels, your food decays in your bowels. This poisons your whole body. Movements get hard and constipated. But don't take salts, mineral waters, oils, laxative pills, laxative candies or chewing gums and expect them to get rid of this poison that destroys your personal charm. NEW WILMINGTON, Pa., June 14—When Miss Jane Downie, New Wilmington, received the bachelor of business administration degree at Westminster college this week, it marked the second graduation and second baccalaureate degree in two years.

Last year Miss Downie was graduated from Westminster with the bachelor of arts degree, having won high honors. This year she took additional credits needed for the business degree and worked in the college office at the same time. She has been a member of the glee club, and a member of class and varsity debating teams.

EMPLOYES AND OFFICIALS OF TIN PLANTS SUPPORTED

named as secretary. "We are met tonight," said Chairman Brown, 'as a group of citizens to offer our support to our fellow citizens of the tin mill who wish to maintain peaceful relations between employer and employe.

W. M. Nunn suggested that such a meeting should not be opened without the salute to the flag and the crowd arose. Mr. Brown then recognized Jack Herbert, chairman of the New Castle Works Employes Representative association.

"About a year ago" said Mr. Herbert, "the Employes Representative Association was inaugurated. At that time we thought little about organization, what we did think about was work. We elected representatives and then proceeded to take up several questions with the management, having to do with convenience of employes. We found the management willing to cooperate in anything that was at all reasonable. A fifteen per cent increase in wages was granted and an additional ten per cent on top of that. Had any outside union been in effect when these increases were made the officers would have said, look what we did for you. As it was, all of the matters between management and men were transacted by the employes representatives and the relation has been satisfactory and harmonious. We do not need outside unions coming in to New Castle to negotiate for us, that we can do ourselves. In our endeavor to continue this relationship we ask the cooperation of the people of New Castle. We are not afraid of outside interference. Neither are we afraid of rain but we carry an umbrella." Mr. Herbert concluded by reminding the crowd that on June 30 the tin workers would hold a mammoth picnic in Cascade Park and invited those present to attend.

Relief Head Speaks

Dr. G. S. Bennett, chairman of the Lawrence County Emergency Relief Board was recognized next and spoke briefly upon the condition of affairs at the present time. "There are 4014 families on relief here at the present time" said Dr. Bennett. That number of families means about one fifth of the population of the county are on relief"

"The tin mills have been the lifesaver of this city. Had they not operated as they did during the past winter. I do not know what would have happened. Just at present there is a strike on at the Johnson Bronze company. In an effort to see if the state would pay rent for families on relief, some of the men on strike went to Harrisburg. I could have told them in a minute what the answer was and saved them the trip. The state cannot pay rents, although the director Eric H. Biddle would like to do so. Food must be provided whether men are on strike or not but shelter is essential also and I want to say that the real estate men of New Castle have been gracious and kind in their attitude towards tenants on relief. However, they are approaching the place where they must have some money and there will be some evictions because of non-payment of rent.

"As citizens we ought to do everything we can to help conditions. A strike at a time like this would only make things far worse and I trust that we will do everything we can to improve conditions."

Asks Co-Operation

H. P. Stone, chairman of the Shenango Employe Representative Association was recognized and he said, "In the Shenango Works we passed a resolution expressing our belief that the vast majority of the employes did not want any steel holiday and asking for the co-operation of the citizens in their desire to continue operations."

"We feel that in the event of such a condition we are entitled to the protection the authorities can give, and to the co-operation of the citizens. The mills here have been running well. Some of the mills on the rivers might be able to stand a strike and expect to get started as soon as the strike was over for their costs are low. Here in New Castle one of the elements in keeping the mills operating is the fact that labor conditions are good. We want to see these mills continue to operate and all of you can lend encouragement to the tin workers you know if you will just do so.

E. E. McGill arose and said that he had just been informed that in the balloting on Tuesday, June 12, 93.27 per cent of the Shenango Works men had voted and 95.54 per cent of the New Castle Works had voted in the employes representation elections.

George Winter offered the following resolution which was adopted without one dissenting vote.

Resolution

WHEREAS, it is a matter of common knowledge received through the public press and otherwise that certain outside labor organizations are seriously considering the calling of a strike or holiday for all workers in the steel industry, such a strike to be called on or about June 16, 1934, and

WHEREAS, the representatives of the employees of the New Castle plants of the American Sheet & Tin Plate Company have recently taken action expressing their opposition to such a holiday and their satisfaction with working conditions in this City, and further soliciting their support in their desire to continue their employment unmolested by either local or outside influences.

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That we, as citizens of the City of New Castle, earnestly protest against any holiday in the steel industry at the present time; that we approve and commend the good common sense and sound judgment of the employees of the steel industry in this city, as shown by the action of their representatives relative to such a holiday, and further that in our judgment such a holiday at the present time would work unjust hardship upon those employees in this city who desire to continue their employment, constituting a large majority thereof, would work a hardship upon the families of those employees as well, would be contrary to the best interest of the City generally, and would tend to hinder and delay national recovery.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that we hereby pledge our hearty support of and co-operation with the employees of the steel industry in New Castle and their representatives in their every effort to be permitted peacefully to continue their employment which they find satisfactory.

From the tone of the meeting Wednesday there can be no mistaking the sentiment here. The people of New Castle want the tin mills to continue operations and this in spite of any steel holiday or national strike that might be called.

In the meeting Wednesday night every walk of life in the city was represented. The crowd filled city council chamber and about fifty were forced to stand.

RULE DECLARES CITY MUST PAY TEACHERS MORE

take the salary reduction question up with the state educational department and to urge the formal approval of its recent requests which called for a 20 percent reduction of the salaries.

Dr. Rule's letter to the board read: "On the basis of evidence submitted to this office showing that the New Castle school district does not and will not have sufficient funds to pay the salaries required by the salary schedule as modified by the provisions of Sections 2 and 3 of Act No. 48, approved April 25, 1933, and that the payment of the salaries of the schedule as thus modified would be unreasonably oppressive upon the school district during the school year 1934-35, as superintendent of public instruction, I hereby grant in accordance with the provisions of Section 4 of Act No. 48, the request of the New Castle school district to reduce the salaries of teachers during the school year of 1934-35 to not less than 85 percent of the salaries prescribed in accordance with the provisions of Section 1210 of the school law for 1932-33.

"We note that in calculating your probable balance on hand at the close of the present school year, you have made a deduction of all taxes collected in advance on the 1934 duplicate. Since a considerable portion of the 1933 duplicate was collected previous to the first Monday of July, 1933, and applied on the obligations for the school year 1932-33, and since it has apparently been the policy of your board to follow a similar practice for at least several years, it would seem that taxes collected in advance on the 1934 duplicate should be included in your balance on hand at the close of the present year.

"If we do not apply on the current year either the taxes collected in advance on the 1934 duplicate or those taxes which were collected on the 1933 duplicate previous to the first Monday of July, 1933, we set up a false situation with respect to the need of your district for the reduction of teachers' salaries. Since for several years it has been the custom of your board to collect a part of the new duplicate in advance, it is only reasonable to assume that you will follow the same practice one year hence, and that, therefore, a reduction of teachers' salaries to the 85 percent level will be sufficient to enable you to provide for the budget for the school year 1934-35."

That every one, young and old, give more time to the reading and study of God's Word. That Sunday school should not be substituted for church service and that the Bible should have a place in the curriculum of the schools.

That the Sabbath should be observed as the Lord's day and not commercialized by amusements and sports and that the people of Lawrence county keep the parks and playgrounds free from commercialized amusements.

That we need an awakening on the liquor problem, since it has become more thoroughly entrenched than ever before in our national life.

That the gambling evil should be suppressed and the Christian people keep themselves free of all ensnaring forms of gambling. We commend most highly, Mr. Ailey, for the stand has has taken on the gambling evil.

That the Gospel of Jesus Christ is the only adequate solution of the economic and industrial problems of the hantion.

That it is the mission of the Gospel to build up an irresistable sentiment for peace.

That evangelism should be stressed in the Sunday school as a field for personal work.

We desire to express our appreciation to the State Association, under the leadership of Harry E. Paisley, for the assistance it has given in this program; to our highly esteemed county president, Robert M. Strickler, Jr., for his part in it; to the distinguished men who have appeared on our program; and to all who have contributed to it, to the First Presbyterian church of Ellwood City for the use of their commodious building; to the churches that are serving meals to the delegates; to the public press of the county for its generous publicity; and to any and all who have in any way contributed to the success of this convention.

The afternoon speakers included Dr. R. M. Martin, president of the National Reform Association; Mrs. Albert B. Street, county children's division superintendent; Rev. E. H. Bonsall, director of young people's work of Pennsylvania and Rev. D. W. Witte.

The benediction was pronounced by the Rev. R. B. Withers of the West Pittsburg Methodist church and the dinner hour will be given over to a Fellowship repast.

Opposes Purchase Of Three Dozen Arrows For School

This "bow and arrow business"—archery is a more professional name for it—is just so much "foolishness", in the opinion of J. H. McIlvenny of the city's board of education, and he let that fact be known when approval of the board for the purchase of three dozen of arrows was asked last night.

While the board approved the expenditure of $26.92 for the three dozen over Mr. McIlvenny's lone and emphatic "no", the members listened for several minutes to Mr. McIlvenny's objections to what he brands "new foolishness".

"We don't have to teach them how to play Indians," he remarked. "This bow and arrow business was dispensed with thousands of years ago."

Mr. McIlvenny suggested, satirically, that "tiddle-de-winks" also be introduced into the instruction system.

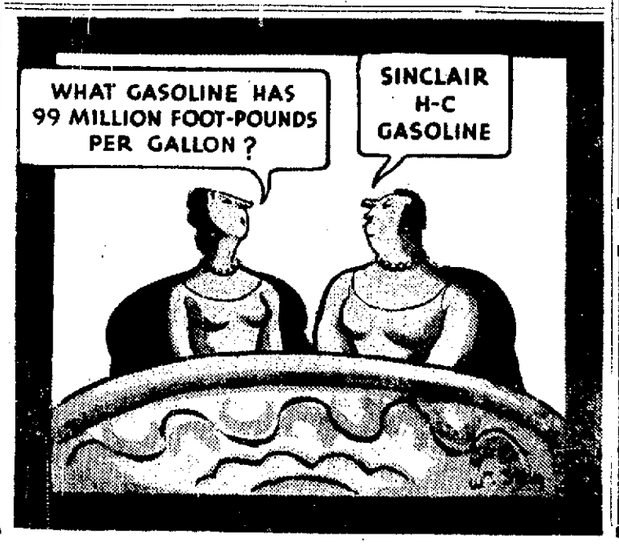

The arrows will be used in classes at Franklin high, and Secretary Hugh M. Marquis told the board that another request for arrows for Washington high was on the way.

McIlvenny opposed the expenditure because of "the need of this money for other things."

Three Alarms Are Answered Last Night

Three alarms were answered by city firemen last night, none of which were of any consequence.

At 9:10 a telephoned alarm was sent from the Union Brewing company, where the ammonia line had bursted, filling the plant with ammonia fumes. Use of four gas masks was requested by employes of the company to shut off the dangerous fumes and make repairs.

At 9:40, they were called to the Lawrence Laundry on South Mill street, when the alarm system of the company which connects at General fire station, went out of order.

At 12:30 this morning, an alarm was sounded from box 69, on Sampson street. Firemen could find nothing in the vicinity but a small fire on a dump nearby.

York County Youth Asks Commutation Of His Life Sentence

CRIME OCCURRED SOME 5 YEARS AGO

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, June 14.—John Curry, 19, youthful York county hex killer who has learned painting behind penitentiary bars, will ask the board of pardons for a commutation of his life sentence next Wednesday.

His application was one of 34 on the calendar of the board's monthly meeting announced today.

Curry was one of three persons convicted of killing Nelson D. Rehmyer in his shack in York county on Thanksgiving day, 1928, in a fantastic attempt to obtain a lock of his hair to break a spell.

Another case to be heard by the board was that of Albert Carelli, alleged "blue bandanna" gangster, who was once pardoned for murder and now seeks parole from a 28 to 50 year sentence for robbery.

named as secretary. "We are met tonight," said Chairman Brown, 'as a group of citizens to offer our support to our fellow citizens of the tin mill who wish to maintain peaceful relations between employer and employe.

W. M. Nunn suggested that such a meeting should not be opened without the salute to the flag and the crowd arose. Mr. Brown then recognized Jack Herbert, chairman of the New Castle Works Employes Representative association:

"About a year ago" said Mr. Herbert, "the Employes Representative Association was inaugurated. At that time we thought little about organization, what we did think about was work. We elected representatives and then proceeded to take up several questions with the management, having to do with convenience of employes. We found the management willing to cooperate in anything that was at all reasonable. A fifteen per cent increase in wages was granted and an additional ten per cent on top of that. Had any outside union been in effect when these increases were made the officers would have said, look what we did for you. As it was, all of the matters between management and men were transacted by the employes representatives and the relation has been satisfactory and harmonious. We do not need outside unions coming in to New Castle to negotiate for us, that we can do ourselves. In our endeavor to continue this relationship we ask the cooperation of the people of New Castle. We are not afraid of outside interference. Neither are we afraid of rain but we carry an umbrella." Mr. Herbert concluded by reminding the crowd that on June 30 the tin workers would hold a mammoth picnic in Cascade Park and invited those present to attend.

Relief Head Speaks

Dr. G. S. Bennett, chairman of the Lawrence County Emergency Relief Board was recognized next and spoke briefly upon the condition of affairs at the present time. "There are 4014 families on relief here at the present time" said Dr. Bennett. That number of families means about one fifth of the population of the county are on relief"

"The tin mills have been the lifesaver of this city. Had they not operated as they did during the past winter. I do not know what would have happened. Just at present there is a strike on at the Johnson Bronze company. In an effort to see if the state would pay rent for families on relief, some of the men on strike went to Harrisburg. I could have told them in a minute what the answer was and saved them the trip. The state cannot pay rents, although the director Eric H. Biddle would like to do so. Food must be provided whether men are on strike or not but shelter is essential also and I want to say that the real estate men of New Castle have been gracious and kind in their attitude towards tenants on relief. However, they are approaching the place where they must have some money and there will be some evictions because of non-payment of rent.

"As citizens we ought to do everything we can to help conditions. A strike at a time like this would only make things far worse and I trust that we will do everything we can to improve conditions."

Asks Co-Operation

H. P. Stone, chairman of the Shenango Employe Representative Association was recognized and he said, "in the Shenango Works we passed a resolution expressing our belief that the vast majority of the employes did not want any steel holiday and asking for the co-operation of the citizens in their desire to continue operations."

"We feel that in the event of such a condition we are entitled to the protection the authorities can give, and to the co-operation of the citizens. The mills here have been running well. Some of the mills on the rivers might be able to stand a strike and expect to get started as soon as the strike was over for their costs are low. Here in New Castle one of the elements in keeping the mills operating is the fact that labor conditions are good. We want to see these mills continue to operate and all of you can lend encouragement to the tin workers you know if you will just do so.

E. E. McGill arose and said that he had just been informed that in the balloting on Tuesday, June 12, 93.27 per cent of the Shenango Works men had voted and 95.54 per cent of the New Castle Works had voted in the employes representation elections.

George Winter offered the following resolution which was adopted without one dissenting vote.

Resolution

WHEREAS, it is a matter of common knowledge received through the public press and otherwise that certain outside labor organizations are seriously considering the calling of a strike or holiday for all workers in the steel industry, such a strike to be called on or about June 16, 1934, and

WHEREAS, the representatives of the employees of the New Castle plants of the American Sheet & Tin Plate Company have recently taken action expressing their opposition to such a holiday and their satisfaction with working conditions in this City, and further soliciting their support in their desire to continue their employment unmolested by either local or outside influences.

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That we, as citizens of the City of New Castle, earnestly protest against any holiday in the steel industry at the present time; that we approve and commend the good common sense and sound judgment of the employees of the steel industry in this city, as shown by the action of their representatives relative to such a holiday, and further that in our judgment such a holiday at the present time would work unjust hardship upon those employees in this city who desire to continue their employment, constituting a large majority thereof; would work a hardship upon the families of those employees as well, would be contrary to the best interest of the City generally, and would tend to hinder and delay national recovery.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that we hereby pledge our hearty support of and co-operation with the employees of the steel industry in New Castle and their representatives in their every effort to be permitted peacefully to continue their employment which they find satisfactory.

From the tone of the meeting Wednesday there can be no mistaking the sentiment here. The people of New Castle want the tin mills to continue operations and this in spite of any steel holiday or national strike that might be called.

In the meeting Wednesday night every walk of life in the city was represented. The crowd filled city council chamber and about fifty were forced to stand.

take the salary reduction question up with the state educational department and to urge the formal approval of its recent requests which called for a 20 percent reduction of the salaries.

Dr. Rule's letter to the board read:

"On the basis of evidence submitted to this office showing that the New Castle school district does not and will not have sufficient funds to pay the salaries required by the salary schedule as modified by the provisions of Sections 2 and 3 of Act No. 48, approved April 25, 1933, and that the payment of the salaries of the schedule as thus modified would be unreasonably oppressive upon the school district during the school year 1934-35, as superintendent of public instruction, I hereby grant in accordance with the provisions of Section 4 of Act No. 48, the request of the New Castle school district to reduce the salaries of teachers during the school year of 1934-35 to not less than 85 percent of the salaries prescribed in accordance with the provisions of Section 1210 of the school law for 1932-33.

"We note that in calculating your probable balance on hand at the close of the present school year, you have made a deduction of all taxes collected in advance on the 1934 duplicate. Since a considerable portion of the 1933 duplicate was collected previous to the first Monday of July, 1933, and applied on the obligations for the school year 1932-33, and since it has apparently been the policy of your board to follow a similar practice for at least several years, it would seem that taxes collected in advance on the 1934 duplicate should be included in your balance on hand at the close of the present year.

"If we do not apply on the current year either the taxes collected in advance on the 1934 duplicate or those taxes which were collected on the 1933 duplicate previous to the first Monday of July, 1933, we set up a false situation with respect to the need of your district for the reduction of teachers' salaries. Since for several years it has been the custom of your board to collect a part of the new duplicate in advance, it is only reasonable to assume that you will follow the same practice one year hence, and that, therefore, a reduction of teachers' salaries to the 85 percent level will be sufficient to enable you to provide for the budget for the school year 1934-35."

That every one, young and old, give more time to the reading and study of God's Word. That Sunday school should not be substituted for church service and that the Bible should have a place in the curriculum of the schools.

That the Sabbath should be observed as the Lord's day and not commercialized by amusements and sports and that the people of Lawrence county keep the parks and playgrounds free from commercialized amusements.

That we need an awakening on the liquor problem, since it has become more thoroughly entrenched than ever before in our national life.

That the gambling evil should be suppressed and the Christian people keep themselves free of all ensnaring forms of gambling. We commend most highly, Mr. Ailey, for the stand has has taken on the gambling evil.

That the Gospel of Jesus Christ is the only adequate solution of the economic and industrial problems of the hantion.

That it is the mission of the Gospel to build up an irresistable sentiment for peace.

That evangelism should be stressed in the Sunday school as a field for personal work.

We desire to express our appreciation to the State Association, under the leadership of Harry E. Paisley, for the assistance it has given in this program; to our highly esteemed county president, Robert M. Strickler, Jr., for his part in it; to the distinguished men who have appeared on our program; and to all who have contributed to it, to the First Presbyterian church of Ellwood City for the use of their commodious building; to the churches that are serving meals to the delegates; to the public press of the county for its generous publicity; and to any and all who have in any way contributed to the success of this convention.

The afternoon speakers included Dr. R. M. Martin, president of the National Reform Association; Mrs. Albert B. Street, county children's division superintendent; Rev. E. H. Bonsall, director of young people's work of Pennsylvania and Rev. D. W. Witte.

The benediction was pronounced by the Rev. R. B. Withers of the West Pittsburg Methodist church and the dinner hour will be given over to a Fellowship repast.

Opposes Purchase Of Three Dozen Arrows For School

This "bow and arrow business"—archery is a more professional name for it—is just so much "foolishness", in the opinion of J. H. McIlvenny of the city's board of education, and he let that fact be known when approval of the board for the purchase of three dozen of arrows was asked last night.

While the board approved the expenditure of $26.92 for the three dozen over Mr. McIlvenny's lone and emphatic "no", the members listened for several minutes to Mr. McIlvenny's objections to what he brands "new foolishness".

"We don't have to teach them how to play Indians," he remarked. "This bow and arrow business was dispensed with thousands of years ago."

Mr. McIlvenny suggested, satirically, that "tiddle-de-winks" also be introduced into the instruction system.

The arrows will be used in classes at Franklin high, and Secretary Hugh M. Marquis told the board that another request for arrows for Washington high was on the way.

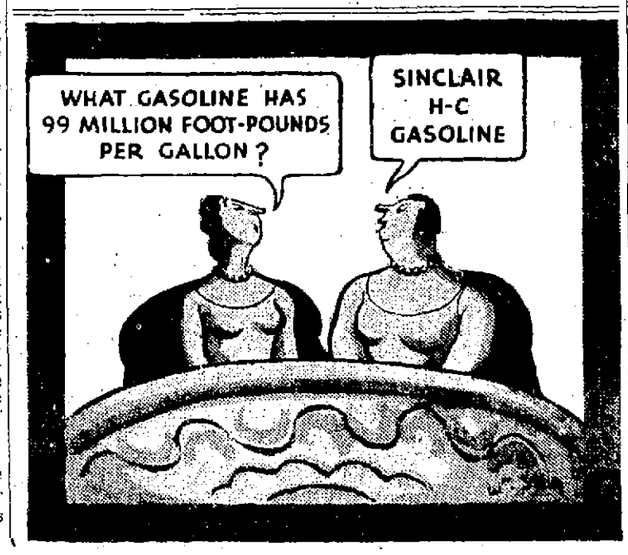

McIlvenny opposed the expenditure because of "the need of this money for other things."

Three Alarms Are Answered Last Night

Three alarms were answered by city firemen last night, none of which were of any consequence.

At 9:10 a telephoned alarm was sent from the Union Brewing company, where the ammonia line had bursted, filling the plant with ammonia fumes. Use of four gas masks was requested by employes of the company to shut off the dangerous fumes and make repairs.

At 9:40, they were called to the Lawrence Laundry on South Mill street, when the alarm system of the company which connects at General fire station, went out of order.

At 12:30 this morning, an alarm was sounded from box 69, on Sampson street. Firemen could find nothing in the vicinity but a small fire on a dump nearby.

York County Youth Asks Commutation Of His Life Sentence

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, June 14.—John Curry, 19, youthful York county hex killer who has learned painting behind penitentiary bars, will ask the board of pardons for a commutation of his life sentence next Wednesday.

His application was one of 34 on the calendar of the board's monthly meeting announced today.

Curry was one of three persons convicted of killing Nelson D. Rehmyer in his shack in York county on Thanksgiving day, 1928, in a fantastic attempt to obtain a lock of his hair to break a spell.

Another case to be heard by the board was that of Albert Carelli, alleged "blue bandanna" gangster, who was once pardoned for murder and now seeks parole from a 28 to 50 year sentence for robbery.

PUSH FOR ACTION IN SENATE UPON NEW LABOR BILL

any industry either on the issue of organization or for the choice of representatives in collective bargaining, as defined in section 7-A of the national recovery act.

3. Impose a fine of $1,000 or a year's imprisonment on any person violating any rule laid down by the conciliation boards or interfering with their operations.

Expires Next June.

All the bill's provisions are limited to the life of the national recovery act which expires next June.

Criticism of the bill has been privately expressed by both progressive and conservative senators. The progressives charge the bill is only a temporary expedient and demand creation of a permanent federal structure to handle labor problems, as proposed in the original Wagner bill. They favor broader powers for the conciliation boards.

The conservatives accept the temporary features of the bill as its only good features and object to the board's being given such broad powers as to regulate union elections. Several conservatives prepared amendments to this section, to be offered at the Republican conference. One of these amendments would protect the voluntary nature of the proposed elections, so employes could not be coerced into participating in them.

Since a considerable portion of the 1933 duplicate was collected previous to the first Monday of July, 1933, and applied on the obligations for the school year 1932-33, and since it has apparently been the policy of your board to follow a similar practice for at least several years, it would seem that taxes collected in advance on the 1934 duplicate should be included in your balance on hand at the close of the present year.

"If we do not apply on the current year either the taxes collected in advance on the 1934 duplicate or those taxes which were collected on the 1933 duplicate previous to the first Monday of July, 1933, we set up a false situation with respect to the need of your district for the reduction of teachers' salaries. Since for several years it has been the custom of your board to collect a part of the new duplicate in advance, it is only reasonable to assume that you will follow the same practice one year hence, and that, therefore, a reduction of teachers' salaries to the 85 percent level will be sufficient to enable you to provide for the budget for the school year 1934-35."

That every one, young and old, give more time to the reading and study of God's Word. That Sunday school should not be substituted for church service and that the Bible should have a place in the curriculum of the schools.

That the Sabbath should be observed as the Lord's day and not commercialized by amusements and sports and that the people of Lawrence county keep the parks and playgrounds free from commercialized amusements.

That we need an awakening on the liquor problem, since it has become more thoroughly entrenched than ever before in our national life.

That the gambling evil should be suppressed and the Christian people keep themselves free of all ensnaring forms of gambling. We commend most highly, Mr. Ailey, for the stand has has taken on the gambling evil.

That the Gospel of Jesus Christ is the only adequate solution of the economic and industrial problems of the hantion.

That it is the mission of the Gospel to build up an irresistable sentiment for peace.

That evangelism should be stressed in the Sunday school as a field for personal work.

We desire to express our appreciation to the State Association, under the leadership of Harry E. Paisley, for the assistance it has given in this program; to our highly esteemed county president, Robert M. Strickler, Jr., for his part in it; to the distinguished men who have appeared on our program; and to all who have contributed to it, to the First Presbyterian church of Ellwood City for the use of their commodious building; to the churches that are serving meals to the delegates; to the public press of the county for its generous publicity; and to any and all who have in any way contributed to the success of this convention.

The afternoon speakers included Dr. R. M. Martin, president of the National Reform Association; Mrs. Albert B. Street, county children's division superintendent; Rev. E. H. Bonsall, director of young people's work of Pennsylvania and Rev. D. W. Witte.

The benediction was pronounced by the Rev. R. B. Withers of the West Pittsburg Methodist church and the dinner hour will be given over to a Fellowship repast.

Opposes Purchase Of Three Dozen Arrows For School

This "bow and arrow business"—archery is a more professional name for it—is just so much "foolishness", in the opinion of J. H. McIlvenny of the city's board of education, and he let that fact be known when approval of the board for the purchase of three dozen of arrows was asked last night.

While the board approved the expenditure of $26.92 for the three dozen over Mr. McIlvenny's lone and emphatic "no", the members listened for several minutes to Mr. McIlvenny's objections to what he brands "new foolishness".

"We don't have to teach them how to play Indians," he remarked. "This bow and arrow business was dispensed with thousands of years ago."

Mr. McIlvenny suggested, satirically, that "tiddle-de-winks" also be introduced into the instruction system.

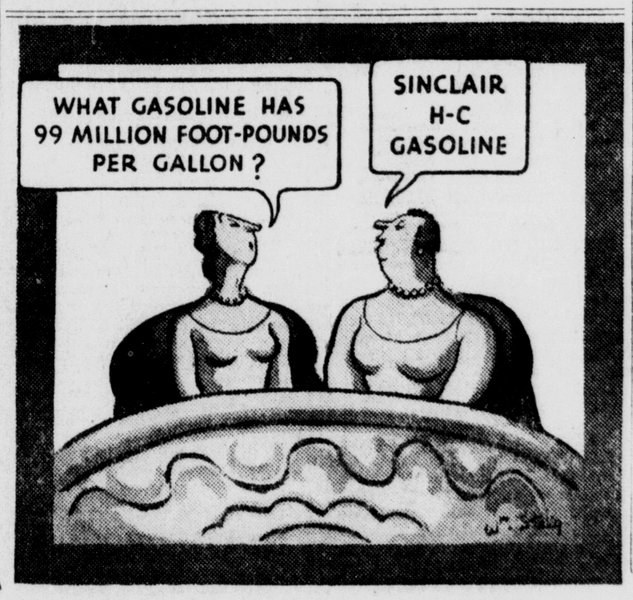

The arrows will be used in classes at Franklin high, and Secretary Hugh M. Marquis told the board that another request for arrows for Washington high was on the way.

McIlvenny opposed the expenditure because of "the need of this money for other things."

Three Alarms Are Answered Last Night

Three alarms were answered by city firemen last night, none of which were of any consequence.

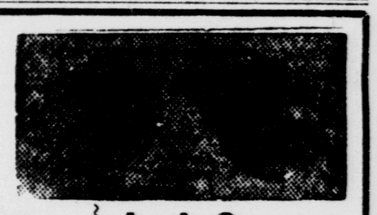

At 9:10 a telephoned alarm was sent from the Union Brewing company, where the ammonia line had bursted, filling the plant with ammonia fumes. Use of four gas masks was requested by employes of the company to shut off the dangerous fumes and make repairs.

At 9:40, they were called to the Lawrence Laundry on South Mill street, when the alarm system of the company which connects at Ceneral fire station, went out of order.

At 12:30 this morning, an alarm was sounded from box 69, on Sampson street. Firemen could find nothing in the vicinity but a small fire on a dump nearby.

Employment in industrial and construction lines in Australia is growing.

POSTMASTER STEEN

WHILE the political practice used by the Democratic administration in ripping the Republican postmaster, Lake S. MacNab, out of office last fall, after he had completed but a portion of his term, added little to the glory of the party, the appointment of Richard A. Steen to fill the position as made yesterday, has much that can be said in commendation.

Mr. Steen's 26 years of good service in the post office here are given fitting recognition in the appointment. Certainly, if any man is qualified for appointment as postmaster, it is one who has a record of excellent service for over a quarter of a century in the postal work.

The appointment of Mr. Steen will meet with general favor in the city. His record as acting postmaster for some months past has been excellent, and there is every reason to look for a continued efficient and capable management of the New Castle post office and postal affairs here under his supervision.

While the nomination has only been sent to the senate for confirmation, the fact that Mr. Steen has been nominated by the president leaves no doubt as to his approval.

THE PUBLIC PAYS

In noting in the report of the house accounts committee an item of $113,000 representing the cost of telegrams sent by members under the telegraph franking privilege one is led to wonder what caused such a great increase in the number of such messages. The total last year was only $50,000.

The fact that this is campaign year and the members of congress have been delayed in returning home to look after their political interests may indicate that some of these members, at least, have been conducting their campaigns by telegraph at public expense.

The franking privilege applies only to messages pertaining to official business. If any members, therefore, have used the wires for campaign or other private pusposes they have violated the regulations governing the franking privilege. Members generally have been warned that hereafter any messages not properly coming within the franking regulations will be charged to the senders and the costs taken out of the latters' salaries.

Just why this should not be done now was not explained. There is no reason why the public should be forced to pay the cost of messages sent by congressmen in efforts to advance their political interests.

The increase in the number of franked telegrams made it necessary to insert in the deficiency appropriation bill an item of $67,000 representing the difference between the cost of such messages and the estimate. Most of the increase, according to Chairman Warren of the accounts committee, was caused by 80 members.

If the franking privilege—telegraph by mail—is not to be abolished its use ought to be subjected to close scrutiny and violations punished.

THEY CAST THEIR BREAD UPON THE WATERS

Four years ago a terrible drought struck the state of Arkansas. The farmers of that section were "up against it" in no uncertain manner. Crops were ruined. Years of effort went to waste as the hot sun beat down upon dry fields.

Farmers in neighboring South Dakota were moved to sympathy by reports of this dry spell; but they went further than being sympathetic. They sent carloads of food for people and feed for animals to their stricken neighbors. Their first thought was to lend a hand. Plenty was theirs at the moment, and they were willing to share it.

Today, shipments of hay and other provender have been sent from Arkansas to South Dakota, as the drought situation is reversed by the 1934 dry spell. Rain has fallen on parched plains now, it is true; but much damage has already been done. South Dakota farmers are in want.

And Arkansas farmers didn't forget what happened in 1930. Their governor gave them a chance to show that "the people of this state never forget a friend," and 20 carloads of hay and cottonseed meal were pledged to be sent northward to South Dakota.

Thus the bread which the people of South Dakota cast upon the waters is being returned to them. As long as such things happen, we know that gratitude and sympathy and neighborliness are not dead and that the people of this great nation are always ready to lend a hand to a friend who is facing difficulties.

RUSSIAN GOLD

If claims made by Soviet officials are borne out, the world soon may find relief from the gold shortage from which it has been suffering.

The production of gold in Russia, according to M. Serebrovsky, chief of the gold industries, already surpasses that of both the United States and Canada and is second only to that of the Transvaal. Production last year had increased to 100,000,000 gold rubles, which would be more than $100,000,000 at the present official rate of exchange. It represents twice the annual production before the revolution. The American output last year was $45,877,085, while Canada produced $63,061,106 and the Transvaal $238,936,062.

Gold-mining methods in the Soviet union have been greatly improved in recent years. One of the drawbacks to increased production is lack of transportation facilities, but these can be provided. Officials indicate it will be done.

If Russia's gold resources are as great as claimed by the mining industries chief, the Soviet would seem to have at hand an effective answer to the foreign credit blockade. It remains to be seen how the claims pan out.

We don't see where the use of "only" helps much in reporting that the budget deficit is three billion dollars.

The president seems to be finding out it is not as easy to get rid of congress as he had expected to be the case.

A "scientific approach to politics" is urged by a scientist. But how are the politicians blocking the way to be removed?

A decrease of 100,000 in Chicago's male population since 1929 is reported. Fugitive gangsters and their ride victims probably account for it.

That scientist who predicts that ultimately we'll lose the use of our fingers must have had in mind the conditions that existed in the pre-depression era. Scratching for a living, as now made necessary, threatens to upset his theory.

All Of Us

By MARSHALL MASLIN

WE ARE BETTER THAN WE WERE

So often men and women look back through the years and sigh because we have not become what we intended to be. . . . They remember those bold, blind ambitions, remember the energy they used to have, remember the wild drive of their lives, and feel rather mournful about themselves. . . . They have a feeling of failure.

I disagree with that feeling, even though I have had it, even though I feel that there is something to be said for that lugubrious point of view.

Too often we have thrown away the best for a bit of trash. Too often we have allowed the bright dream to be tarnished. Too often, at some crucial moment in our lives, we have been less brave than the occasion demanded—and we mourn our cowardice forever.

But still I do not see why a mortal should fall into the error of believing that he was better than what he has become. . . . It does not seem reasonable, and why should we accept it? . . . We need not accept ourselves complacently, whitewashing our errors and follies, but why is it necessary to indict ourselves so bitterly? . . . That sounds like unfair nonsense to me.

Some of those dreams we had were shiningly unselfish. But we had to abandon them because they conflicted with living and beautiful responsibilities. We could not realize them without selfishness. Somewhere along the way we abandoned them with a sigh because there was nothing else for us to do. And when we went back to find them again they had vanished, or some other traveler had picked them up and gone his way.

I know that men and women change with the years, and sometimes they become weaker and less brave than they were. But very often wisdom and tolerance and decent understanding take the place of the powers that are gone. . . . That happens. I have seen it happen and so have you. I know a considerable number of people who are better and stronger right now than they were twenty years ago. And deep within me I believe that this is what happens to most of us.

RECOGNIZE YOUR LIMITATIONS

If you are an inferior player in a certain game, don't keep trying to engage in contests with people who are your superiors unless they invite you to join them.

Too often you probably impose upon your friends in just this way.

Naturally they don't want to indicate that they would prefer to play with a more proficient apponent.

But they wish, nevertheless; you would make it possible for them to do so.

And this you can do by withdrawing from their playing circles.

Of course, it is true that your game will improve more rapidly by playing with those more expert than yourself.

But this fact should not cause you to impose upon good nature and the greater pleasures friends would experience in playing with their equals.

In some cases, a good player likes the companionship of an inferior player so well that he enjoys playing with him more than with others who would afford him greater competition.

Don't take advantage of that friend of yours by making it difficult for him to associate with those more capable of making his game a real contest.

Just Folks

FLAG DAY

For every state a star
Upon a field of blue.
For thirteen states a bar
Of white and crimson hue.
Thus beautiful to see
The flag to all appears.
God grant that it may be
Safe cherished through the years!

God grant that it remain
The flag of larger scope.
Not for a little gain.
Not for a selfish hope,
But for the greater good
For which it came to birth—
The flag of brotherhood
And freedom round the earth.

Wherever we may roam,
Where'er life's pathway wends,
Our Flag will symbol home,
The hearthfire and our friends,
The childhood we have known,
The mother at the door,
The tender spirits flown
Of loved ones gone before.

Oh, red and white and blue,
With stars for every state,
God grant that we shall do
The deeds that keep thee great.
God grant through strife and pain
Wherever mortals grope,
Old Glory shall remain
The flag of human hope.

OFFICE ETIQUETTE

Girls have been working in offices for many years now and have gotten by somehow without an office etiquette code, and they will likely continue to get along in just about the same way no matter how many codes of etiquette are propounded for girl office workers. But since this is the day of codes for this and that, interest has been revived in a code of etiquette for office girls, and the magazine, Independent Women, has undertaken to compile a sample code. Among the more important questions to which answers are sought are: Should office girls smoke in the office? Renew their make-up while at the typewriter? Accept luncheon invitations from their employers? Be friendly with persons who call upon their employers? Accept attentions from the boss's son? Wear dark and severe clothes, or dress in fashion? Permit bosses or executives, married men, to drive them home? Have social relations after office hours with men who work in their office? Point out the boss's mistakes? etc.

Hints and Dints—Pop was busy mending a rip in his shirt, Mom once had all the good intentions of doing it, but for the last hour she had been getting an earful of gossip over the phone.

Pop—"Mom, where are the scissors?"

Mom (at the phone)—"Really, I could have died on the spot, and then she said—"

Pop—"Mom, where in Sam Hill are the scissors?"

Mom (still dead to the world)—"You know if I'd been her I'd have got up and said"—

Pop—"Oh, well I might as well ransack the house, no use trying to attract Mom's attention." Gets up, looks in several drawers, on the kitchen shelf, comes into the dining room, looks in writing desk, work basket and several other places.

Mom (looks up from phone)—"What are you hunting for?"

Pop—"The blasted scissors."

Mom—"They aren't in here and I don't know where they could be. Willie had them last." (To phone)—"Yes, Mrs. Herden. No, really couldn't say, why"—

Pop—"Well, I'll chew it off. I wish that fool kid would put things back where he found them."

Mom, who has finally finished her conversation, comes out to see whats what. "Did you find them?"

Pop—"No!"

Willie (enters with a bloody nose)—"Wow! Gimme a rag!"

Mom—"Been fighting again. Well, who this time? With that neighbor's boy? Well, you got what you deserved."

Pop—"William, have you seen the scissors?"

Willie—"That's what we were fighting about. He took my scissors away from me an' he's still got 'em."

Mom—"He has, has he? Well, I'll go over and tell that woman where her children get off, the little thief."

Retail Stocks Cut But Sales Outlook Good
A. F. Of L. Joins With Wall Street
Words In Roosevelt Message Weighed

By LESLIE EICHEL
Central Press Staff Writer

NEW YORK, June 14.—While retail store stocks are being cut to a low level for mid-season inventory, good trade is expected from late summer on. Prices, however, are expected to be lower. That will facilitate sales. In brief, smaller profit per article will have to be taken, for production costs still are increasing.

In the meantime, there are plenty of sales.

The American Federation of Labor joins with Wall Street in believing that business does not have sufficient incentive. There continues to be lack of confidence, the A. F. of L. says, because business men see no opportunity for large profits, and because of regulation by codes and of security markets. Added to that, the A. F. of L. continues, there is confusion because of "the lack of any satisfactory agency with authority to adjust labor difficulties."

To the profit criticism, the Socialists and the independent labor groups respond, "The government will have to go even further. If there is no incentive to private business because large profits cannot be made, then the government itself will have to operate business. Only by the elimination of inordinate profits and the distribution of earnings can a large part of our population be saved."

PRESIDENT'S WORDS

What President Roosevelt said in his message on social legislation is the nub of the question over which Wall Street and the A. F. of L. join hands. The president said:

"Ample scope is left for the exercise of private initiative. In fact, in the process of recovery, I am hoping that repeated promises that private investment and private initiative to relieve the government in the immediate future of much of the burden it has assumed will be fulfilled.

"We have not imposed undue restrictions upon business. We have not opposed the incentive of reasonable and legitimate private profit. We have sought, rather, to enable certain aspects of business to regain the confidence of the public. We have sought to put forward the rule of fair play in finance and industry.

"It is true that there are a few among us who would still go back. These few offer no substitute for the gains already made, nor any hope for making future gains for human happiness. They loudly assert that individual liberty is being restricted by government, but when they are asked what individual liberties they have lost, they are put to it to answer."

A REDEDICATION

President Roosevelt social legislation message now is being hailed as the finest presidential message in generations.

It eventually may take rank with Lincoln's Gettysburg address, not as literature, but as a milestone in the advancement of a people.

There is a tremendous promise in two paragraphs:

"These three great objectives—the security of the home, the security of livelihood and the security of social insurance—are, it seems to me, a minimum of promise that we can offer to the American people. They constitute a right which belongs to every individual and every family willing to work. They are the essential fulfillment of measures already taken toward relief, recovery and reconstruction.

"This seeking for a greater measure of welfare and happiness does not indicate a change in values. It is rather a return to values lost in the course of our economic development and expansion."

A FREER ROOSEVELT

There seems little doubt among authentic sources that President Roosevelt is eager for congress to adjourn for one reason—so that he can use his vast powers for reconstruction unobstructed by picayune attacks.

The president evidently is willing to permit valuable social legislation to perish this session in order to "get going on his own".

The president is essentially a democrat (with a small "d"—far too much in the eyes of the European dictators. But the president is an individualist. He desires to "do something" himself. He is his own government. As a youth he could not be happy unless he was the leader, although he was a quiet, studious, retiring boy. His cabinet, with the exception of three members, is innocuous.

When congress adjourns, he will make recess appointments of the "right kind" of men to run things, and by the time a new congress returns to confirm, or reject, those appointments, the New Deal either will have succeeded, or failed.

CLOSING DAYS

The closing days of congress (or a legislature) invariably see the greatest pressure brought by "the interests".

Chief pressure this year is by the American Telephone & Telegraph company—world's largest private monopoly—against a congressional investigation.

TODAY Is The Day

THURSDAY, JUNE 14

Memorable Days—June 14, 1767—The parliament enacted legislation calculated to bring in a few hundred thousands in additional revenues yearly. It cost Britain her American colonies, for it was an act levying duties on tea, paper, painted glassware, etc., imported into the American colonies—taxation without representation which the colonists found intolerable.

June 14, 1777.—In the records of Congress for this date, sandwiched between the appointment of a naval officer and an order relating to the six small sloops stationed in the Delaware river, is a resolution:

"Resolved, That the Flag of the United States shall be thirteen stripes, alternate red and white; that the union be thirteen stars, white in a blue field, representing a new constellation."

Thus was born the Star Spangled Banner

Contrary to the romantic tradition, Mrs. Betsy Ross of Philadelphia probably had nothing to do with designing it. George Washington raised a flag of his own design, the "Grand Union," with 13 alternate red and white stripes and crosses of Sts. George and Andrew in the field, over his headquarters at Cambridge, Mass., in January, 1776. He couldn't have been in Betsy Ross' shop sketching a flag for her, at any time within five months of Congressional adoption of Old Glory; for he wasn't in Philadelphia during that time.

(Believe it or not, on U. S. Flag day, 1880, red, white and blue hailstones fell in Russia.)

June 14, 1801.—Benedict Arnold, hero and traitor, died in London, aged 60.

There isn't a monument to him in England, which he served; there is a tribute to him in the country which he betrayed.

The traitor was buried and forgotten in England; the hero is commemorated upon the field at Saratoga where he fought and won for the U. S., one of the 15 decisive battles of the world.

A monument at Saratoga does honor to Arnold's leg, twice wounded as he was leading Continental armies.

(There is a story that when Arnold, then fighting for the British, captured a young Continental officer in Virginia, he asked: "What would your friends do to me if they caught me now?" The officer answered: "General, they would cut off the leg which was wounded at Quebec and Saratoga and bury it with military honors and hang the rest of you.")

June 14, 1859.—Jean Henri Dunant, a Swiss touring in Lombardy, saw 40,000 men die upon the battlefield of Solferino as the allied armies of Victor Emmanuel of Sardinia and Neopleon III of France sought to crush the army of Austria. He organized the women and girls of the nearby village of Castiglioni to care for the wounded; labored three days without rest attending to French, Austrians and Italians indiscriminiately. Then he went home to pour out his horror over man's inhumanity to man in a pamphlet which was read around the world and resulted in the formation of the Red Cross.

June 14, 1900.—Hawaii succeeded after five years of efforts in getting itself annexed by the United States. The Spanish war which brought the U. S. the Philippines and other possessions changed the feelings of Americans about territorial expansion and foreign possessions.

Notable Nativities June 14.—Harriet Beecher Stowe, b. 1811. She wrote America's best seller when she was 40. (The original of "Uncle Tom," the Rev. Josiah Henson of Kentucky, was born on June 15.)  John McCormack, b. 1884, singer.  Livingston Farrand, b. 1867, president of Cornell university. * John Bartlett, b. 1820, famed compiler of "Familiar Quotations." He was 35 when the first edition appeared.  Robert M. Lafollette, Sr., b. 1855, liberal statesman.

In The "Good Old Days"—Burning censers were placed throughout the arena during the sports contests in the great Roman amphitheaters to perfume the air. Persons were annointed as they entered gymnasiums or other public places. So little bathing was done that whatever crowds gathered, it was necessary to do some perfuming.

First Of All—The first non-stop transatlantic flight was made 15 years ago today, by John Alcock and Arthur Whitten Brown, Englishmen. They flew from Newfoundland to Ireland, eight years before Lindberg, in 16 hours and 12 minutes.

AN ORDER ANYWAY

"Hello, this is Mrs. Jones. Will you send me some nice cutlets right away?"

"I'm sorry, but we haven't any cutlets."

"Well, then, a couple of lean pork chops."

"We haven't any pork chops, either, Mrs. Jones."

"Oh, how provoking. Then a small sirloin steak will have to do."

"We haven't any steak."

"For heaven's sake. Aren't you Smith the butcher?"

"No, I'm Smith the florist."

"Oh, well, send me a dozen white lilies. My husband must be starved to death by now."

POSTMASTER STEEN

WHILE the political practice used by the Democratic administration in ripping the Republican postmaster, Lake S. MacNab, out of office last fall, after he had completed but a portion of his term, added little to the glory of the party, the appointment of Richard A. Steen to fill the position as made yesterday, has much that can be said in commendation.

Mt. Steen's 26 years of good service in the post office here are given fitting recognition in the appointment. Certainly, if any man is qualified for appointment as postmaster, it is one who has a record of excellent service for over a quarter of a century in the postal work.

The appointment of Mr. Steen will meet with general favor in the city. His record as acting postmaster for some months past has been excellent, and there is every reason to look for a continued efficient and capable management of the New Castle post office and postal affairs here under his supervision.

While the nomination has only been sent to the senate for confirmation, the fact that Mr. Steen has been nominated by the president leaves no doubt as to his approval.

THE PUBLIC PAYS

In noting in the report of the house accounts committee an item of $113,000 representing the cost of telegrams sent by members under the telegraph franking privilege one is led to wonder what caused such a great increase in the number of such messages. The total last year was only $50,000.

The fact that this is campaign year and the members of congress have been delayed in returning home to look after their political interests may indicate that some of these members, at least, have been conducting their campaigns by telegraph at public expense.

The franking privilege applies only to messages pertaining to official business. If any members, therefore, have used the wires for campaign or other private pusposes they have violated the regulations governing the franking privilege. Members generally have been warned that hereafter any messages not properly coming within the franking regulations will be charged to the senders and the costs taken out of the latters' salaries.

Just why this should not be done now was not explained. There is no reason why the public should be forced to pay the cost of messages sent by congressmen in efforts to advance their political interests.

The increase in the number of franked telegrams made it necessary to insert in the deficiency appropriation bill an item of $67,000 representing the difference between the cost of such messages and the estimate. Most of the increase, according to Chairman Warren of the accounts committee, was caused by 80 members.

If the franking privilege—telegraph by mail—is not to be abolished its use ought to be subjected to close scrutiny and violations punished.

THEY CAST THEIR BREAD UPON THE WATERS

Four years ago a terrible drought struck the state of Arkansas. The farmers of that section were "up against it" in no uncertain manner. Crops were ruined. Years of effort went to waste as the hot sun beat down upon dry fields.

Farmers in neighboring South Dakota were moved to sympathy by reports of this dry spell; but they went further than being sympathetic. They sent carloads of food for people and feed for animals to their stricken neighbors. Their first thought was to lend a hand. Plenty was theirs at the moment, and they were willing to share it.

Today, shipments of hay and other provender have been sent from Arkansas to South Dakota, as the drought situation is reversed by the 1934 dry spell. Rain has fallen on parched plains now, it is true; but much damage has already been done. South Dakota farmers are in want.

And Arkansas farmers didn't forget what happened in 1930. Their governor gave them a chance to show that "the people of this state never forget a friend," and 20 carloads of hay and cottonseed meal were pledged to be sent northward to South Dakota.

Thus the bread which the people of South Dakota cast upon the waters is being returned to them. As long as such things happen, we know that gratitude and sympathy and neighborliness are not dead and that the people of this great nation are always ready to lend a hand to a friend who is facing difficulties.

RUSSIAN GOLD

If claims made by Soviet officials are borne out, the world soon may find relief from the gold shortage from which it has been suffering.

The production of gold in Russia, according to M. Serebrovsky, chief of the gold industries, already surpasses that of both the United States and Canada and is second only to that of the Transvaal. Production last year had increased to 100,000,000 gold rubles, which would be more than $100,000,000 at the present official rate of exchange. It represents twice the annual production before the revolution. The American output last year was $45,877,085, while Canada produced $63,061,106 and the Transvaal $238,936,062.

Gold-mining methods in the Soviet union have been greatly improved in recent years. One of the drawbacks to increased production is lack of transportation facilities, but these can be provided. Officials indicate it will be done.

If Russia's gold resources are as great as claimed by the mining industries chief, the Soviet would seem to have at hand an effective answer to the foreign credit blockade. It remains to be seen how the claims pan out.

We don't see where the use of "only" helps much in reporting that the budget deficit is three billion dollars.

The president seems to be finding out it is not as easy to get rid of congress as he had expected to be the case.

A "scientific approach to politics" is urged by a scientist. But how are the politicians blocking the way to be removed?

A decrease of 100,000 in Chicago's male population since 1929 is reported. Fugitive gangsters and their ride victims probably account for it.

That scientist who predicts that ultimately we'll lose the use of our fingers must have had in mind the conditions that existed in the pre-depression era. Scratching for a living, as now made necessary, threatens to upset his theory.

All Of Us

By MARSHALL MASLIN

WE ARE BETTER THAN WE WERE

So often men and women look back through the years and sigh because we have not become what we intended to be. . . . They remember those bold, blind ambitions, remember the energy they used to have, remember the wild drive of their lives, and feel rather mournful about themselves. . . . They have a feeling of failure.

I disagree with that feeling, even though I have had it, even though I feel that there is something to be said for that lugubrious point of view.

Too often we have thrown away the best for a bit of trash. Too often we have allowed the bright dream to be tarnished. Too often, at some crucial moment in our lives, we have been less brave than the occasion demanded—and we mourn our cowardice forever.

But still I do not see why a mortal should fall into the error of believing that he was better than what he has become. . . . It does not seem reasonable, and why should we accept it? . . . We need not accept ourselves complacently, whitewashing our errors and follies, but why is it necessary to indict ourselves so bitterly? . . . That sounds like unfair nonsense to me.

Some of those dreams we had were shiningly unselfish. But we had to abandon them because they conflicted with living and beautiful responsibilities. We could not realize them without selfishness. Somewhere along the way we abandoned them with a sigh because there was nothing else for us to do. And when we went back to find them again they had vanished, or some other traveler had picked them up and gone his way.

I know that men and women change with the years, and sometimes they become weaker and less brave than they were. But very often wisdom and tolerance and decent understanding take the place of the powers that are gone. . . . That happens. I have seen it happen and so have you. I know a considerable number of people who are better and stronger right now than they were twenty years ago. And deep within me I believe that this is what happens to most of us.

RECOGNIZE YOUR LIMITATIONS

If you are an inferior player in a certain game, don't keep trying to engage in contests with people who are your superiors unless they invite you to join them.

Too often you probably impose upon your friends in just this way.

Naturally they don't want to indicate that they would prefer to play with a more proficient apponent.

But they wish, nevertheless, you would make it possible for them to do so.

And this you can do by withdrawing from their playing circles.

Of course, it is true that your game will improve more rapidly by playing with those more expert than yourself.

But this fact should not cause you to impose upon good nature and the greater pleasures friends would experience in playing with their equals.

In some cases, a good player likes the companionship of an inferior player so well that he enjoys playing with him more than with others who would afford him greater competition.

Don't take advantage of that friend of yours by making it difficult for him to associate with those more capable of making his game a real contest.

Just Folks

FLAG DAY

For every state a star
Upon a field of blue.
For thirteen states a bar
Of white and crimson hue.
Thus beautiful to see
The flag to all appears.
God grant that it may be
Safe cherished through the years!

God grant that it remain
The flag of larger scope.
Not for a little gain.
Not for a selfish hope,
But for the greater good
For which it came to birth—
The flag of brotherhood
And freedom round the earth.

Wherever we may roam,
Where'er life's pathway wends,
Our Flag will symbol home,
The hearthfire and our friends,
The childhood we have known,
The mother at the door,
The tender spirits flown
Of loved ones gone before.

Oh, red and white and blue,
With stars for every state,
God grant that we shall do
The deeds that keep thee great.
God grant through strife and pain
Wherever mortals grope,
Old Glory shall remain
The flag of human hope.

OFFICE ETIQUETTE

Girls have been working in offices for many years now and have gotten by somehow without an office etiquette code, and they will likely continue to get along in just about the same way no matter how many codes of etiquette are propounded for girl office workers. But since this is the day of codes for this and that, interest has been revived in a code of etiquette for office girls, and the magazine, Independent Women, has undertaken to compile a sample code. Among the more important questions to which answers are sought are: Should office girls smoke in the office? Renew their make-up while at the typewriter? Accept luncheon invitations from their employers? Be friendly with persons who call upon their employers? Accept attentions from the boss's son? Wear dark and severe clothes, or dress in fashion? Permit bosses or executives, married men, to drive them home? Have social relations after office hours with men who work in their office? Point out the boss's mistakes? etc.

Pop—"Mom, where are the scissors?"

Mom (at the phone)—"Really, I could have died on the spot, and then she said—"

Pop—"Mom, where in Sam Hill are the scissors?"

Mom (still dead to the world)—"You know if I'd been her I'd have got up and said"—

Pop—"Oh, well I might as well ransack the house, no use trying to attract Mom's attention." Gets up, looks in several drawers, on the kitchen shelf, comes into the dining room, looks in writing desk, work basket and several other places.

Mom (looks up from phone)—"What are you hunting for?"

Pop—"The blasted scissors."

Mom—"They aren't in here and I don't know where they could be. Willie had them last." (To phone)—"Yes, Mrs. Herden. No, really couldn't say, why"—

Pop—"Well, I'll chew it off. I wish that fool kid would put things back where he found them."

Mom, who has finally finished her conversation, comes out to see whats what. "Did you find them?"

Pop—"No!"

Willie (enters with a bloody nose)—"Wow! Gimme a rag!"

Mom—"Been fighting again. Well, who this time? With that neighbor's boy? Well, you got what you deserved."

Pop—"William, have you seen the scissors?"

Willie—"That's what we were fighting about. He took my scissors away from me an' he's still got 'em."

Mom—"He has, has he? Well, I'll go over and tell that woman where her children get off, the little thief."

Retail Stocks Cut But Sales Outlook Good
A. F. Of L. Joins With Wall Street

By LESLIE EICHEL
Central Press Staff Writer

NEW YORK, June 14.—While retail store stocks are being cut to a low level for mid-season inventory, good trade is expected from late summer on. Prices, however, are expected to be lower. That will facilitate sales. In brief, smaller profit per article will have to be taken, for production costs still are increasing.

In the meantime, there are plenty of sales.

The American Federation of Labor joins with Wall Street in believing that business does not have sufficient incentive. There continues to be lack of confidence, the A. F. of L. says, because business men see no opportunity for large profits, and because of regulation by codes and of security markets. Added to that, the A. F. of L. continues, there is confusion because of "the lack of any satisfactory agency with authority to adjust labor difficulties."

To the profit criticism, the Socialists and the independent labor groups respond, "The government will have to go even further. If there is no incentive to private business because large profits cannot be made, then the government itself will have to operate business. Only by the elimination of inordinate profits and the distribution of earnings can a large part of our population be saved."

PRESIDENT'S WORDS

What President Roosevelt said in his message on social legislation is the nub of the question over which Wall Street and the A. F. of L. join hands. The president said:

"Ample scope is left for the exercise of private initiative. In fact, in the process of recovery, I am hoping that repeated promises that private investment and private initiative to relieve the government in the immediate future of much of the burden it has assumed will be fulfilled.

"We have not imposed undue restrictions upon business. We have not opposed the incentive of reasonable and legitimate private profit. We have sought, rather, to enable certain aspects of business to regain the confidence of the public. We have sought to put forward the rule of fair play in finance and industry.

"It is true that there are a few among us who would still go back. These few offer no substitute for the gains already made, nor any hope for making future gains for human happiness. They loudly assert that individual liberty is being restricted by government, but when they are asked what individual liberties they have lost, they are put to it to answer."

A REDEDICATION

President Roosevelt social legislation message now is being hailed as the finest presidential message in generations.

It eventually may take rank with Lincoln's Gettysburg address, not as literature, but as a milestone in the advancement of a people.

There is a tremendous promise in two paragraphs:

"These three great objectives—the security of the home, the security of livelihood and the security of social insurance—are, it seems to me, a minimum of promise that we can offer to the American people. They constitute a right which belongs to every individual and every family willing to work. They are the essential fulfillment of measures already taken toward relief, recovery and reconstruction.

"This seeking for a greater measure of welfare and happiness does not indicate a change in values. It is rather a return to values lost in the course of our economic development and expansion."

A FREER ROOSEVELT

There seems little doubt among authentic sources that President Roosevelt is eager for congress to adjourn for one reason—so that he can use his vast powers for reconstruction unobstructed by picayune attacks.

The president evidently is willing to permit valuable social legislation to perish this session in order to "get going on his own".

The president is essentially a democrat (with a small "d"—far too much in the eyes of the European dictators. But the president is an individualist. He desires to "do something" himself. He is his own government. As a youth he could not be happy unless he was the leader, although he was a quiet, studious, retiring boy. His cabinet, with the exception of three members, is innocuous.

When congress adjourns, he will make recess appointments of the "right kind" of men to run things, and by the time a new congress returns to confirm, or reject, those appointments, the New Deal either will have succeeded, or failed.

CLOSING DAYS

The closing days of congress (or a legislature) invariably see the greatest pressure brought by "the interests".

Chief pressure this year is by the American Telephone & Telegraph company—world's largest private monopoly—against a congressional investigation.

Memorable Days—June 14, 1767—The parliament enacted legislation calculated to bring in a few hundred thousands in additional revenues yearly. June 14, 1777.—In the records of Congress for this date, sandwiched between the appointment of a naval officer and an order relating to the six small sloops stationed in the Delaware river, is a resolution:

"Resolved, That, the Flag of the United States shall be thirteen stripes, alternate red and white; that the union be thirteen stars, white in a blue field, representing a new constellation."

Thus was born the Star Spangled Banner

Contrary to the romantic tradition, Mrs. Betsy Ross of Philadelphia probably had nothing to do with designing it. George Washington raised a flag of his own design, the "Grand Union," with 13 alternate red and white stripes and crosses of Sts. George and Andrew in the field, over his headquarters at Cambridge, Mass., in January, 1776. He couldn't have been in Betsy Ross' shop sketching a flag for her, at any time within five months of Congressional adoption of Old Glory; for he wasn't in Philadelphia during that time.

(Believe it or not, on U. S. Flag day, 1880, red, white and blue hailstones fell in Russia.)

June 14, 1801.—Benedict Arnold, hero and traitor, died in London, aged 60.

There isn't a monument to him in England, which he served; there is a tribute to him in the country which he betrayed.

The traitor was buried and forgotten in England; the hero is commemorated upon the field at Saratoga where he fought and won for the U. S., one of the 15 decisive battles of the world.

A monument at Saratoga does honor to Arnold's leg, twice wounded as he was leading Continental armies.

(There is a story that when Arnold, then fighting for the British, captured a young Continental officer in Virginia, he asked: "What would your friends do to me if they caught me now?" The officer answered: "General, they would cut off the leg which was wounded at Quebec and Saratoga and bury it with military honors and hang the rest of you.")

June 14, 1859.—Jean Henri Dunant, a Swiss touring in Lombardy, saw 40,000 men die upon the battlefield of Solferino as the allied armies of Victor Emmanuel of Sardinia and Neopleon III of France sought to crush the army of Austria. He organized the women and girls of the nearby village of Castiglioni to care for the wounded; labored three days without rest attending to French, Austrians and Italians indiscriminiately. Then he went home to pour out his horror over man's inhumanity to man in a pamphlet which was read around the world and resulted in the formation of the Red Cross.

"Hello, this is Mrs. Jones. Will you send me some nice cutlets right away?"

"I'm sorry, but we haven't any cutlets."

"Well, then, a couple of lean pork chops."

"We haven't any pork chops, either, Mrs. Jones."

"Oh, how provoking. Then a small sirloin steak will have to do."

"Oh; well, send me a dozen white lilies. My husband must be starved to death by now."

POSTMASTER STEEN

WHILE the political practice used by the Democratic administration in ripping the Republican postmaster, Lake S. MacNab, out of office last fall, after he had completed but a portion of his term, added little to the glory of the party, the appointment of Richard A. Steen to fill the position as made yesterday, has much that can be said in commendation.

Mr. Steen's 26 years of good service in the post office here are given fitting recognition in the appointment. Certainly, if any man is qualified for appointment as postmaster, it is one who has a record of excellent service for over a quarter of a century in the postal work.

The appointment of Mr. Steen will meet with general favor in the city. His record as acting postmaster for some months past has been excellent, and there is every reason to look for a continued efficient and capable management of the New Castle post office and postal affairs here under his supervision.

While the nomination has only been sent to the senate for confirmation, the fact that Mr. Steen has been nominated by the president leaves no doubt as to his approval.

THE PUBLIC PAYS

In noting in the report of the house accounts committee an item of $113,000 representing the cost of telegrams sent by members under the telegraph franking privilege one is led to wonder what caused such a great increase in the number of such messages. The total last year was only $50,000.

The fact that this is campaign year and the members of congress have been delayed in returning home to look after their political interests may indicate that some of these members, at least, have been conducting their campaigns by telegraph at public expense.

The franking privilege applies only to messages pertaining to official business. If any members, therefore, have used the wires for campaign or other private pusposes they have violated the regulations governing the franking privilege. Members generally have been warned that hereafter any messages not properly coming within the franking regulations will be charged to the senders and the costs taken out of the latters' salaries.

Just why this should not be done now was not explained. There is no reason why the public should be forced to pay the cost of messages sent by congressmen in efforts to advance their political interests.

The increase in the number of franked telegrams made it necessary to insert in the deficiency appropriation bill an item of $67,000 representing the difference between the cost of such messages and the estimate. Most of the increase, according to Chairman Warren of the accounts committee, was caused by 80 members.

If the franking privilege—telegraph by mail—is not to be abolished its use ought to be subjected to close scrutiny and violations punished.

THEY CAST THEIR BREAD UPON THE WATERS

Four years ago a terrible drought struck the state of Arkansas. The farmers of that section were "up against it" in no uncertain manner. Crops were ruined. Years of effort went to waste as the hot sun beat down upon dry fields.

Farmers in neighboring South Dakota were moved to sympathy by reports of this dry spell; but they went further than being sympathetic. They sent carloads of food for people and feed for animals to their stricken neighbors. Their first thought was to lend a hand. Plenty was theirs at the moment, and they were willing to share it.

Today, shipments of hay and other provender have been sent from Arkansas to South Dakota, as the drought situation is reversed by the 1934 dry spell. Rain has fallen on parched plains now, it is true; but much damage has already been done. South Dakota farmers are in want.

And Arkansas farmers didn't forget what happened in 1930. Their governor gave them a chance to show that "the people of this state never forget a friend," and 20 carloads of hay and cottonseed meal were pledged to be sent northward to South Dakota.

Thus the bread which the people of South Dakota cast upon the waters is being returned to them. As long as such things happen, we know that gratitude and sympathy and neighborliness are not dead and that the people of this great nation are always ready to lend a hand to a friend who is facing difficulties.

RUSSIAN GOLD

If claims made by Soviet officials are borne out, the world soon may find relief from the gold shortage from which it has been suffering.

The production of gold in Russia, according to M. Serebrovsky, chief of the gold industries, already surpasses that of both the United States and Canada and is second only to that of the Transvaal. Production last year had increased to 100,000,000 gold rubles, which would be more than $100,000,000 at the present official rate of exchange. It represents twice the annual production before the revolution. The American output last year was $45,877,085, while Canada produced $63,061,106 and the Transvaal $238,936,062.

Gold-mining methods in the Soviet union have been greatly improved in recent years. One of the drawbacks to increased production is lack of transportation facilities, but these can be provided. Officials indicate it will be done.

If Russia's gold resources are as great as claimed by the mining industries chief, the Soviet would seem to have at hand an effective answer to the foreign credit blockade. It remains to be seen how the claims pan out.

We don't see where the use of "only" helps much in reporting that the budge: deficit is three billion dollars.

The president seems to be finding out it is not as easy to get rid of congress as he had expected to be the case.

A "scientific approach to politics" is urged by a scientist. But how are the politicians blocking the way to be removed?

A decrease of 100,000 in Chicago's male population since 1929 is reported. Fugitive gangsters and their ride victims probably account for it.

That scientist who predicts that ultimately we'll lose the use of our fingers must have had in mind the conditions that existed in the pre-depression era. Scratching for a living, as now made necessary, threatens to upset his theory.

All Of Us

By MARSHALL MASLIN

WE ARE BETTER THAN WE WERE

So often men and women look back through the years and sigh because we have not become what we intended to be. . . . They remember those bold, blind ambitions, remember the energy they used to have, remember the wild drive of their lives, and feel rather mournful about themselves. . . . They have a feeling of failure.

I disagree with that feeling, even though I have had it, even though I feel that there is something to be said for that lugubrious point of view.

Too often we have thrown away the best for a bit of trash. Too often we have allowed the bright dream to be tarnished. Too often, at some crucial moment in our lives, we have been less brave than the occasion demanded—and we mourn our cowardice forever.

But still I do not see why a mortal should fall into the error of believing that he was better than what he has become. . . . It does not seem reasonable, and why should we accept it? . . . We need not accept ourselves complacently, whitewashing our errors and follies, but why is it necessary to indict ourselves so bitterly? . . . That sounds like unfair nonsense to me.

Some of those dreams we had were shiningly unselfish. But we had to abandon them because they conflicted with living and beautiful responsibilities. We could not realize them without selfishness. Somewhere along the way we abandoned them with a sigh because there was nothing else for us to do. And when we went back to find them again they had vanished, or some other traveler had picked them up and gone his way.

I know that men and women change with the years, and sometimes they become weaker and less brave than they were. But very often wisdom and tolerance and decent understanding take the place of the powers that are gone. . . . That happens. I have seen it happen and so have you. I know a considerable number of people who are better and stronger right now than they were twenty years ago. And deep within me I believe that this is what happens to most of us.

RECOGNIZE YOUR LIMITATIONS

If you are an inferior player in a certain game, don't keep trying to engage in contests with people who are your superiors unless they invite you to join them.

Too often you probably impose upon your friends in just this way.

Naturally they don't want to indicate that they would prefer to play with a more proficient apponent.

But they wish, nevertheless, you would make it possible for them to do so.

And this you can do by withdrawing from their playing circles.

Of course, it is true that your game will improve more rapidly by playing with those more expert than yourself.

But this fact should not cause you to impose upon good nature and the greater pleasures friends would experience in playing with their equals.

In some cases, a good player likes the companionship of an inferior player so well that he enjoys playing with him more than with others who would afford him greater competition.

Don't take advantage of that friend of yours by making it difficult for him to associate with those more capable of making his game a real contest.

FLAG DAY

For every state a star
Upon a field of blue.
For thirteen states a bar
Of white and crimson hue.
Thus beautiful to see
The flag to all appears.
God grant that it may be
Safe cherished through the years!

God grant that it remain
The flag of larger scope.
Not for a little gain,
Not for a selfish hope,
But for the greater good
For which it came to birth—
The flag of brotherhood
And freedom round the earth.

Wherever we may roam,
Where'er life's pathway wends,
Our Flag will symbol home.
The hearthfire and our friends,
The childhood we have known,
The mother at the door,
The tender spirits flown
Of loved ones gone before.

Oh, red and white and blue,
With stars for every state,
God grant that we shall do
The deeds that keep thee great.
God grant through strife and pain
Wherever mortals grope,
Old Glory shall remain
The flag of human hope.

OFFICE ETIQUETTE

Girls have been working in offices for many years now and have gotten by somehow without an office etiquette code, and they will likely continue to get along in just about the same way no matter how many codes of etiquette are propounded for girl office workers. But since this is the day of codes for this and that, interest has been revived in a code of etiquette for office girls, and the magazine, Independent Women, has undertaken to compile a sample code. Among the more important questions to which answers are sought are: Should office girls smoke in the office? Renew their make-up while at the typewriter? Accept luncheon invitations from their employers? Be friendly with persons who call upon their employers? Accept attentions from the boss's son? Wear dark and severe clothes, or dress in fashion? Permit bosses or executives, married men, to drive them home? Have social relations after office hours with men who work in their office? Point out the boss's mistakes? etc.

Hints and Dints—Pop was busy mending a rip in his shirt. Mom once had all the good intentions of doing it, but for the last hour she had been getting an earful of gossip over the phone.

Pop—"Mom, where are the scissors?"

Mom (at the phone)—"Really, I could have died on the spot, and then she said—"

Pop—"Mom, where in Sam Hill are the scissors?"

Mom (still dead to the world)—"You know if I'd been her I'd have got up and said"—

Pop—"Oh, well I might as well ransack the house, no use trying to attract Mom's attention." Gets up, looks in several drawers, on the kitchen shelf, comes into the dining room, looks in writing desk, work basket and several other places.

Mom (looks up from phone)—"What are you hunting for?"

Pop—"The blasted scissors."

Mom—"They aren't in here and I don't know where they could be. Willie had them last." (To phone)—"Yes, Mrs. Herden. No, I really couldn't say, why"—

Pop—"Well, I'll chew it off. I wish that fool kid would put things back where he found them."

Mom, who has finally finished her conversation, comes out to see whats what. "Did you find them?"

Pop—"No!"

Willie (enters with a bloody nose)—"Wow! Gimme a rag!"

Mom—"Been fighting again. Well, who this time? With that neighbor's boy? Well, you got what you deserved."

Pop—"William, have you seen the scissors?"

Willie—"That's what we were fighting about. He took my scissors away from me an' he's still got 'em."

Mom—"He has, has he? Well, I'll go over and tell that woman where her children get off, the little thief."

Retail Stocks Cut But Sales Outlook Good
A. F. Of L. Joins With Wall Street

By LESLIE EICHEL
Central Press Staff Writer

NEW YORK, June 14.—While retail store stocks are being cut to a low level for mid-season inventory, good trade is expected from late summer on. Prices, however, are expected to be lower. That will facilitate sales. In brief, smaller profit per article will have to be taken, for production costs still are increasing.

In the meantime, there are plenty of sales.

The American Federation of Labor joins with Wall Street in believing that business does not have sufficient incentive. There continues to be lack of confidence, the A. F. of L. says, because business men see no opportunity for large profits, and because of regulation by codes and of security markets. Added to that, the A. F. of L. continues, there is confusion because of "the lack of any satisfactory agency with authority to adjust labor difficulties."

To the profit criticism, the Socialists and the independent labor groups respond, "The government will have to go even further. If there is no incentive to private business because large profits cannot be made, then the government itself will have to operate business. Only by the elimination of inordinate profits and the distribution of earnings can a large part of our population be saved."

PRESIDENT'S WORDS

What President Roosevelt said in his message on social legislation is the nub of the question over which Wall Street and the A. F. of L. join hands. The president said:

"Ample scope is left for the exercise of private initiative. In fact, in the process of recovery, I am hoping that repeated promises that private investment and private initiative to relieve the government in the immediate future of much of the burden it has assumed will be fulfilled.

"We have not imposed undue restrictions upon business. We have not opposed the incentive of reasonable and legitimate private profit. We have sought, rather, to enable certain aspects of business to regain the confidence of the public. We have sought to put forward the rule of fair play in finance and industry.

"It is true that there are a few among us who would still go back. These few offer no substitute for the gains already made, nor any hope for making future gains for human happiness. They loudly assert that individual liberty is being restricted by government, but when they are asked what individual liberties they have lost, they are put to it to answer."

A REDEDICATION

President Roosevelt social legislation message now is being hailed as the finest presidential message in generations.

It eventually may take rank with Lincoln's Gettysburg address, not as literature, but as a milestone in the advancement of a people.

There is a tremendous promise in two paragraphs:

"These three great objectives—the security of the home, the security of livelihood and the security of social insurance—are, it seems to me, a minimum of promise that we can offer to the American people. They constitute a right which belongs to every individual and every family willing to work. They are the essential fulfillment of measures already taken toward relief, recovery and reconstruction.

"This seeking for a greater measure of welfare and happiness does not indicate a change in values. It is rather a return to values lost in the course of our economic development and expansion."

A FREER ROOSEVELT

There seems little doubt among authentic sources that President Roosevelt is eager for congress to adjourn for one reason—so that he can use his vast powers for reconstruction unobstructed by picayune attacks.

The president evidently is willing to permit valuable social legislation to perish this session in order to "get going on his own".

The president is essentially a democrat (with a small "d"—far too much in the eyes of the European dictators. But the president is an individualist. He desires to "do something" himself. He is his own government. As a youth he could not be happy unless he was the leader, although he was a quiet, studious, retiring boy. His cabinet, with the exception of three members, is innocuous.

When congress adjourns, he will make recess appointments of the "right kind" of men to run things, and by the time a new congress returns to confirm, or reject, those appointments, the New Deal either will have succeeded, or failed.

CLOSING DAYS

The closing days of congress (or a legislature) invariably see the greatest pressure brought by "the interests".

Chief pressure this year is by the American Telephone & Telegraph company—world's largest private monopoly—against a congressional investigation.

THURSDAY, JUNE 14

Memorable Days—June 14, 1767—The parliament enacted legislation calculated to bring in a few hundred thousands in additional revenues yearly. It cost Britain her American colonies, for it was an act levying duties on tea, paper, painted glassware, etc., imported into the American colonies—taxation without representation which the colonists found intolerable.

June 14, 1777.—In the records of Congress for this date, sandwiched between the appointment of a naval officer and an order relating to the six small sloops stationed in the Delaware river, is a resolution:

"Resolved, That the Flag of the United States shall be thirteen stripes, alternate red and white; that the union be thirteen stars, white in a blue field, representing a new constellation."

Thus was born the Star Spangled Banner

Contrary to the romantic tradition, Mrs. Betsy Ross of Philadelphia probably had nothing to do with designing it. George Washington raised a flag of his own design, the "Grand Union," with 13 alternate red and white stripes and crosses of Sts. George and Andrew in the field, over his headquarters at Cambridge, Mass., in January, 1776. He couldn't have been in Betsy Ross' shop sketching a flag for her, at any time within five months of Congressional adoption of Old Glory; for he wasn't in Philadelphia during that time.

(Believe it or not, on U. S. Flag day, 1880, red, white and blue hailstones fell in Russia.)

June 14, 1801.—Benedict Arnold, hero and traitor, died in London, aged 60.

There isn't a monument to him in England, which he served; there is a tribute to him in the country which he betrayed.

The traitor was buried and forgotten in England; the hero is commemorated upon the field at Saratoga where he fought and won for the U. S., one of the 15 decisive battles of the world.

A monument at Saratoga does honor to Arnold's leg, twice wounded as he was leading Continental armies.

(There is a story that when Arnold, then fighting for the British, captured a young Continental officer in Virginia, he asked: "What would your friends do to me if they caught me now?" The officer answered: "General, they would cut off the leg which was wounded at Quebec and Saratoga and bury it with military honors and hang the rest of you.")

June 14, 1859.—Jean Henri Dunant, a Swiss touring in Lombardy, saw 40,000 men die upon the battlefield of Solferino as the allied armies of Victor Emmanuel of Sardinia and Neopleon III of France sought to crush the army of Austria. He organized the women and girls of the nearby village of Castiglioni to care for the wounded; labored three days without rest attending to French, Austrians and Italians indiscriminately. Then he went home to pour out his horror over man's inhumanity to man in a pamphlet which was read around the world and resulted in the formation of the Red Cross.

June 14, 1900.—Hawaii succeeded after five years of efforts in getting itself annexed by the United States. The Spanish war which brought the U. S. the Philippines and other possessions changed the feelings of Americans about territorial expansion and foreign possessions.

Allow Use Of Playground At Ben Franklin

School Board Grants Permission To Use Auxiliary Field

Boys of the Ben Franklin junior high vicinity will be able to play mushball, baseball or whatever they choose on the secondary athletic field at Taggart stadium during the vacation months, although a part of the board of education, meeting last night, would have closed it for school use exclusively.

By a vote of 7 to 2 the board decided that the field, the ground that surrounds the main playing field, shall be kept open during the summer months for the recreational enjoyment the youth may derive from it.

Board Member A. C. Hyde, who projected the matter at the close of the meeting, told his colleagues he feels that the Senior high football athletes are entitled to a practice field with grass on it when they report next fall, and he feels that by the general use of the ground this will not be.

He asked that it be reserved for school purposes exclusively.

Objection to Mr. Hyde's proposal came from several members who called to his attention the present lack of playground facilities here. They said that if it would keep the boys off the streets it would be accomplishing considerable.

When a vote was taken Mr. Hyde and Mrs. J. C. B. Douthett voted to close it. The rest wanted it kept open.

EGG CONEST ENTRIES CLOSE IN SEPTEMBER

Entries for the fourth Pennsylvania official egg laying contest will close September 1, W. S. Hagar, deputy secretary of agriculture, explains in a letter being mailed to poultrymen throughout Pennsylvania and other states. The contest will begin October 1.

As explained by the officials, this contest is a proving ground where Pennsylvania poultrymen can test the official egg production ability of the birds they produce. This official check permits the breeder to determine the possible production of similar offspring at home without trapnesting. This competition also provides high producing official record females that may be used in special mating for foundation stock.

Many new breeders have indicated a desire to enter birds in the coming contest, the officials say.

If leisure becomes a burden to people, Mr. Ford might again give them brass trimmings to polish.

EGG CONEST ENTRIES CLOSE IN SEPTEMBER

Entries for the fourth Pennsylvania official egg laying contest will close September 1, W. S. Hagar, deputy secretary of agriculture, explains in a letter being mailed to poultrymen throughout Pennsylvania and other states. The contest will begin October 1.

As explained by the officials, this contest is a proving ground where Pennsylvania poultrymen can test the official egg production ability of the birds they produce. This official check permits the breeder to determine the possible production of similar offspring at home without trapnesting. This competition also provides high producing official record females that may be used in special mating for foundation stock.

Many new breeders have indicated a desire to enter birds in the coming contest, the officials say.

If leisure becomes a burden to people, Mr. Ford might again give them brass trimmings to polish.

When you remove cosmetics the Hollywood way, you guard against unattractive Cosmetic Skin . . .

POWDER and rouge every day? Skin delicate? Even then there's no need to worry about getting unattractive Cosmetic Skin.

Even though you may already have detected warning signals—tiny blemishes, enlarging pores, blackheads, perhaps—you can guard against this modern complexion trouble the Hollywood way.

Cosmetics Harmless if removed this way

Cosmetics need not harm even delicate skin unless they are allowed to choke the pores. Many women who think they are removing cosmetics thoroughly are actually leaving bits of stale make-up in the pores day after day.

Then, the pores become clogged, distended—Cosmetic Skin develops.

Lux Toilet Soap is made to remove cosmetics thoroughly. Its ACTIVE lather sinks deeply into the pores, carries away every vestige of dust, dirt, stale cosmetics. Before you apply fresh make-up—ALWAYS before you go to bed—remove stale make-up thoroughly with Lux Toilet Soap. Protect your skin—keep it lovely.

Meet In Pittsburgh.

Pittsburgh, June 14.—With the eyes of the nation focused upon them, more than 200 delegates of the Amalgamated Association of Iron, Steel and Tin Workers assembled in the Elks temple here today to discuss the labor crisis which threatens to result in a business-paralyzing steel strike.

Michael F. Tighe, veteran president of the Amalgamated, called the convention to order at 11:15 a. m. The session was executive and the press was barred.

Tighe said he had received no word from anybody in Washington regarding the Roosevelt administration's proposed new legislation to meet the crisis.

Tighe, a conservative leader, sidestepped answering a question as to whether he anticipated difficulties in keeping the younger element of the Amalgamated—the so-called "rank and filers"—in line.

Green Is Expected.

Asked if there were any last-minute indications of peace he merely smiled and declined to answer. He said the early part of the convention today would be devoted to routine matters, that discussions of the strike issue probably would not begin until late this afternon and that tomorrow William Green, president of the American Federation of Labor, would be here to address the convention.

The call for today's convention was "for the express purpose of considering ways and means to carry out the provisions as laid down in the seven-point program of action adopted by the representatives to the 59th annual convention" of the Amalgamated held in April.

That program called for "union recognition," among other things. Refusal of the steel operators to recognize the Amalgamated has precipitated the present crisis, in the view of the union leaders.

First business transacted by the convention was the calling of the roll and the submission of credentials.

Joseph F. Dewey, conciliator for the United States department of labor, arrived at convention hall while the session was in progress. He made it clear he would be available in the event the union leaders wanted to hear from him.

Asked if he would present to the delegates President Roosevelt's tentative labor legislation, Dewey replied that this is "not necessary as the men know what it is."

The morning session lasted less than an hour. They called the roll of the April convention. It was disclosed there were about 40 new delegates who did not attend the last convention who were present at this one. The names of these men were submitted to the credential committee.

President Tighe then adjourned the session until 2:30 o'clock this afternoon to permit the committee to pass upon the new delegates. Tighe said there was little question but that all the new delegates would be seated.

Asked if he would present to the delegates President Roosevelt's tentative labor legislation, Dewey replied that this is "not necessary as the men know what it is."

The morning session lasted less than an hour. They called the roll of the April convention. It was disclosed there were about 40 new delegates who did not attend the last convention who were present at this one. The names of these men were submitted to the credential committee.

President Tighe then adjourned the session until 2:30 o'clock this afternoon to permit the committee to pass upon the new delegates. Tighe said there was little question but that all the new delegates would be seated.

Housing Measure Goes To Senate

Smashing Victory For Bill In House In Form Approved By President

with them last week merely with the hope of "selling" them his plan for an industrial labor board.

Meet In Pittsburgh.

Pittsburgh, June 14.—With the eyes of the nation focused upon them, more than 200 delegates of the Amalgamated Association of Iron, Steel and Tin Workers assembled in the Elks temple here today to discuss the labor crisis which threatens to result in a business-paralyzing steel strike.

Michael F. Tighe, veteran president of the Amalgamated, called the convention to order at 11:15 a. m. The session was executive and the press was barred.

Tighe said he had received no word from anybody in Washington regarding the Roosevelt administration's proposed new legislation to meet the crisis.

Tighe, a conservative leader, sidestepped answering a question as to whether he anticipated difficulties in keeping the younger element of the Amalgamated—the so-called "rank and filers"—in line.

Green Is Expected.

Asked if there were any last-minute indications of peace he merely smiled and declined to answer. He said the early part of the convention today would be devoted to routine matters, that discussions of the strike issue probably would not begin until late this afternon and that tomorrow William Green, president of the American Federation of Labor, would be here to address the convention.

The call for today's convention was "for the express purpose of considering ways and means to carry out the provisions as laid down in the seven-point program of action adopted by the representatives to the 59th annual convention" of the Amalgamated held in April.

That program called for "union recognition," among other things. Refusal of the steel operators to recognize the Amalgamated has precipitated the present crisis, in the view of the union leaders.

First business transacted by the convention was the calling of the roll and the submission of credentials.

Joseph F. Dewey, conciliator for the United States department of labor, arrived at convention hall while the session was in progress. He made it clear he would be available in the event the union leaders wanted to hear from him.

Asked if he would present to the delegates President Roosevelt's tentative labor legislation, Dewey replied that this is "not necessary as the men know what it is."

The morning session lasted less than an hour. They called the roll of the April convention. It was disclosed there were about 40 new delegates who did not attend the last convention who were present at this one. The names of these men were submitted to the credential committee.

President Tighe then adjourned the session until 2:30 o'clock this afternoon to permit the committee to pass upon the new delegates. Tighe said there was little question but that all the new delegates would be seated.

Film Star Given Contract Release

Lillian Harvey Expresses Relief To Be Free Of Film Venture

(Copyright, 1934, By International News Service)

HOLLYWOOD, June 14.—Her Fox contract dramatically called off, Lillian Harvey, petite European film star, today nonchalantly faced the loss of a tidy fortune it would have brought her in salary.

The blonde actress expressed only relief to be free of her ill-starred Hollywood film venture.

"I have a load off my soul and am happy again," she exclaimed.

Disagreement over the picture, "serenade," which she was supposed to start tomorrow, was the cause of the final split in the troublous relations between the film company and the star.

"They have changed the story so much I felt it would be impossible for me to do it," declared Lillian. "I asked for my release and they gave it to me."

Simultaneously, she revealed that Paul Martin, scheduled director of the picture and her intimate friend, also has turned down the script and asked for his release.

AROUND CITY HALL

Police chronology for 24 hours ending at 3:30 p. m. June 13, nine arrests on charges as follows: suspicion 3, drunkenness 3 and violation of parking ordinance 3.

Finance Director Albert Hoyland has furnished colleagues with a report of taxes collected and disbursements during the first five months of 1931, 1932, 1933 and 1934 The figures follow: 1931, collections $279,789.99, expenditures, $227,977.04; 1932 collections, $219,062.00; expenditures, $179,725.59; 1933 collections, $168,087.24, expenditures, $157,423.46 and 1934, collections, $192,307.85 and expenditures, $194,197.02. The figures for the first five months of this year show the expenditures to be about one percent more than the current year's tax income, hence his warning recently to buy only what is absolutely necessary. By employing economy the city may be able to pass through the closing months of 1934 without meeting grave circumstances.

The State Association of Planning commissions convention having ended, the city officials will again plunge into their official duties. Among the projects they now are giving attention is the proposed resurfacing of streets. City hall clerks are scanning tax books as a result of the registration of hundreds of men last Friday. They are to be hired and paid half their wages in cash. The other half will be applied on back taxes. The city also must have several of the tanks repaired at the disposal plant. Chlorine gas ordered for the treatment of sewage there has not yet arrived. Calcium chloride, used to treat Cascade boulevard will be placed on some of the driveways in other parks.

Four of the five applicants for the position of city electrician passed the mental test, according to advices received today. They have been ordered to take the physical test. The eligibles will be certified to council in about a week.

STOLEN CARS.

HARRISBURG, June 14.—Theft of 308 motor vehicles was reported during May to the stolen car unit of the Bureau of Motor Vehicles. During the month, the unit received reports showing the recovery of 244 cars. In addition, 93 cars, valued at $28,893, were reported found after being abandoned by joyriders who used them for less than twenty-four hours.

what about this question of "speed" and "economy" with ELECTRIC COOKING?

There is one proof-positive for the SPEED of ELECTRIC COOKING, and that is to see it actually demonstrated in our Home Service Department, OR BETTER YET—INSTALL ONE IN YOUR OWN KITCHEN.

As to ECONOMY, let the last monthly service bills of three average families speak for themselves:

A YOUNG MARRIED COUPLE WHOSE TOTAL MAY BILL WAS $6.84

They have an Electric Refrigerator, an Electric Water Pump (they live on a farm), a Radio, ample Light, and quite a number of small appliances—AND COOK ELECTRICALLY.

FAMILY OF FOUR: TOTAL BILL FOR MAY WAS ONLY $7.04

And they are a typical American family. They have an Electric Refrigerator, Electric Ironer, Washer, Sweeper, Radio, Toaster, Percolator and many other conveniences operated Electrically AND THEY TOO, COOK WITH ELECTRICITY.

TOTAL BILL FOR MAY FOR FAMILY OF SIX WAS $7.28

In this average family they COOK ELECTRICALLY for six good healthy folks and besides have many of the enjoyments, such as Electric Refrigerator, Radio, Washer, Ironer, Toaster, Good Light and other small appliances with the resultant ECONOMY shown above.

These are not exceptional cases of penny-pinchers, neither are they rich families who care nothing for dollars. They are just typical families like dozens of others in our locality, who realize that the convenience of ELECTRICAL COOKING is not a luxury. UNDER THE NEW RATE, ELECTRICITY IS MORE ECONOMICAL THAN EVER.

On Saturday afternoon a most devastating storm swept suddenly through this section moving buildings on their foundations, blowing down trees and telephone poles, tearing off roofs and leaving a path of debris in its wake. Probably the greatest damage was done in the neighborhood of Carpenter school where the barn on the Charles Steingrabe place was moved several inches on its foundation. Several fine apple trees on the Stewart farm uprooted and the house roof damaged and outbuildings including garage, brooder houses and corn house on the farm of Mrs. Maria Robinson blown over and in several cases reduced to kindling wood. The Coyne and Drake farms also had many large trees blown over. The only compensating feature was the rain which fell in torrents and did a great deal of good.

Film Star Given Contract Release

(Copyright, 1934, By International News Service)

HOLLYWOOD, June 14.—Her Fox contract dramatically called off, Lilian Harvey, petite European film star, today nonchalantly faced the loss of a tidy fortune it would have brought her in salary.

The blonde actress expressed only relief to be free of her ill-starred Hollywood film venture.

"I have a load off my soul and am happy again," she exclaimed.

Disagreement over the picture, "serenade," which she was supposed to start tomorrow, was the cause of the final split in the troublous relations between the film company and the star.

"They have changed the story so much I felt it would be impossible for me to do it," declared Lilian. "I asked for my release and they gave it to me."

Simultaneously, she revealed that Paul Martin, scheduled director of the picture and her intimate friend, also has turned down the script and asked for his release.

AROUND CITY HALL

Police chronology for 24 hours ending at 3:30 p. m. June 13, nine arrests on charges as follows: suspicion 3, drunkenness 3 and violation of parking ordinance 3.

Finance Director Albert Hoyland has furnished colleagues with a report of taxes collected and disbursements during the first five months of 1931, 1932, 1933 and 1934 The figures follows: 1931, collections $279,789.99, expenditures, $227,977.04: 1932 collections, $219,062.00; expenditures, $179,725.59; 1933 collections, $168,067.24, expenditures, $157,423.46 and 1934, collections, $192,307.85 and expenditures, $194,197.02. The figures for the first five months of this year show the expenditures to be about one percent more than the current year's tax income, hence his warning recently to buy only what is absolutely necessary. By employing economy the city may be able to pass through the closing months of 1934 without meeting grave circumstances.

The State Association of Planning commissions convention having ended, the city officials will again plunge into their official duties. Among the projects they now are giving attention is the proposed resurfacing of streets. City hall clerks are scanning tax books as a result of the registration of hundreds of men last Friday. They are to be hired and paid half their wages in cash. The other half will be applied on back taxes. The city also must have several of the tanks repaired at the disposal plant. Chlorine gas ordered for the treatment of sewage there has not yet arrived. Calcium chloride, used to treat Cascade boulevard will be placed on some of the driveways in other parks.

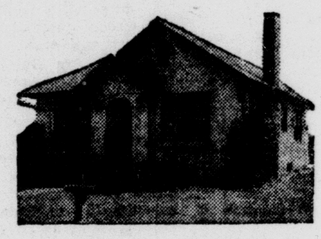

Four of the five applicants for the position of city electrician passed the mental test, according to advices received today. They have been ordered to take the physical test. The eligibles will be certified to council in about a week.

STOLEN CARS.

HARRISBURG, June 14.—Theft of 308 motor vehicles was reported during May to the stolen car unit of the Bureau of Motor Vehicles. During the month, the unit received reports showing the recovery of 244 cars. In addition, 93 cars, valued at $28,893, were reported found after being abandoned by joyriders who used them for less than twenty-four hours.

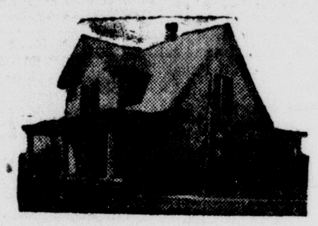

what about this question of "speed" and "economy" with ELECTRIC COOKING?

There is one proof-positive for the SPEED of ELECTRIC COOKING, and that is to see it actually demonstrated in our Home Service Department, OR BETTER YET—INSTALL ONE IN YOUR OWN KITCHEN.
As to ECONOMY, let the last monthly service bills of three average families speak for themselves:

A YOUNG MARRIED COUPLE WHOSE TOTAL MAY BILL WAS $6.84

They have an Electric Refrigerator, an Electric Water Pump (they live on a farm), a Radio, ample Light, and quite a number of small appliances—AND COOK ELECTRICALLY.

FAMILY OF FOUR: TOTAL BILL FOR MAY WAS ONLY $7.04

And they are a typical American family. They have an Electric Refrigerator, Electric Ironer, Washer, Sweeper, Radio, Toaster, Percolator and many other conveniences operated Electrically AND THEY TOO, COOK WITH ELECTRICITY.

TOTAL BILL FOR MAY FOR FAMILY OF SIX WAS $7.28

In this average family they COOK ELECTRICALLY for six good healthy folks and besides have many of the enjoyments, such as Electric Refrigerator, Radio, Washer, Ironer, Toaster, Good Light and other small appliances with the resultant ECONOMY shown above.

These are not exceptional cases of penny-pinchers, neither are they rich families who care nothing for dollars. They are just typical families like dozens of others in our locality, who realize that the convenience of ELECTRICAL COOKING is not a luxury. UNDER THE NEW RATE, ELECTRICITY IS MORE ECONOMICAL THAN EVER.

On Saturday afternoon a most devastating storm swept suddenly through this section moving buildings on their foundations, blowing down trees and telephone poles, tearing off roofs and leaving a path of debris in its wake. Probably the greatest damage was done in the neighborhood of Carpenter school where the barn on the Charles Steingrabe place was moved several inches on its foundation. Several fine apple trees on the Stewart farm uprooted and the house roof damaged and outbuildings including garage, brooder houses and corn house on the farm of Mrs. Maria Robinson blown over and in several cases reduced to kinding wood. Value Of First Place On Ballot Now Questioned

Old Theory Seems To Be Blasted By Returns From The Recent Primary

HOW THOSE WHO HAD FIRST PLACE STOOD

By G. EVERETT DOYING
International News Service Staff Correspondent

HARRISBURG, June 14.— The value of first place on the primary ballot still remains a somewhat moot question with unofficial returns in from last month's primary now complete.

Believers in the theory that first place in a state-wide primary is worth upwards of 50,000 votes pointed to the vote for superior court; scoffers replied by exhibiting the vote for governor.

In the superior court race, Chief Justice Frank M. Trexler and James J. Regan, a Philadelphia attorney, fought it out alone for the GOP court nomination. Neither campaigned for votes and yet Regan, a political unknown, rolled up a total of approximately 221,000 votes. Trexler won with more than 700,000 votes.

Early in the campaign, the gubernatorial free-for-all, with its 16 candidates, was considered an even better test of the value of first place on the ballot, the theory being that many voters would become confused at the sight of so many names and put the "X" after the first name. Yet Louis G. Karzis, a political unknown from Pittsburgh, polled only slightly in excess of 10,000.

Studying the returns still further, first place on the Republican senatorial ballot for John P. McVarish, another unknown, availed him little. He polled something over 30,000 votes to run last in a field of four.

On the other hand, Vincent A. Carroll, who made only a perfunctory campaign for the Republican nomination for lieutenant governor, ran fourth in a field of 14. He was first on the ballot. Regan, first on the Democratic ballot, too also made a good showing there to finish second ahead of Justice Trexler and behind Rep. Chester H. Rhoads, the agreed candidate of all Democratic factions.

With the evidence in, those who believe that first place on the ballots means a vote advantage claim that in contests which are overshadowed by other more important battles the results show their cause to be a proved fact. In last month's primary, they point to Regan and Carroll. Karzis' poor showing they blame upon the fact that the gubernatorial primary was a furious affair which could hardly have failed to attract attention from virtually every voter, thus lessening the first place value. This theory also might be applied to the McVarish case.

This reasoning, incidentally, has proved accurate in the past. In the 1932 president elections, Frank P. B. Thompson, a "perennial" candidate, rolled up a vote parallel to that of Regan in fighting Frank E. Baldwin for the Republican nomination for auditor general. Seventh on the ballot last month, Thompson finished 11th in the race for the GOP nomination for lieutenant governor.

PITTSBURGH, June 14—Competing carriers offered a united front of opposition Wednesday to the application of Miller Brothers Transfer Company, Inc., Pittsburgh, for the public service commission's permission to haul perishable food products from Pittsburgh into Allegheny, Lawrence, Beaver, Washington, Westmoreland and Cambria counties.

Walter H. Hoffman, secretary-treasurer of the applicant firm, was grilled for over an hour by counsel for protestants.

Among the opposing operators who appeared before Commissioner S. Ray Shelby were the Pennsylvania railroad, Pittsburgh Railways company, Local Union Express, West Penn Railways, Harmony Short Line Motor Transportation company, G. H. Hilsinger and Exhibitors Service company.

Collections by County Treasurer William O. Pitts Tuesday amounted to $4,007.29, the greater part of it being county taxes paid by residents of this city. It was distributed as follows: County $2,504.40; state, $250.68; poor $1,252.21.

Sheriff Edward Pritchard, served papers yesterday on an execution by Peter Pappas against Samuel Greer, 416 Sixth street, Elwood City. Levy was made on an automobile, the amount due being $150.

Under the will of the late Sophia Zeigler of this city, probated at the register and recorder's office, decedent's property is left to her eight children, share and share alike. Charles A. Zeigler is named as executor.

Will of the late G. M. Patterson, of North Beaver township, leaves his property to his sister, N. Olive Patterson if she is living at the time of his death, otherwise it is to go to decedent's sisters, Elizabeth J. Wallace and Margaret C. Kyle. The will was drawn September 16, 1916.

Martina Manzo, 1201 Crescent avenue, Ellwood City, took out papers at the prothonotary's office yesterday, declaring his intention of becoming a citizen of the United States. He gave his age as 56 years and Italy as his native land.

Home Owners Loan Corporation mortgages placed at the register and recorder's office during the past few weeks indicates there has been considerable speeding up of work in the local office. The number has been averaging from eight to ten a week and there has been less delay in getting the loans through. There is universal sympathy for home owners who have mortgages on their property and who have been unable to meet the payments. In the vast majority of instances their plight is the result of lack of remunerative employment. It is unfortunate enough to be without regular work, but to face the possibility of losing homes add immeasurably to worries.

While there have been a number of foreclosures it can be said that mortgage holders generally have been exceptionally lenient. They realize the plight in which their debtors have been placed, in most cases through circumstances over which they have no control. Often the failure to pay the interest has worked a hardship on the holders of mortgages for many of them have placed their life savings in this form of investment, and counted upon the returns to aid them in supporting their families. Frequently they, too need the assistance. Where they accept the Home Owners Loan Corporation bonds they can realize the cash at once, as the bonds have a ready market at above par.

Application for a charter has been made to the local court by the Knights of St. Vitus Club, located at 5 Maitland street. The application is signed by Vitus Conti, 901 South Mill street: Francis Augostine 812 East High street; Charles Cassalandra, 712 South Mill street: G. Filigenzi, 20 Maitland street and Jacob De Fonso, 624 East Reynolds street.

Vitus Conti is president: Francis Augostine vice president; Charles Cassalandra financial secretary, G. Filigenzi corresponding secretary and Jacob DeFonso treasurer.

The directors are James Lombardo, Anthony Cioffi, A. Filigenzi and A. Alfera.

It is the intention of the club to maintain reading rooms and to promote athletics.

Judge Hildebrand has fixed June 25 as a time for hearing.

County commissioners have been in no hurry to make a recommendation of another site for a new court house. It is understood that there is considerable difference of opinion among them as to their next recommendation, but they say that they expect to make one.

Value Of First Place On Ballot Now Questioned

Old Theory Seems To Be Blasted By Returns From The Recent Primary

HOW THOSE WHO HAD FIRST PLACE STOOD

By G. EVERETT DOYING
International News Service Staff Correspondent

HARRISBURG, June 14.— The value of first place on the primary ballot still remains a somewhat moot question with unofficial returns in from last month's primary now complete.

Believers in the theory that first place in a state-wide primary is worth upwards of 50,000 votes pointed to the vote for superioir court; scoffers replied by exhibiting the vote for governor.

In the superior court race, Chief Justice Frank M. Trexler and James J. Regan, a Philadelphia attorney, fought it out alone for the GOP court nomination. Neither campaigned for votes and yet Regan, a political unknown, rolled up a total of approximately 221,000 votes. Trexler won with more than 700,000 votes.

Early in the campaign, the gubernatorial free-for-all, with its 16 candidates, was considered an even better test of the value of first place on the ballot, the theory being that many voters would become confused at the sight of so many names and put the "X" after the first name. Yet Louis G. Karzis, a political unknown from Pittsburgh, polled only slightly in excess of 10,000.

Studying the returns still further, first place on the Republican senatorial ballot for John P. McVarish, another unknown, availed him little. He polled something over 30,000 votes to run last in a field of four.

On the other hand, Vincent A. Carroll, who made only a perfunctory campaign for the Republican nomination for lieutenant governor, ran fourth in a field of 14. He was first on the ballot. Regan, first on the Democratic ballot, too also made a good showing there to finish second ahead of Justice Trexler and behind Rep. Chester H. Rhoads, the agreed candidate of all Democratic factions.

With the evidence in, those who believe that first place on the ballots means a vote advantage claim that in contests which are overshadowed by other more important battles the results show their cause to be a proved fact. In last month's primary, they point to Regan and Carroll. Karzis' poor showing they blame upon the fact that the gubernatorial primary was a furious affair which could hardly have failed to attract attention from virtually every voter, thus lessening the first place value. This theory also might be applied to the McVarish case.

This reasoning, incidentally, has proved accurate in the past. In the 1932 president elections, Frank P. B. Thompson, a "perennial" candidate, rolled up a vote parallel to that of Regan in fighting Frank E. Baldwin for the Republican nomination for auditor general. Seventh on the ballot last month, Thompson finished 11th in the race for the GOP nomination for lieutenant governor.

Collections by County Treasurer William O. Pitts Tuesday amounted to $4,007.29, the greater part of it being county taxes paid by residents of this city. It was distributed as follows: County $2,504.40; state, $250.68; poor $1,252.21.

Sheriff Edward Pritchard, served papers yesterday on an execution by Peter Pappas against Samuel Greer, 416 Sixth street, Elwood City. Levy was made on an automobile, the amount due being $150.

Under the will of the late Sophia Zeigler of this city, probated at the register and recorder's office, decedent's property is left to her eight children, share and share alike. Charles A. Zeigler is named as executor.

Will of the late G. M. Patterson, of North Beaver township, leaves his property to his sister, N. Olive Patterson if she is living at the time of his death, otherwise it is to go to decedent's sisters, Elizabeth J. Wallace and Margaret C. Kyle. The will was drawn September 16, 1916.

Martina Manzo, 1201 Crescent avenue, Ellwood City, took out papers at the prothonotary's office yesterday, declaring his intention of becoming a citizen of the United States. He gave his age as 56 years and Italy as his native land.

Home Owners Loan Corporation mortgages placed at the register and recorder's office during the past few weeks indicates there has been considerable speeding up of work in the local office. The number has been averaging from eight to ten a week and there has been less delay in getting the loans through. There is universal sympathy for home owners who have mortgages on their property and who have been unable to meet the payments. In the vast majority of instances their plight is the result of lack of remunerative employment. It is unfortunate enough to be without regular work, but to face the possibility of losing homes add immeasurably to worries.

While there have been a number of foreclosures it can be said that mortgage holders generally have been exceptionally lenient. They realize the plight in which their debtors have been placed, in most cases through circumstances over which they have no control. Often the failure to pay the interest has worked a hardship on the holders of mortgages for many of them have placed their life savings in this form of investment, and counted upon the returns to aid them in supporting their families. Frequently they, too need the assistance. Where they accept the Home Owners Loan Corporation bonds they can realize the cash at once, as the bonds have a ready market at above par.

Application for a charter has been made to the local court by the Knights of St. Vitus Club, located at 5 Maitland street. The application is signed by Vitus Conti, 901 South Mill street; Francis Augostine 812 East High street; Charles Cassalandra, 712 South Mill street; G. Filigenzi, 20 Maitland street and Jacob De Fonso, 624 East Reynolds street.

Vitus Conti is president; Francis Augostine vice president; Charles Cassalandra financial secretary, G. Filigenzi corresponding secretary and Jacob DeFonso treasurer.

The directors are James Lombardo, Anthony Cioffi, A. Filigenzi and A. Alfera.

It is the intention of the club to maintain reading rooms and to promote athletics.

Judge Hildebrand has fixed June 25 as a time for hearing.

County commissioners have been in no hurry to make a recommendation of another site for a new court house. It is understood that there is considerable difference of opinion among them as to their next recommendation, but they say that they expect to make one.

WASH OUT 15 MILES OF KIDNEY TUBES

Win Back Pep . . . Vigor . . . Vitality

Medical authorities agree that your kidneys contain 15 MILES of tiny tubes or filters which help to purify the blood and keep you healthy.

If you have trouble with too frequent bladder passages with scanty amount causing burning and discomfort, the 15 MILES of kidney tubes need washing out. This danger signal may be the beginning of nagging backache, leg pains, loss of pep and vitality, getting up nights, lumbago, swollen feet and ankles, rheumatic pains and dizziness.

If kidneys don't empty 3 pints every day and get rid of 4 pounds of waste matter, your body will take up these poisons causing serious trouble. It may knock you out and lay you up for many months. Don't wait. Ask your druggist for DOAN'S PILLS . . . a doctor's prescription . . . which has been used successfully by millions of kidney sufferers for over 40 years. They give quick relief and will help to wash out the 15 MILES of kidney tubes.

But don't take chances with strong drugs or so-called "kidney cures" that claim to fix you up in 15 minutes, for they may seriously injure and irritate delicate tissues. Insist on DOAN'S PILLS . . . the old reliable relief that contain no "dope" or habit-forming drugs. Be sure you get DOAN'S PILLS at your druggist. © 1934, Foster-Milburn Co.

War-Time Peak Of Public Debt Will Be Passed

By ROBERT S. THORNBURGH
International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, June 14—The American public debt will pass the war-time peak of August 31, 1919, Friday, to about $27,000,000,000. The 1919 level reached over $26,500,000,000.

June 15 issues of 3 percent 12—14 year bonds and 2¾ percent five year notes will exceed the maturities by around $800,000,000 in the treasury's program of raising sufficient funds to finance the recovery program between that date and September 15.

One June 15 and August 1, about $520,000,000 in certificates and notes will mature. A total of $478,000,000 of these securities have been tendered in payment of the June 15 offering of bonds. These subscriptions having been allotted in full.

Cash subcriptions for the bonds were eight times the $300,000,000 offered while the $500,000,000 note issue was oversubcribed nine times. Officials considered the large subscriptions as reflecting confidence in the government's fiscal program. No difficulty is anticipated in financing any recovery drive decided upon by the administration.

Secretary Morgenthau does not believe it will be necessary to arrange any further financing until September excepting the issuance of short term bills. Bills maturities from June 20 to September 5 amount to around a billion dollars. Unless the recovery program is speeded with extraordinary expenditures it is doubtful whether the new bill issues will equal the maturities.

The Complexion of the public debt has changed considerably as compared with a year ago. June 30, 1933 outstanding bonds amounted to $14,223,267,000 as compared with the approximate level of $16,497,000,000 which will be reached before the end of the month.

Certificates a year ago amounted to $2,200,327,000. By June 30 they will be reduced to $1,637,000,000. Note issues now total $6,677,000,000 outstanding as against $4,779,000,000 a year ago. On the other hand bills have increased from $954,493,000 to $1,403,657,000.

On the public debt on which interest has ceased, Amounted to $65,911,000 June 30, 1933, as compared with $58,534,000 at the present time.

War-Time Peak Of Public Debt Will Be Passed

By ROBERT S. THORNBURGH
International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, June 14—The American public debt will pass the war-time peak of August 31, 1919, Friday, to about $27,000,000,000. The 1919 level reached over $26,500,000,000.

June 15 issues of 3 percent 12—14 year bonds and 2⅛ percent five year notes will exceed the maturities by around $800,000,000 in the treasury's program of raising sufficient funds to finance the recovery program between that date and September 15.

One June 15 and August 1, about $520,000,000 in certificates and notes will mature. A total of $478,000,000 of these securities have been tendered in payment of the June 15 offering of bonds. These subscriptions having been allotted in full.

Cash subcriptions for the bonds were eight times the $300,000,000 offered while the $500,000,000 note issue was oversubcribed nine times. Officials considered the large subscriptions as reflecting confidence in the government's fiscal program. No difficulty is anticipated in financing any recovery drive decided upon by the administration.

Secretary Morgenthau does not believe it will be necessary to arrange any further financing until September excepting the issuance of short term bills. Bills maturities from June 20 to September 5 amount to around a billion dollars. Unless the recovery program is speeded with extraordinary expenditures it is doubtful whether the new bill issues will equal the maturities.

The Complexion of the public debt has changed considerably as compared with a year ago. June 30, 1933 outstanding bonds amounted to $14,223,267,000 as compared with the approximate level of $16,497,000,000 which will be reached before the end of the month.

Certificates a year ago amounted to $2,200,327,000. By June 30 they will be reduced to $1,637,000,000 Note issues now total $6,677,000,000 outstanding as against $4,779,000,000 a year ago. On the other hand bills have increased from $954,493,000 to $1,403,657,000.

On the public debt on which interest has ceased. Amounted to $65,911,000 June 30, 1933, as compared with $58,534,000 at the present time.

These regulations are sent to the local retail code authority, through the N. R. C. A. with the approval of the NRA.

The letter from R. M. Neustadt, managing director of the National Retail Code Administration, Inc., reads as follows:

"The code eagle will be distributed at once by them on application to all who are subject to the retail code and whose principal line of business falls within definitions of the retail trade. Such applications may be made in any way, such as letter, telegram, telephone, etc.

"Local retail code associations, approved prior to April 1, and who have issued their assessment notices prior thereto, in the proper form, shall by the authority of the administrator of the NRA withhold the code eagle from all who have not paid their assessment, and who are, therefore, in violation of section 2 of the retail code.

"All approved after that date, or who have not levied their assessment in accordance with approved regulations of the National Retail Code Administration, Inc., prior to April 1, shall issue the eagle to all who apply, but shall, at the same time, notify the applicant as follows:

"'The code eagle is the insignia issued by the United States government as a mark of compliance with the retail code as approved by the president under the date of October 30, 1933, under the authority granted by congress under the national industrial recovery act. It is the property of the United States government and will be withdrawn if you are found in violation of any provisions of the retail code.

"'The expense of administering the retail code is to be borne by an equitable assessment upon all that are subject thereto in accordance with the approved provision of article 10, section 2 (f) and anyone who does not pay such assessment violates article 10, section 2 (f) of the retail code. For such violation, as any other violation, the code eagle will be withdrawn upon the recommendation of the local retail code authority of the NRA.'"

Project, Proposed Some Time Ago, At Standstill; To See Round

The proposed addition to the Taggart stadium, first broached when CWA activity was at its height several months ago, remained at a standstill today, although the board of education last night planned to make attempts to receive early action.

The plans for the project have been approved by the state department of labor and industry but not as yet by the state art commission.

Meeting last night, the board of education moved to have a committee wait upon Administrator L. B. Round of the RWD (the former CWA) to determine what amount of man-hours will be apportioned to the school projects in the future. A committee report said that it seemed projects of the school district already started have been delayed while county and city park projects progressed.

The board is authorized to spend $500 on the stadium annex.

ON THE MORNING of April 22, 1889, more than 10,000 men, women and children lined up on the border of Indian territory, now the state of Oklahoma, awaiting the signal for the opening of the vast region for settlement. Precisely at noon, the gun of a U. S. marshal barked, and the race to establish claims for land sites and ranches was on—the greatest land rush in the pioneering history of the nation. On horseback, afoot and aboard carriages and covered wagons raced the land-seekers to reach the best lands and town sites first to stake their claims. The homestead land had been obtained from the Creek and Seminole Indians following an act of congress in 1885.

Allege Cars Driven By Drunken Drivers

Operators Of Cars Deny They Were Under The Influence Of Liquor

The case of Earl J. Schermerhorn of Rochester, Pa., charged with driving an automobile while under the influence of liquor, is on trial today before Judge James A. Chambers. The case grew out of an automobile accident on Washington street in which the Schermerhorn car collided with a car driven by Jack Campbell. It was claimed by the commonwealth that Schermerhorn was not in a condition to properly operate his car.

Schermerhorn denied that he was intoxicated. He admitted that he had a highball with some relatives in Rochester before leaving that city, but that it did not affect him and that he had afterwards driven to New Castle. Arriving here he had secured a lady friend and they had gone to a picture show. After that they went out the Butler road to a filling station and beer emporium. He claimed that they arrived there about 11:30, had a bottle of beer each, and started back about 12:30.

When near the city building he claimed that he was driving west on the right hand side of the road and saw a car approaching which he claimed was trying to drive between him and the curb. It was then that the accident occurred. The case is still on trial.

The case of George H. Andrews, charged with operating a motor vehicle while under the influence of liquor, was taken up for trial before Judge R. L. Hildebrand. Andrews denies the charge.

Instructions On Code Eagle Received Here

Regulations Relative To Distribution Among Retailers Is Outlined

MUST COMPLY SAYS RETAIL CODE HEAD

Marcus Feuchtwanger, local chairman of the national recovery administration, has received a copy of the regulations necessary in the distribution of the code eagle for members of the National Retail Code Administration, Inc.

These regulations are sent to the local retail code authority, through the N. R. C. A. with the approval of the NRA.

The letter from R. M. Neustadt, managing director of the National Retail Code Administration, Inc., reads as follows:

"The code eagle will be distributed at once by them on application to all who are subject to the retail code and whose principal line of business falls within definitions of the retail trade. Such applications may be made in any way, such as letter, telegram, telephone, etc.

"Local retail code associations, approved prior to April 1, and who have issued their assessment notices prior thereto, in the proper form, shall by the authority of the administrator of the NRA withhold the code eagle from all who have not paid their assessment, and who are, therefore, in violation of section 2 of the retail code.

"All approved after that date, or who have not levied their assessment in accordance with approved regulations of the National Retail Code Administration, Inc., prior to April 1, shall issue the eagle to all who apply, but shall, at the same time, notify the applicant as follows:

"'The code eagle is the insignia issued by the United States government as a mark of compliance with the retail code as approved by the president under the date of October 30, 1933, under the authority granted by congress under the national industrial recovery act. It is the property of the United States government and will be withdrawn if you are found in violation of any provisions of the retail code.

"'The expense of administering the retail code is to be borne by an equitable assessment upon all that are subject thereto in accordance with the approved provision of article 10, section 2 (f) and anyone who does not pay such assessment violates article 10, section 2 (f) of the retail code. For such violation, as any other violation, the code eagle will be withdrawn upon the recommendation of the local retail code authority of the NRA.'"

Hope To Commence Stadium Addition

Project, Proposed Some Time Ago, At Standstill; To See Round

The proposed addition to the Taggart stadium, first broached when CWA activity was at its height several months ago, remained at a standstill today, although the board of education last night planned to make attempts to receive early action.

The plans for the project have been approved by the state department of labor and industry but not as yet by the state art commission.

Meeting last night, the board of education moved to have a committee wait upon Administrator L. B. Round of the RWD (the former CWA) to determine what amount of man-hours will be apportioned to the school projects in the future. A committee report said that it seemed projects of the school district already started have been delayed while county and city park projects progressed.

The board is authorized to spend $500 on the stadium annex.

OUR YESTERDAYS

When the Oklahoma Territory Was Thrown Open, Starting a Mad Race of Homesteaders for Land

A wagon train on the western plains.

Line-up for start of famous land rush.

ON THE MORNING of April 22, 1889, more than 10,000 men, women and children lined up on the border of Indian territory, now the state of Oklahoma, awaiting the signal for the opening of the vast region for settlement. Precisely at noon, the gun of a U S marshal barked, and the race to establish claims for land sites and ranches was on—the greatest land rush in the pioneering history of the nation. On horseback, afoot and aboard carriages and covered wagons raced the land-seekers to reach the best lands and town sites first to stake their claims. The homestead land had been obtained from the Creek and Seminole Indians following an act of congress in 1885.

Business Men Are Victimized

Goods Secured For Store And Removed From Place During Night

Business men of New Castle and probably some outlying districts were victimized yesterday of approximately $1,400, worth of goods by three men, believed to be from Ohio, according to city detectives today. The men escaped with the merchandise.

According to the detectives three men rented a storeroom at the corner of Madison avenue and Cedar street.

They obtained merchandise from several places and had the merchandise delivered there yesterday.

During the night it is alleged all of the merchandise was removed.

Checks given the businessmen were signed "Samuel Hoffman" and were drawn on the Wampum bank.

According to the detectives about $200 had been put in the bank and checks issued totalled about $1,400.

Among the firms victimized were J. J. Dean, Bloom, Rosenbloom & Kline and New Castle Milling.

Discovery of the situation was made today when the owner of the storeroom, who had reserved the use of the cellar, went there and found the goods had been removed during the night.

Allege Cars Driven By Drunken Drivers

Operators Of Cars Deny They Were Under The Influence Of Liquor

The case of Earl J. Schermerhorn of Rochester, Pa., charged with driving an automobile while under the influence of liquor, is on trial today before Judge James A. Chambers. The case grew out of an automobile accident on Washington street in which the Schermerhorn car collided with a car driven by Jack Campbell. It was claimed by the commonwealth that Schermerhorn was not in a condition to properly operate his car.

Schermerhorn denied that he was intoxicated. He admitted that he had a highball with some relatives in Rochester before leaving that city, but that it did not affect him and that he had afterwards driven to New Castle. Arriving here he had secured a lady friend and they had gone to a picture show. After that they went out the Butler road to a filling station and beer emporium. He claimed that they arrived there about 11:30, had a bottle of beer each, and started back about 12:30.

When near the city building he claimed that he was driving west on the right hand side of the road and saw a car approaching which he claimed was trying to drive between him and the curb. It was then that the accident occurred. The case is still on trial.

The case of George H. Andrews, charged with operating a motor vehicle while under the influence of liquor, was taken up for trial before Judge R. L. Hildebrand. Andrews denies the charge.

Arrangements for the annual county camporee, which will take place at Camp Phillips, Friday and Saturday, have been completed.

Patrols will report at 3:30, with Class A. standing inspection and Class B. receiving instruction in this regard. The patrols will choose sites through lots drawn by the patrol leaders, who are to be on hand at 3:30. Those who are not present at 3:30, will have their sites assigned to them.

Scoutmasters or scouters who wish to attend are asked to bring their own lunches, but the camp will furnish hot coffee free to all scouter visitors who remain for the evening program.

The judges will determine whether or not a mass campfire will be held, or whether each patrol will have its own campfire. Patrols should be prepared for possible rainy weather, Friday night or Saturday morning.

Indications point to a large attendance at this contest.

Liquor Store Rumor Denied

Assertion That State Store Profits Go To Creditors, Is Denied

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, June 14.—The assertion of John H. Fertig, director of the legislative reference bureau, that any profits the state liquor stores earn this year must be turned over to creditors, was denied today by W. Worrell Wagner, a member of the state liquor control board.

Fertig, addressing the second annual institute of urban problems at Pennsylvania State college, said profits will be hidden in inventories. To this Wagner replied:

"We expect no such situation. Present business indicates at least $8,000,000 profit for the third period ending May 31 next year. Personally, I believe it will be close to $7,500,000."

Camporee Plans Now Completed

Annual County Event At Camp Phillips On Friday-Saturday

Arrangements for the annual county camporee, which will take place at Camp Phillips, Friday and Saturday, have been completed.

Patrols will report at 3:30, with Class A. standing inspection and Class B. receiving instruction in this regard. The patrols will choose sites through lots drawn by the patrol leaders, who are to be on hand at 3:30. Those who are not present at 3:30, will have their sites assigned to them.

Scoutmasters or scouters who wish to attend are asked to bring their own lunches, but the camp will furnish hot coffee free to all scouter visitors who remain for the evening program.

The judges will determine whether or not a mass campfire will be held, or whether each patrol will have its own campfire. Patrols should be prepared for possible rainy weather, Friday night or Saturday morning.

Indications point to a large attendance at this contest.

Liquor Store Rumor Denied

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, June 14.—The assertion of John H. Fertig, director of the legislative reference bureau, that any profits the state liquor stores earn this year must be turned over to creditors, was denied today by W. Worrell Wagner, a member of the state liquor control board.

Fertig, addressing the second annual institute of urban problems at Pennsylvania State college, said profits will be hidden in inventories. To this Wagner replied:

"We expect no such situation. Present business indicates at least $6,000,000 profit for the third period ending May 31 next year. Personally, I believe it will be close to $7,500,000."

Class Sponsors Working Hard On Alumni Reunion

Annual Gathering Of Local High School Graduates Will Be Big Affair

GOOD PROGRAM IS BEING ARRANGED

Arrangements for the 1934 New Castle High school alumni reunion are now well in hand, President Marjorie Rhodes stated today, and present indications point to the fact that this year's reunion will be the largest that has ever been held.

More interest is being manifested in the coming event, than in past years, particularly among the younger classes, although the old timers expect to be out in large numbers also.

Tickets have been placed at many places in the city for the convenience of the former graduates, which must be procured by Tuesday evening, June 19, so that the dinner committee may complete their arrangements to take care of everyone and see that all have enough to eat.

Sponsors Are Busy

These tickets may be secured at Love and Megown's, Terminal Apothecary and Paisley's Pharmacy in the down town business section; Weitz's market on the East Side; Hyde's drug store in the Seventh ward; Bill Stewart's store on Highland avenue, on the North Hill and Shaffer and Snyder's drug store on the South side.

WANTS TO LEARN HER CORRECT AGE

HARRISBURG, June 14.—One correspondent has a new idea for an additional division of the department of revenue, which she would call the "Name and Age Division."

In a letter addressed to this nonexistent division, a girl wrote:

"Will you please send me my correct age? I will be very glad if you will."

The communication was referred to the department of health's bureau of vital statistics.

An increase has taken place each year since the first information on the subject was collected in 1924.

Today

You Have Inflation.
But Don't Weep.
Regulated Flying.
Amazing Russian Worm.

By ARTHUR BRISBANE

A LAW will presently become the "law of the land" compelling the nation to buy one billion, four hundred million ounces of silver. It is announced that the President will issue fifteen hundred million dollars of paper money to buy the silver. Conservative old fogyism yells "inflation," although it is not inflation, since the money will have silver back of it.

It will have more back of it than the government's bond on which the nation pays interest. Back of those bonds there is nothing but a paper mill, and the government's name. There are no longer any gold bonds; you can't get any gold.

Back of the silver money issued to buy silver there will at least be silver, and you can always buy something with that, in China, Mexico, India, elsewhere as well as here at home.

CONSERVATIVE OLD fogyism may as well realize that we have left the gold basis, and that a government bond is worth exactly as much as a piece of green paper with the government name on it, no more, no less. All you will get for any U. S. Government bond is pieces of green paper, when you come to sell it.

Why the government lacks the brains to issue only green paper and save one hundred per cent in interest is hard to understand. Perhaps the President means to do the thing slowly, that old fogyism may merely faint, not die of apoplexy.

In any case remember that you have inflation NOW, as we pump out interest bearing bonds by the billions. And we are going to have MORE inflation because we plan to give the three great guarantees to the people, guarantee of homes, guarantee of jobs, guarantee job insurance. You cannot do that with only "love and kisses," you must do it with money. And be it foolish bonds, bearing interest, or be it nice American greenbacks with Uncle Sam's name on it and no interest, the money will have to be issued.

FOR YOUR comfort remember that this nation, which has actually lost, according to careful statistics, more than ONE HUNDRED THOUSAND MILLION OF DOLLARS since the depression began, can well afford another hundred thousand millions to get out of the depression, if that amount is necessary.

This isn't any LITTLE country, or any POOR country.

One hundred thousand millions to the United States is less than ten millions would be to John D. Rockefeller, and you know or you can imagine how much that would be to him.

FOLLOWING THE loss of one passenger plane in the Catskill Mountains, you read about the destruction of another United States passenger plane in the Argentine, five killed, five injured.

It would be unfair to criticize flying methods without knowing every detail of each disaster, but the management of American flying lines, and the United States government as well, should be interested in regulations that France has established for flying over the Desert of Sahara.

The French minister of colonies issues regulations stipulating definite routes, with compulsory use of sending and receiving wireless outfits and definite regulations as to their use.

Something should be done to discourage the habit of running airplanes into the mountains on the Pacific and the Atlantic coasts. Higher flying, with reliable altimeters, if such things exist, and landing with radio guiding beams would seem essential.

THE RUSSIAN Communist worm turns with a loud report and prints an advertisement that will startle, bewilder and obfuscate, to borrow a word from Mr. Gene Tunney's vocabulary, one already bewildered "best financial mind."

Not content with advertising Russian gold bonds that pay 7 per cent, redeemable, principal and interest, "upon a fixed quantity of gold," and payable in any kind of money you like, Russia, in an advertisement printed in America, assures those buying Russian bonds that they "are thus protected against loss resulting from possible further reduction in the gold content of the dollar."

As it happens, there isn't ANY gold content to our dollar; it is just a dollar, printed on a good quality of paper, with the best name in the world signed to it. There is no gold about it.

Who would have thought, when our "best minds" were predicting an early collapse of the Russian Soviet government, that Russians would soon be inviting us to invest our feeble dollars in their safer gold bonds?

And who would have believed what is now the fact, that Russia would be producing more than twice the gold that the United States produces?

THE LEARNED senators object to the confirmation of Professor Tugwell as Under-Secretary of Agriculture, on the ground that he is "not a dirt farmer." Leaving out other questions, is it necessary to be a "dirt farmer" to be a good Under-Secretary of Agriculture?

The man who invented the sewing machine couldn't sew. You would not insist on having a seamstress in charge of a great clothing factory. The late American railroad builders, Vanderbilt, Harriman and Hill, never ran a locomotive, or drove spikes into railroad ties. But they could build and run railroads.

You can be a successful editor without knowing how to set type, although printers, among them the late Ed Matthews, of the New York Evening Journal, have been among the ablest of editors. You might be a good Under-Secretary of Agriculture without knowing on which side of a cow you sit in milking. Professor Tugwell's appointment will be confirmed.

IS THERE to be no end of Bolshevism in this glorious country of ours?

Not content with selling milk at eight cents a quart to poor mothers, Mayor LaGuardia, finding that dealers in ice have combined to put up the price, plans a municipal ice plant to sell cheap ice with the cheap milk.

Is there to be no consideration for vested rights? Will it be seriously maintained in this country that the welfare of children and the peace of mothers are more important than the profits of an ice or milk dealer?

THE DETERMINED Japanese, with low-priced money and cheap labor help, are reaching out for business. Bucharest reports Japan offers to renovate the Roumanian Army, with flying machines, weapons of all kinds and ammunition factories in Roumania for twenty-five per cent less than any other bid.

Other nations will find it hard to compete with Japanese manufacturer and prices. Our nation, fortunately for its future, could live within its own boundaries, without any export business, if necessary. We could be as independent of Europe and Asia as we are now of Mars.

GAINS 5 LBS. IN 1 WEEK Feels Fine!

Says Miss Betty Noever, Kansas City, Mo.

Read How Amazing Mineral Concentrate, Free From Drugs, Richest In Newer Form Of "FOOD IODINE" Is Building Up Thousands Of Nervous, Skinny, Rundown Folks Where All Else Fails

"Have been underweight for years due to digestive disorders," says Miss Noever, "and since taking Kelp-a-Malt for a few weeks I gained 10 lbs. and now feel like a new person." . . . "Had stomach trouble for years. When I take Kelp-a-Malt I have a hearty appetite for everything and suffer no distress. Kelp-a-Malt has banished constipation, which I have had all my life."—W. D. C. . . . "Gained 8 pounds with one package of Kelp-a-Malt andn feel 100% better."—Mrs. W. J. S.

Just a few of the thousands of actual reports that are flooding in from all over the country telling us how this newer form of food iodine is building firm flesh, strengthening the nerves, enriching the blood—nourishing vital glands and making weak, pale, careworn, underweight men and women look and feel years younger. Fine for children too—improves their appetites.

Scientists have recently discovered that the blood, liver and vital glands of the body contain definite quantities of iodine which heretofore has been difficult to obtain.

Modern foodstuffs, even fresh vegetables and similarly so-called "good" foods, have been found to be often lacking not only in food iodine but in all the other essential organic minerals without which strength and health are impossible.

Supplies Newer Form of Food Iodine.

Miss Betty Noever Kansas City, Mo.

Kelp-a-Malt only recently discovered, contains practically every mineral essential to normal well-being. But most important of all, it is the richest known source of the newer form of food iodine—natural iodine not made from iodides or other chemicals which oftentimes prove toxic, but the same iodine that is present in small quantities in spinach and lettuce. It is the lack of this iodine which experts in nutrition say is our foremost national health problem. Kelp-a-Malt is a sea vegetable concentrate taken from the Pacific Ocean and made available in palatable, pleasant-to-take tablet form. Six Kelp-a-Malt tablets provide more food iodine than 486 pounds of spinach, 1,800 pounds of beef, 1,387 pounds of lettuce. Three Kelp-a-Malt tablets contain more iron and copper for rich blood, vitality and strength than a pound of spinach, 7½ pounds of fresh tomatoes—more calcium than 6 eggs, more phosphorus than a pound and a half of carrots—sulphur, sodium, potassium and other essential minerals.

Only when you get an adequate amount of these minerals can your food do you any good—can you nourish glands, add weight, strengthen your nerves, increase your vigor, vitality and endurance.

Try Kelp-a-Malt today. Contains no yeast—doesn't cause bloating. Two weeks are required to effect a change in the mineralization of the body. At the end of that time, if you have not gained at least 8 pounds, do not look better, feel better and have more endurance than ever before, the trial is free. Kelp-a-Malt comes in packages of 100 Jumbo size tables, which are 4 to 5 times larger than ordinary size tables, and costs only a few cents a day to use. Be sure to remember the name—Kelp-a-Malt Tablets—original and genuine kelp and malt tablets. Prescribed and used by physicians. There is nothing else like them so don't accept imitations or substitutes. Get Kelp-a-Malt today. Kelp-a-Malt can be had at New Castle Drug Store.

You Have Inflation.
But Don't Weep.
Regulated Flying.
Amazing Russian Worm.
By ARTHUR BRISBANE

A LAW will presently become the "law of the land" compelling the nation to buy one billion, four hundred million ounces of silver. It is announced that the President will issue fifteen hundred million dollars of paper money to buy the silver. Conservative old fogyism yells "inflation," although it is not inflation, since the money will have silver back of it.

It will have more back of it than the government's bond on which the nation pays interest. Back of those bonds there is nothing but a paper mill, and the government's name. There are no longer any gold bonds; you can't get any gold.

Back of the silver money issued to buy silver there will at least be silver, and you can always buy something with that, in China, Mexico, India, elsewhere as well as here at home.

CONSERVATIVE OLD fogyism may as well realize that we have left the gold basis, and that a government bond is worth exactly as much as a piece of green paper with the government name on it, no more, no less. All you will get for any U. S. Government bond is pieces of green paper, when you come to sell it.

Why the government lacks the brains to issue only green paper and save one hundred per cent in interest is hard to understand. Perhaps the President means to do the thing slowly, that old fogyism may merely faint, not die of apoplexy.

In any case remember that you have inflation NOW, as we pump out interest bearing bonds by the billions. And we are going to have MORE inflation because we plan to give the three great guarantees to the people, guarantee of homes, guarantee of jobs, guarantee job insurance. You cannot do that with only "love and kisses," you must do it with money. And be it foolish bonds, bearing interest, or be it nice American greenbacks with Uncle Sam's name on it and no interest, the money will have to be issued.

FOR YOUR comfort remember that this nation, which has actually lost, according to careful statistics, more than ONE HUNDRED THOUSAND MILLION OF DOLLARS since the depression began, can well afford another hundred thousand millions to get out of the depression, if that amount is necessary.

This isn't any LITTLE country, or any POOR country.

One hundred thousand millions to the United States is less than ten millions would be to John D. Rockefeller, and you know or you can imagine how much that would be to him.

FOLLOWING THE loss of one passenger plane in the Catskill Mountains, you read about the destruction of another United States passenger plane in the Argentine, five killed, five injured.

It would be unfair to criticize flying methods without knowing every detail of each disaster, but the management of American flying lines, and the United States government as well, should be interested in regulations that France has established for flying over the Desert of Sahara.

The French minister of colonies issues regulations stipulating definite routes, with compulsory use of sending and receiving wireless outfits and definite regulations as to their use.

Something should be done to discourage the habit of running airplanes into the mountains on the Pacific and the Atlantic coasts. Higher flying, with reliable altimeters, if such things exist, and landing with radio guiding beams would seem essential.

THE RUSSIAN Communist worm turns with a loud report and prints an advertisement that will startle, bewilder and obfuscate, to borrow a word from Mr. Gene Tunney's vocabulary, one already bewildered "best financial mind."

Not content with advertising Russian gold bonds that pay 7 per cent, redeemable, principal and interest, "upon a fixed quantity of gold," and payable in any kind of money you like, Russia, in an advertisement printed in America, assures those buying Russian bonds that they "are thus protected against loss resulting from possible further reduction in the gold content of the dollar."

As it happens, there isn't ANY gold content to our dollar; it is just a dollar, printed on a good quality of paper, with the best name in the world signed to it. There is no gold about it.

Who would have thought, when our "best minds" were predicting an early collapse of the Russian Soviet government, that Russians would soon be inviting us to invest our feeble dollars in their safer gold bonds?

And who would have believed what is now the fact, that Russia would be producing more than twice the gold that the United States produces?

THE LEARNED senators object to the confirmation of Professor Tugwell as Under-Secretary of Agriculture, on the ground that he is "not a dirt farmer." Leaving out other questions, is it necessary to be a "dirt farmer" to be a good Under-Secretary of Agriculture?

The man who invented the sewing machine couldn't sew. You would not insist on having a seamstress in charge of a great clothing factory. The late American railroad builders, Vanderbilt, Harriman and Hill, never ran a locomotive, or drove spikes into railroad ties. But they could build and run railroads.

You can be a successful editor without knowing how to set type, although printers, among them the late Ed Matthews, of the New York Evening Journal, have been among the ablest of editors. You might be a good Under-Secretary of Agriculture without knowing on which side of a cow you sit in milking. Professor Tugwell's appointment will be confirmed.

IS THERE to be no end of Bolshevism in this glorious country of ours?

Not content with selling milk at eight cents a quart to poor mothers, Mayor LaGuardia, finding that dealers in ice have combined to put up the price, plans a municipal ice plant to sell cheap ice with the cheap milk.

Is there to be no consideration for vested rights? Will it be seriously maintained in this country that the welfare of children and the peace of mothers are more important than the profits of an ice or milk dealer?

THE DETERMINED Japanese, with low-priced money and cheap labor help, are reaching out for business. Bucharest reports Japan offers to renovate the Roumanian Army, with flying machines, weapons of all kinds and ammunition factories in Roumania for twenty-five per cent less than any other bid.

Other nations will find it hard to compete with Japanese manufacturer and prices. Our nation, fortunately for its future, could live within its own boundaries, without any export business, if necessary. We could be as independent of Europe and Asia as we are now of Mars.

Liquor Store Rumor Denied

Assertion That State Store Profits Go To Creditors, Is Denied

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, June 14.—The assertion of John H. Fertig, director of the legislative reference bureau, that any profits the state liquor stores earn this year must be turned over to creditors, was denied today by W. Worrell Wagner, a member of the state liquor control board.

Fertig, addressing the second annual institute of urban problems at Pennsylvania State college, said profits will be hidden in inventories. To this Wagner replied:

"We expect no such situation. Present business indicates at least $6,000,000 profit for the third period ending May 31 next year. Personally, I believe it will be close to $7,500,000."

DROUGHT REVEALS INDIAN BURIAL PLACE

(International News Service)

PROVO, Utah—The present unprecedented drought, although bringing hardship to Utah farmers and many water-using municipalities, dropped a windfall into the laps of scientists here. Because of the lowering of the waters of Utah lake, the shore line receded far out into the lake.

On the exposed bottom, John Hutchings, a local naturalist, discovered an ancient Indian burial mount, containing grinding bowls, knives, arrowheads and other relics and indicating that the lake bed was once inhabited by redmen.

There is in souls a sympathy with sounds.—Cowper.

TORNADO SENT ADVANCE NOTICE

(International News Service)

SHAWNEE, Okla.—Despite the fact that he had no telephone or radio, E. E. Stubblefield, farmer near here, had knowledge of a tornado 30 minutes after it had struck Wynnewood, Okla., a distance of 70 miles.

The twister blew a receipt, issued to Mrs. Charles Bradfield, Wynnewood, the 70 miles in 30 minutes, and dropped it at Stubblefield's feet. Mrs. Bradfield's home was demolished in the tornado.

CARPET WAS MAGIC FOR TUMBLING TOT

(International News Service)

BIG LAUREL, Va.—When two-year-old John Faulkner gets big enough to read, his reaction to the magic carpet tale of the Arabian Nights probably will be:

"Shucks that's nothing."

John, apparently, knows his carpets.

He tumbled out of the second-story window of his home here and landed unhurt in the middle of a carpet his father and a hired hand were carrying from the house.

Hyde Questions Plan To Purchase New School Geographies

SUPT. GREEN STANDS BY RECOMMENDATION

Consideration by the New Castle board of education of book recommendations made by Superintendent of Schools C. C. Green reached a heated climax last night when Board Member A. C. Hyde laid before the board a geography brought from the Mahoning school as a sample of "what Dr. Green says are deplorable books."

"I had that book taken from the Mahoning building," spoke Mr. Hyde, "and I'm told that there are many books in the same condition as that one."

No sooner had the book been tossed on the table than Superintendent Green, sitting at the opposite end of the board table, got to his feet and, looking directly at Hyde, said "Mr. Hyde, I resent that."

Mr. Hyde continued his address to his colleagues, asserting that "the books in our schools are not in a deplorable condition and investigation would show it" and that "before any books are bought we ought to look into the condition of those we now have." And Mr. Hyde remarked to his co-members that when notices of board meetings are mailed on Mondays "you don't have any opportunity to find out any information you might want, the time is so short."

Superintendent Green broke in before Mr. Hyde had finished—"I resent all of that," Dr. Green interrupted. "You're insinuating that I'm lying!"

"I'll gladly take the board over to the North Street school (just next door) if it doubts my word," declared Dr. Green. "I know the books are in deplorable shape—some are rotten."

Mr. Hyde returned again to the book he had offered for examination and then the verbal fireworks was renewed.

"I'm told, Dr. Green, that pupils at the Mahoning building have been instructed to cut pictures out of the old geographies, even before we've even purchased the new ones," began Mr. Hyde again. Dr. Green retorted that he knew of no such instructions.

Mr. Hyde repeatedly brought up the fact that he felt more attention should be paid by the board when it comes to replacing books, and it wasn't until Board Member Walter Duff asked for a vote on Mr. Hyde's motion to lay the matter of new geographies on the table until July that the conversation of Dr. Green and Mr. Hyde closed.

The board, however, approved Dr. Green's recommendations for new supplementary readers, arithmetics, German readers and English texts.

The board passed up Dr. Green's invitation to visit the North street school to inspect the books.

Gaston Sunday School Reunion

Former Members Of Sunday School Have Day Of Reminiscing At Yoho Home

The annual reunion of the former members of the Gaston Sunday school was held Wednesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Yoho, Katherine street. This event is held each year in memory of J. A. McCay, founder and superintendent of the school 57 years ago.

At noon the guests enjoyed a basket picnic at a long table decorated with garden flowers, with places arranged for 60. Mrs. A. M. McConaghy and her committee served.

Many stories were recalled of the days of long ago, when all were attending the old Sunday school, as the guests were seated about the tables.

At 2:30 a business meeting was called by the president, Mrs. Howard Magill and an election resulted in the same officers being retained for another year: Mrs. Howard Magill, president; Mrs. Mary Calwell, vice president; Miss Laura Blucher, secretary, and A. E. Yoho, treasurer.

Plans were discussed to have a committee compile the history of the association.

The program was in charge of Della White, Susie Hoover and Isabella Hanna and included a duet by Charlotte Reynolds and Elmer Reynolds; a recitation, Warren White; piano number, Aaron Yoho; reading, Katherine Wilcox and recitation, Althea Green.

The history of the school was read by Mrs. Mary Calwell; Tad Kirker gave a reading and Kenneth Green a recitation. Miss Laura Blucher read a most amusing poem written by A. S. McCay of St. Cloud, Fla., who was a former pupil but could not be present at this time. He recalled days of the school with tributes to the teachers.

It was decided to have the next meeting the second Wednesday of June 1935 at Cascade Park.

A vote of thanks was extended to Mr. and Mrs. Yoho for their most gracious hospitality and the group, which included many from out of town, dispersed with the hope that all would meet again next year.

German Action Shocks London

Debt Moratorium Includes Dawes And Young Plan Loans

(International News Service)

LONDON, June 14.—The London financial district was shocked today by news that the German debt moratorium, while expected, had included Dawes and Young plan loans.

These issues were speedily marked down several points.

Berlin, June 14.—A complete moratorium for a year on all foreign debt payments was announced today by Dr. Hjalmar Schacht, president of the Reichsbank.

However, after six months, foreign creditors who accept refunding bonds bearing three per cent interest and due in 1945 in place of interest, can surrender these bonds and receive forty percent of their value in cash.

The moratorium will expire June 30, 1935, and applies to Young and Dawes plan loans.

Dr. Schacht warned against reprisals threatened by France and England in particular those diplomatic representatives warned the German government at the unsuccessful debt conference here that these loans enjoyed special rights.

"A scene is always annoying," says a writer. Especially as a substitute verb in the sentence: "I saw him."

Minor Matters Before School Board Session

Purchases and construction recommended by the building committee of the city's board of education were approved at the board's meeting at the Administration building last night.

The approved purchases are:

Oil for east and south sides of Washington high school grounds, Mercer street north of Euclid for about 300 feet, and parking lot at Franklin high school, at a cost not to exceed $50.

Erection of a seven-foot fence on south side of Senior high school similar to one of east side, provided the property owners pay half of cost of said fence.

Purchase of glass for skylight at Pollock avenue costing approximately $60.

Secretary Ickes Conducts Probe

DIRECTOR KOHN HAS RESIGNED

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, June 14.—Determined to see that nobody "puts anything over" on the government in connection with the PWA's financing of private housing projects, Secretary of the Interior Ickes today had Department of Justice agents investigating 11 projects for which 20 millions has been earmarked and received the resignation of Robert D. Kohn as director of the housing division.

Kohn submitted his resignation and returned to his Ossining (N. Y.) home just when Ickes investigation to determine if the housing division has made unduly large allowances for land values and paid excessive fees to architects and others in connection with the projects, was reported well underway.

Ickes On Warpath

Ickes, who is public works administrator, made no comment on Kohn's action but said he would not accept his resignation until he has completed his inquiry.

The administrator has been on the warpath against land speculators and others attempting to get unwarranted or excessive sums from the government for some time. Only recently he rejected three projects, one in California and two in New York City, which involved several millions of dollars.

Hammer And $10 Bill Means Jail

Marie Fisher, Colored, Accused Of Hitting Hall, Taking $10 Bill

Marie Fisher, hammer wielding colored girl, will spend the next 30 days in the county jail by decree of His Honor, Mayor Mayne.

She claimed to have had provocation to use the hammer on the head of Clifford Hall, also colored, last night.

The argument occurred in a house at the rear of 1217 Sciota street where the Fisher girl rooms.

She claims there were several persons in the room and Hall was among them and finally he started shoving her around.

When he shoved her against a sink her hand happened to find a hammed and she hit his head a solid whack, fetching the blood.

In the meantime someone had stolen a ten dollar bill from the pocketbook of Frances Bell, who keeps house for Mike Kabron. She denied she took it.

Marie was blamed for this and as she has been in previous scrapes the mayor presented her with a 30 days stay in county jail.

County Government Policy Is Attacked

University Speaker Discusses Urban Policies At Session At State College

(International News Service)

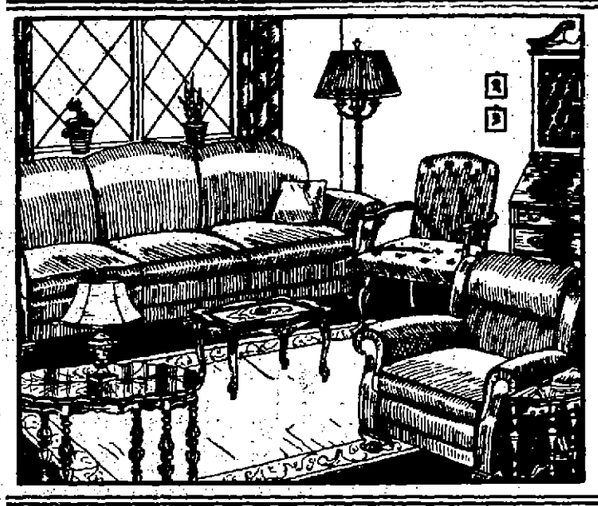

STATE COLLEGE, Pa., June 14.—The second annual Institute of Urban Problems in session at Pennsylvania State college today was considering an indictment of county government delivered by Prof. E. H. Schulz of Lehigh university. He told the delegates:

"County government is the most unprogressive and corrupt of all units of American government."

A realignment of tax collecting powers which would place them in the hands of agencies of federal, state or local government best fitted to do the work, was advocated by Franklin Spencer Edmonds of Philadelphia.

Dr. C. B. Crittenden of Wilkes-Barre said death in maternity cases could be reduced 60 per cent through a reorganization of welfare facilities into larger units.

Superintendent Green broke in before Mr. Hyde had finished—"I resent all of that," Dr. Green interrupted. "You're insinuating that I'm lying!"

"I'll gladly take the board over to the North Street school (just next door) if it doubts my word," declared Dr. Green. "I know the books are in deplorable shape—some are rotten."

Mr. Hyde returned again to the book he had offered for examination and then the verbal fireworks was renewed.

"I'm told, Dr. Green, that pupils at the Mahoning building have been instructed to cut pictures out of the old geographies, even before we've even purchased the new ones," began Mr. Hyde again. Dr. Green retorted that he knew of no such instructions.

Mr. Hyde repeatedly brought up the fact that he felt more attention should be paid by the board when it comes to replacing books, and it wasn't until Board Member Walter Duff asked for a vote on Mr. Hyde's motion to lay the matter of new geographies on the table until July that the conversation of Dr. Green and Mr. Hyde closed.

The board, however, approved Dr. Green's recommendations for new supplementary readers, arithmetics, German readers and English texts.

The board passed up Dr. Green's invitation to visit the North street school to inspect the books.

Gaston Sunday School Reunion

Former Members Of Sunday School Have Day Of Reminiscing At Yoho Home

The annual reunion of the former members of the Gaston Sunday school was held Wednesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Yoho, Katherine street. This event is held each year in memory of J. A. McCay, founder and superintendent of the school 57 years ago.

At noon the guests enjoyed a basket picnic at a long table decorated with garden flowers, with places arranged for 60. Mrs. A. M. McConaghy and her committee served.

Many stories were recalled of the days of long ago, when all were attending the old Sunday school, as the guests were seated about the tables.

At 2:30 a business meeting was called by the president, Mrs. Howard Magill and an election resulted in the same officers being retained for another year: Mrs. Howard Magill, president; Mrs. Mary Calwell, vice president; Miss Laura Blucher, secretary, and A. E. Yoho, treasurer.

Plans were discussed to have a committee compile the history of the association.

The program was in charge of Della White, Susie Hoover and Isabella Hanna and included a duet by Charlotte Reynolds and Elmer Reynolds; a recitation, Warren White; piano number, Aaron Yoho; reading, Katherine Wilcox and recitation, Althea Green.

The history of the school was read by Mrs. Mary Calwell; Tad Kirker gave a reading and Kenneth Green a recitation. Miss Laura Blucher read a most amusing poem written by A. S. McCay of St. Cloud, Fla., who was a former pupil but could not be present at this time. He recalled days of the school with tributes to the teachers.

It was decided to have the next meeting the second Wednesday of June 1935 at Cascade Park.

A vote of thanks was extended to Mr. and Mrs. Yoho for their most gracious hospitality and the group, which included many from out of town, dispersed with the hope that all would meet again next year.

German Action Shocks London

Debt Moratorium Includes Dawes And Young Plan Loans

(International News Service)

LONDON, June 14.—The London financial district was shocked today by news that the German debt moratorium, while expected, had included Dawes and Young plan loans.

These issues were speedily marked down several points.

Berlin, June 14.—A complete moratorium for a year on all foreign debt payments was announced today by Dr. Hjalmar Schacht, president of the Reichsbank.

However, after six months, foreign creditors who accept refunding bonds bearing three per cent interest and due in 1945 in place of interest, can surrender these bonds and receive forty percent of their value in cash.

The moratorium will expire June 30, 1935, and applies to Young and Dawes plan loans.

Dr. Schacht warned against reprisals threatened by France and England in particular those diplomatic representatives warned the German government at the unsuccessful debt conference here that these loans enjoyed special rights.

"A scene is always annoying," says a writer. Especially as a substitute verb in the sentence: "I saw him."

Minor Matters Before School Board Session

Purchases and construction recommended by the building committee of the city's board of education were approved at the board's meeting at the Administration building last night.

The approved purchases are:

Oil for east and south sides of Washington high school grounds, Mercer street north of Euclid for about 300 feet, and parking lot at Franklin high school, at a cost not to exceed $50.

Erection of a seven-foot fence on south side of Senior high school similar to one of east side, provided the property owners pay half of cost of said fence.

Purchase of glass for skylight at Pollock avenue costing approximately $60.

Secretary Ickes Conducts Probe

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, June 14.—Determined to see that nobody "puts anything over" on the government in connection with the PWA's financing of private housing projects, Secretary of the Interior Ickes today had Department of Justice agents investigating 11 projects for which 20 millions has been earmarked and received the resignation of Robert D. Kohn as director of the housing division.

Kohn submitted his resignation and returned to his Ossining (N. Y.) home just when Ickes investigation to determine if the housing division has made unduly large allowances for land values and paid excessive fees to architects and others in connection with the projects, was reported well underway.

Ickes On Warpath

Ickes, who is public works administrator, made no comment on Kohn's action but said he would not accept his resignation until he has completed his inquiry.

The administrator has been on the warpath against land speculators and others attempting to get unwarranted or excessive sums from the government for some time. Only recently he rejected three projects, one in California and two in New York City, which involved several millions of dollars.

Hammer And $10 Bill Means Jail

Marie Fisher, Colored, Accused Of Hitting Hall, Taking $10 Bill

Marie Fisher, hammer wielding colored girl, will spend the next 30 days in the county jail by decree of His Honor, Mayor Mayne.

She claimed to have had provocation to use the hammer on the head of Clifford Hall, also colored, last night.

The argument occurred in a house at the rear of 1217 Sciota street where the Fisher girl rooms.

She claims there were several persons in the room and Hall was among them and finally he started shoving her around.

When he shoved her against a sink her hand happened to find a hammed and she hit his head a solid whack, fetching the blood.

In the meantime someone had stolen a ten dollar bill from the pocketbook of Frances Bell, who keeps house for Mike Kabron. She denied she took it.

Marie was blamed for this and as she has been in previous scrapes the mayor presented her with a 30 days stay in county jail.

County Government Policy Is Attacked

(International News Service)

STATE COLLEGE, Pa., June 14.—The second annual Institute of Urban Problems in session at Pennsylvania State college today was considering an indictment of county government delivered by Prof. E. B. Schulz of Lehigh university. He told the delegates:

"County government is the most unprogressive and corrupt of all units of American government."

A realignment of tax collecting powers which would place them in the hands of agencies of federal, state or local government best fitted to do the work, was advocated by Franklin Spencer Edmonds of Philadelphia.

Dr. C. B. Crittenden of Wilkes-Barre said death in maternity cases could be reduced 60 per cent through a reorganization of welfare facilities into larger units.

You Have Inflation.
But Don't Weep.
Regulated Flying.
Amazing Russian Worm.
By ARTHUR BRISBANE

A LAW will presently become the "law of the land" compelling the nation to buy one billion, four hundred million ounces of silver. It is announced that the President will issue fifteen hundred million dollars of paper money to buy the silver. Conservative old fogyism yells "inflation," although it is not inflation, since the money will have silver back of it.

It will have more back of it than the government's bond on which the nation pays interest. Back of those bonds there is nothing but a paper mill, and the government's name. There are no longer any gold bonds; you can't get any gold.

Back of the silver money issued to buy silver there will at least be silver, and you can always buy something with that, in China, Mexico, India, elsewhere as well as here at home.

CONSERVATIVE OLD fogyism may as well realize that we have left the gold basis, and that a government bond is worth exactly as much as a piece of green paper with the government name on it, no more, no less. All you will get for any U. S. Government bond is pieces of green paper, when you come to sell it.

Why the government lacks the brains to issue only green paper and save one hundred per cent in interest is hard to understand. Perhaps the President means to do the thing slowly, that old fogyism may merely faint, not die of apoplexy.

In any case remember that you have inflation NOW, as we pump out interest bearing bonds by the billions. And we are going to have MORE inflation because we plan to give the three great guarantees to the people, guarantee of homes, guarantee of jobs, guarantee job insurance. You cannot do that with only "love and kisses," you must do it with money. And be it foolish bonds, bearing interest, or be it nice American greenbacks with Uncle Sam's name on it and no interest, the money will have to be issued.

FOR YOUR comfort remember that this nation, which has actually lost, according to careful statistics, more than ONE HUNDRED THOUSAND MILLION OF DOLLARS since the depression began, can well afford another hundred thousand millions to get out of the depression, if that amount is necessary.

This isn't any LITTLE country, or any POOR country.

One hundred thousand millions to the United States is less than ten millions would be to John D. Rockefeller, and you know or you can imagine how much that would be to him.

FOLLOWING THE loss of one passenger plane in the Catskill Mountains, you read about the destruction of another United States passenger plane in the Argentine, five killed, five injured.

It would be unfair to criticize flying methods without knowing every detail of each disaster, but the management of American flying lines, and the United States government as well, should be interested in regulations that France has established for flying over the Desert of Sahara.

The French minister of colonies issues regulations stipulating definite routes, with compulsory use of sending and receiving wireless outfits and definite regulations as to their use.

Something should be done to discourage the habit of running airplanes into the mountains on the Pacific and the Atlantic coasts. Higher flying, with reliable altimeters, if such things exist, and landing with radio guiding beams would seem essential.

THE RUSSIAN Communist worm turns with a loud report and prints an advertisement that will startle, bewilder and obfuscate, to borrow a word from Mr. Gene Tunney's vocabulary, one already bewildered "best financial mind."

Not content with advertising Russian gold bonds that pay 7 per cent, redeemable, principal and interest, "upon a fixed quantity of gold," and payable in any kind of money you like, Russia, in an advertisement printed in America, assures those buying Russian bonds that they "are thus protected against loss resulting from possible further reduction in the gold content of the dollar."

As it happens, there isn't ANY gold content to our dollar; it is just a dollar, printed on a good quality of paper, with the best name in the world signed to it. There is no gold about it.

Who would have thought, when our "best minds" were predicting an early collapse of the Russian Soviet government, that Russians would soon be inviting us to invest our feeble dollars in their safer gold bonds?

And who would have believed what is now the fact, that Russia would be producing more than twice the gold that the United States produces?

THE LEARNED senators object to the confirmation of Professor Tugwell as Under-Secretary of Agriculture, on the ground that he is "not a dirt farmer." Leaving out other questions, is it necessary to be a "dirt farmer" to be a good Under-Secretary of Agriculture?

The man who invented the sewing machine couldn't sew. You would not insist on having a seamstress in charge of a great clothing factory. The late American railroad builders, Vanderbilt, Harriman and Hill, never ran a locomotive, or drove spikes into railroad ties. But they could build and run railroads.

You can be a successful editor without knowing how to set type, although printers, among them the late Ed Matthews, of the New York Evening Journal, have been among the ablest of editors. You might be a good Under-Secretary of Agriculture without knowing on which side of a cow you sit in milking. Professor Tugwell's appointment will be confirmed.

IS THERE to be no end of Bolshevism in this glorious country of ours?

Not content with selling milk at eight cents a quart to poor mothers, Mayor LaGuardia, finding that dealers in ice have combined to put up the price, plans a municipal ice plant to sell cheap ice with the cheap milk.

Is there to be no consideration for vested rights? Will it be seriously maintained in this country that the welfare of children and the peace of mothers are more important than the profits of an ice or milk dealer?

THE DETERMINED Japanese, with low-priced money and cheap labor help, are reaching out for business. Bucharest reports Japan offers to renovate the Roumanian Army, with flying machines, weapons of all kinds and ammunition factories in Roumania for twenty-five per cent less than any other bid.

Other nations will find it hard to compete with Japanese manufacturer and prices. Our nation, fortunately for its future, could live within its own boundaries, without any export business, if necessary. We could be as independent of Europe and Asia as we are now of Mars.

GAINS 5 LBS. IN 1 WEEK Feels Fine!

Says Miss Betty Noever, Kansas City, Mo.

Read How Amazing Mineral Concentrate, Free From Drugs, Richest In Newer Form Of "FOOD IODINE" Is Building Up Thousands Of Nervous, Skinny, Rundown, Folks Where All Else Fails

"Have been underweight for years due to digestive disorders," says Miss Noever, "and since taking Kelp-a-Malt for a few weeks I gained 10 lbs. and now feel like a new person." . . . "Had stomach trouble for years. When I take Kelp-a-Malt I have a hearty appetite for everything and suffer no distress. Kelp-a-Malt has banished constipation, which I have had all my life."—W. D. C. . . . "Gained 8 pounds with one package of Kelp-a-Malt andn feel 100% better."—Mrs. W. J. S.

Just a few of the thousands of actual reports that are flocding in from all over the country telling us how this newer form of food iodine is building firm flesh, strengthening the nerves, enriching the blood—nourishing vital glands and making weak, pale, careworn, underweight men and women look and feel years younger. Fine for children too—Improves their appetites.

Scientists have recently discovered that the blood, liver and vital glands of the body contain definite quantities of iodine which heretofore has been difficult to obtain.

Modern foodstuffs, even fresh vegetables and similarly so-called "good" foods, have been found to be often lacking not only in food iodine but in all the other essential organic minerals without which strength and health are impossible.

Supplies Newer Form of Food Iodine.

Kelp-a-Malt only recently discovered, contains practically every mineral essential to normal well-being. But most important of all, it is the richest known source of the newer form of food iodine—natural iodine not made from iodides or other chemicals which oftentimes prove toxic, but the same iodine that is present in small quantities in spinach and lettuce. It is the lack of this iodine which experts in nutrition say is our foremost national health problem. Kelp-a-Malt is a sea vegetable concentrate taken from the Pacific Ocean and made available in palatable, pleasant-to-take tablet form. Six Kelp-a-Malt tablets provide more food iodine than 486 pounds of spinach, 1,600 pounds of beef, 1,387 pounds of lettuce. Three Kelp-a-Malt tablets contain more iron and copper for rich blood, vitality and strength than a pound of spinach, 7½ pounds of fresh tomatoes—more calcium than 6 eggs, more phosphorus than a pound and a half of carrots—sulphur, sodium, potassium and other essential minerals.

Miss Betty Noever Kansas City, Mo.

Only when you get an adequate amount of these minerals can your food do you any good—can you nourish glands, add weight, strengthen your nerves, increase your vigor, vitality and endurance.

Try Kelp-a-Malt today. Contains no yeast—doesn't cause bloating. Two weeks are required to effect a change in the mineralization of the body. At the end of that time, if you have not gained at least 5 pounds, do not look better, feel better and have more endurance than ever before, the trial is free. Kelp-a-Malt comes in packages of 100 Jumbo size tables, which are 4 to 5 times larger than ordinary size tables, and costs only a few cents a day to use. Be sure to remember the name—Kelp-a-Malt Tablets—original and genuine kelp and malt tablets. Prescribed and used by physicians. There is nothing else like them so don't accept imitations or substitutes. Get Kelp-a-Malt today. Kelp-a-Malt can be had at New Castle Drug Store.

Ever Known!

WORLD RECORD BROKEN!

IT IS almost inconceivable that human ingenuity could build tires that would withstand the terrific punishment of the 500-mile grind at Indianapolis, May 30.

'Round and 'round the blistering track they streaked, hour after hour, under the blazing sun . . . the low moan of powerful motors rose to a terrific roar as they hit the straightaways at 150 miles or better—grinding, pulling, pounding around treacherous tire-destroying curves faster than they ever dared before. Sliding into the turns at these terrific speeds, there was nothing to hold the car to the track except the tire.

Mile after mile, lap after lap, greater and greater heat and increased centrifugal force developed to separate the tread from the body of the tire. Every conceivable force known was working to tear the tires to pieces — yet Firestone High Speed Tires, with Gum-Dipped High Stretch Cords, withstood this most gruelling test.

Thirty-three demons of speed—thirty-three cars equipped with Firestone High Speed Tires—all protected by Gum-Dipped High Stretch Cords—entered the Annual Speed Classic. Every tire was bought by the driver or owner of the car.

In all the heat—in all the grinding—in all the straining and pulling—not one cotton strand loosened—not one life was endangered by tire failure—not one car was forced out of the race by tire trouble. Six of the winners finished without a tire change.

What a tribute to the Extra Strength—Safety and Durability built into Firestone High Speed Tires.

WHAT THIS MEANS TO YOU

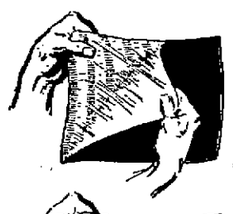

The amazing record of Firestone dependability at Indianapolis was made possible by the Firestone patented process of Gum-Dipping. This Gum-Dipping process is used only by Firestone. Every fiber of every cord in every ply of the tire is saturated and coated with pure liquid rubber; there are eight extra pounds of rubber to every 100 pounds of cotton cords. This is the most valuable rubber that goes into the tire, but you pay no more for it. It is your assurance of extra safety, extra blowout protection.

Firestone High Speed Tires withstand the terrific racing speeds because they are built with Gum-Dipped high stretch cords which provide an extra margin of safety. This extra margin of safety is built into the Firestone High Speed Tires that you buy from your Firestone Service Dealer or Service Store.

There is greater adhesion between the plies of the Gum-Dipped Cord body and between the body and the tread. As a result of this patented process of Gum-Dipping Firestone engineers have been able to build a wider tread of flatter contour, with more and tougher rubber and deeper non-skid, giving you more than 50% longer non-skid mileage.

Don't delay! Call on the Firestone Service Dealer or Service Store in your community today and equip your car with the new Firestone High Speed Tires for 1934. Drive with security and peace of mind. Choose the Tires that Champions Buy!

MAKE THIS TEST YOURSELF

Note how the rubber in a Firestone Tire clings to the high stretch Gum-Dipped cords. This greater adhesion and strength is made possible by the Firestone patented process of Gum-Dipping.

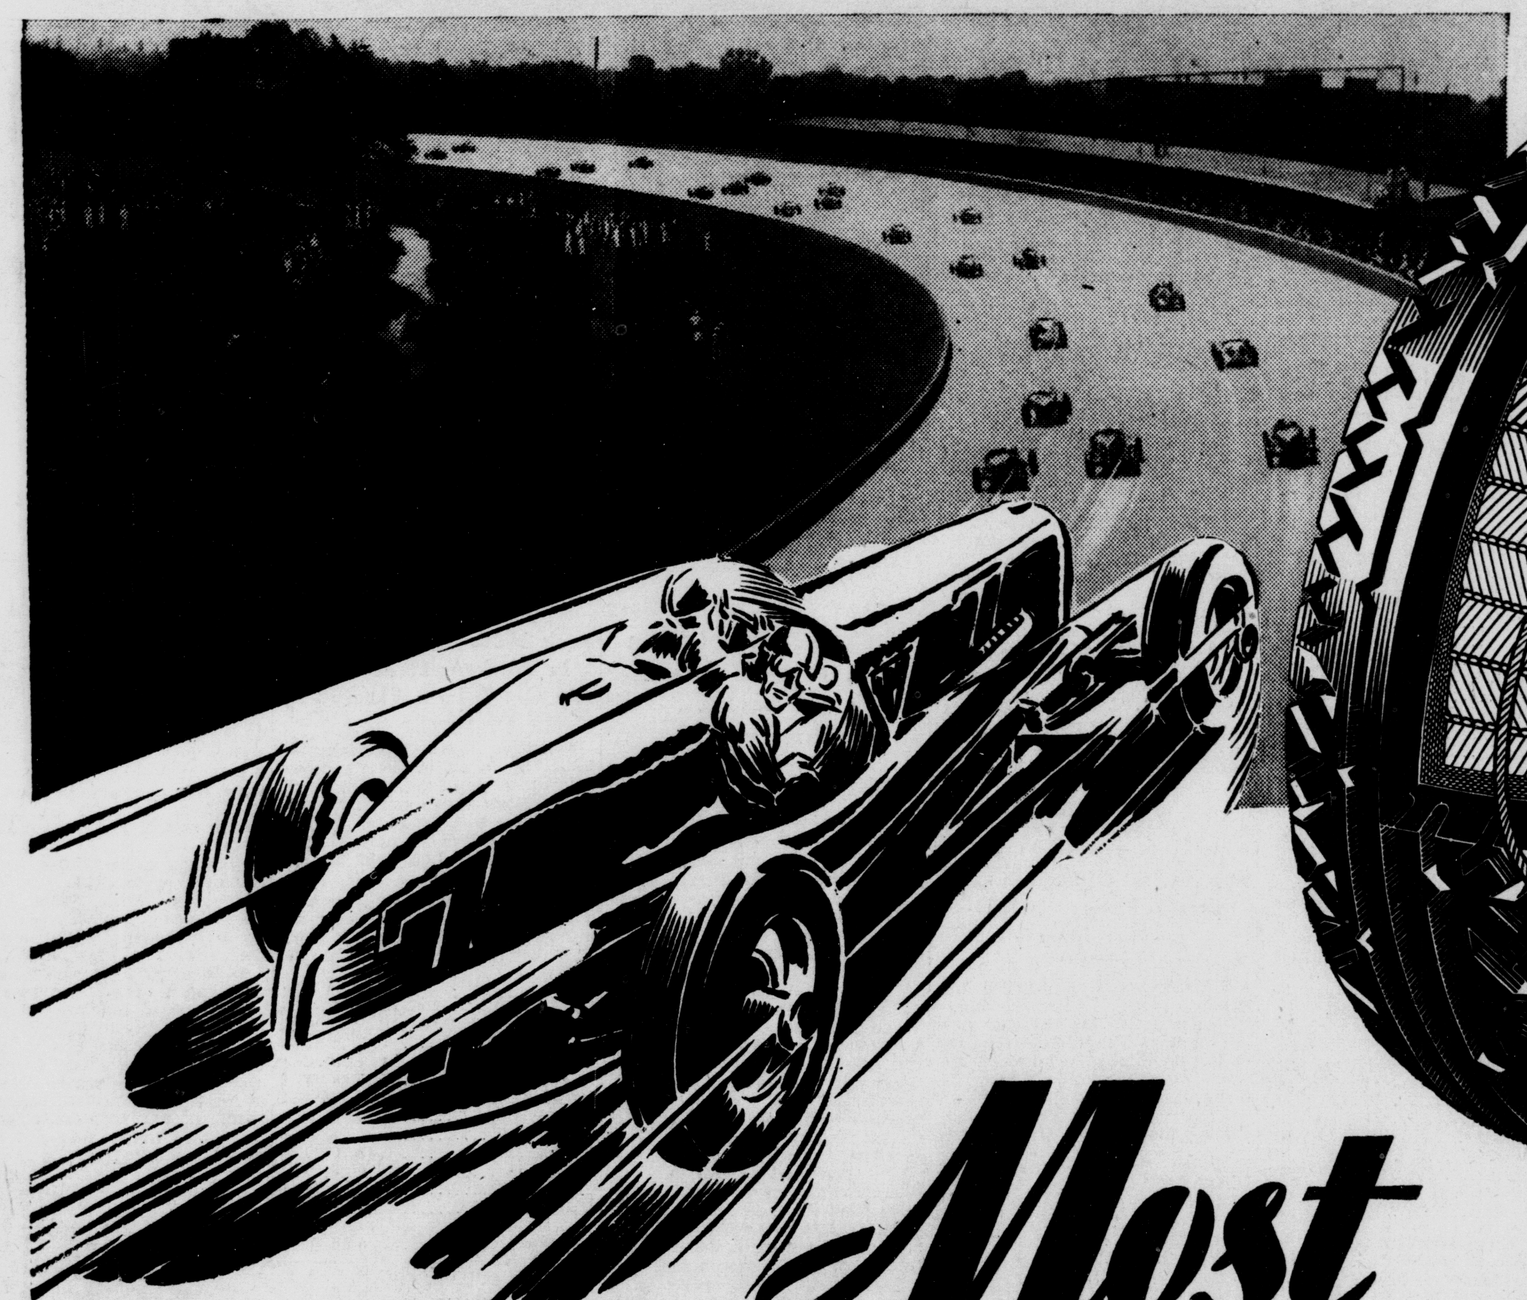

Note how the rubber in an ordinary tire pulls away from the cords that have not been soaked and insulated with rubber. This causes friction and heat within the cords, resulting in separation.

Book Purchase Hotly Debated

SUPT. GREEN STANDS BY RECOMMENDATION

Consideration by the New Castle board of education of book recommendations made by Superintendent of Schools C. C. Green reached a heated climax last night when Board Member A. C. Hyde laid before the board a geography brought from the Mahoning school as a sample of "what Dr. Green says are deplorable books."

"I had that book taken from the Mahoning building," spoke Mr. Hyde, "and I'm told that there are many books in the same condition as that one."

No sooner had the book been tossed on the table than Superintendent Green, sitting at the opposite end of the board table, got to his feet and, looking directly at Hyde, said "Mr. Hyde, I resent that."

Mr. Hyde continued his address to his colleagues, asserting that "the books in our schools are not in a deplorable condition and investigation would show it" and that "before any books are bought we ought to look into the condition of those we now have." And Mr. Hyde remarked to his co-members that when notices of board meetings are mailed on Mondays "you don't have any opportunity to find out any information you might want, the time is so short."

Superintendent Green broke in before Mr. Hyde had finished—"I resent all of that," Dr. Green interrupted. "You're insinuating that I'm lying!"

"I'll gladly take the board over to the North Street school (just next door) if it doubts my word," declared Dr. Green. "I know the books are in deplorable shape—some are rotten."

Mr. Hyde returned again to the book he had offered for examination and then the verbal fireworks was renewed.

"I'm told, Dr. Green, that pupils at the Mahoning building have been instructed to cut pictures out of the old geographies, even before we've even purchased the new ones," began Mr. Hyde again. Dr. Green retorted that he knew of no such instructions.

Mr. Hyde repeatedly brought up the fact that he felt more attention should be paid by the board when it comes to replacing books, and it wasn't until Board Member Walter Duff asked for a vote on Mr. Hyde's motion to lay the matter of new geographies on the table until July that the conversation of Dr. Green and Mr. Hyde closed.

The board, however, approved Dr. Green's recommendations for new supplementary readers, arithmetics, German readers and English texts.

The board passed up Dr. Green's invitation to visit the North street school to inspect the books.

Gaston Sunday School Reunion

Former Members Of Sunday School Have Day Of Reminiscing At Yoho Home

The annual reunion of the former members of the Gaston Sunday school was held Wednesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Yoho, Katherine street. This event is held each year in memory of J. A. McCay, founder and superintendent of the school 57 years ago.

At noon the guests enjoyed a basket picnic at a long table decorated with garden flowers, with places arranged for 60. Mrs. A. M. McConaghy and her committee served.

Many stories were recalled of the days of long ago, when all were attending the old Sunday school, as the guests were seated about the tables.

At 2:30 a business meeting was called by the president, Mrs. Howard Magill and an election resulted in the same officers being retained for another year: Mrs. Howard Magill, president; Mrs. Mary Calwell, vice president; Miss Laura Blucher, secretary, and A. E. Yoho, treasurer.

Plans were discussed to have a committee compile the history of the association.

The program was in charge of Della White, Susie Hoover and Isabella Hanna and included a duet by Charlotte Reynolds and Elmer Reynolds; a recitation, Warren White; piano number, Aaron Yoho; reading, Katherine Wilcox and recitation, Althea Green.

The history of the school was read by Mrs. Mary Calwell; Tad Kirker gave a reading and Kenneth Green a recitation. Miss Laura Blucher read a most amusing poem written by A. S. McCay of St. Cloud, Fla., who was a former pupil but could not be present at this time. He recalled days of the school with tributes to the teachers.

It was decided to have the next meeting the second Wednesday of June 1935 at Cascade Park.

A vote of thanks was extended to Mr. and Mrs. Yoho for their most gracious hospitality and the group, which included many from out of town, dispersed with the hope that all would meet again next year.

German Action Shocks London

Debt Moratorium Includes Dawes And Young Plan Loans

(International News Service)

LONDON, June 14.—The London financial district was shocked today by news that the German debt moratorium, while expected, had included Dawes and Young plan loans.

These issues were speedily marked down several points.

Berlin, June 14.—A complete moratorium for a year on all foreign debt payments was announced today by Dr. Hjalmar Schacht, president of the Reichsbank.

However, after six months, foreign creditors who accept refunding bonds bearing three per cent interest and due in 1945 in place of interest, can surrender these bonds and receive forty percent of their value in cash.

The moratorium will expire June 30, 1935, and applies to Young and Dawes plan loans.

Dr. Schacht warned against reprisals threatened by France and England in particular those diplomatic representatives warned the German government at the unsuccessful debt conference here that these loans enjoyed special rights.

"A scene is always annoying," says a write. Especially as a substitute verb i the sentence: "I saw him."

Minor Matters Before School Board Session

Purchases and construction recommended by the building committee of the city's board of education were approved at the board's meeting at the Administration building last night.

The approved purchases are:

Oil for east and south sides of Washington high school grounds, Mercer street north of Euclid for about 300 feet, and parking lot at Franklin high school, at a cost not to exceed $50.

Erection of a seven-foot fence on south side of Senior high school similar to one of east side, provided the property owners pay half of cost of said fence.

Purchase of glass for skylight at Pollock avenue costing approximately $60.

Secretary Ickes Conducts Probe

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, June 14.—Determined to see that nobody "puts anything over" on the government in connection with the PWA's financing of private housing projects, Secretary of the Interior Ickes today had Department of Justice agents investigating 11 projects for which 20 millions has been earmarked and received the resignation of Robert D. Kohn as director of the housing division.

Kohn submitted his resignation and returned to his Ossining (N. Y.) home just when Ickes investigation to determine if the housing division has made unduly large allowances for land values and paid excessive fees to architects and others in connection with the projects, was reported well underway.

Ickes On Warpath

Ickes, who is public works administrator, made no comment on Kohn's action but said he would not accept his resignation until he has completed his inquiry.

The administrator has been on the warpath against land speculators and others attempting to get unwarranted or excessive sums from the government for some time. Only recently he rejected three projects, one in California and two in New York City, which involved several millions of dollars.

Hammer And $10 Bill Means Jail

Marie Fisher, Colored, Accused Of Hitting Hall, Taking $10 Bill

Marie Fisher, hammer wielding colored girl, will spend the next 30 days in the county jail by decree of His Honor, Mayor Meyne.

She claimed to have had provocation to use the hammer on the head of Clifford Hall, also colored, last night.

The argument occurred in a house at the rear of 1217 Sciota street where the Fisher girl rooms.

She claims there were several persons in the room and Hall was among them and finally he started shoving her around.

When he shoved her against a sink her hand happened to find a hammed and she hit his head a solid whack, fetching the blood.

In the meantime someone had stolen a ten dollar bill from the pocketbook of Frances Bell, who keeps house for Mike Kabron. She denied she took it.

Marie was blamed for this and as she has been in previous scrapes the mayor presented her with a 30 days stay in county jail.

County Government Policy Is Attacked

(International News Service)

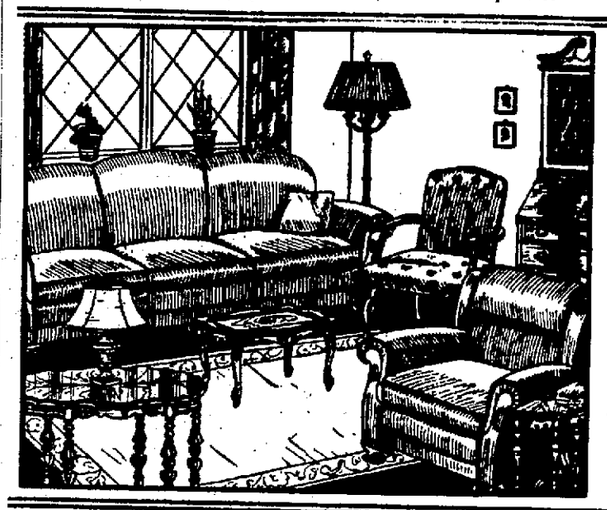

STATE COLLEGE, Pa., June 14.—The second annual Institute of Urban Problems in session at Pennsylvania State college today was considering an indictment of county government delivered by Prof. E. B. Schulz of Lehigh university. He told the delegates:

"County government is the most unprogressive and corrupt of all units of American government."

A realignment of tax collecting powers which would place them in the hands of agencies of federal, state or local government best fitted to do the work, was advocated by Franklin Spencer Edmonds of Philadelphia.

Dr. C. B. Crittenden of Wilkes-Barre said death in maternity cases could be reduced 60 per cent through a reorganization of welfare facilities into larger units.

Carnera And Baer Await Big Battle

New York Fight Crowd Awaits Spectacle Of Oversized Leather Pushers

Expect Gate Of $400,000 To See Title Bout; Odds Favor Carnera

By DAVIS J. WALSH
International News Service Sports Editor

NEW YORK, June 14.—They call it a spectacle but so was the scene, millions of years ago, when men climbed down out of trees and went at each other with a club in either hand. However, times change but human nature does not and so tonight a crowd of maybe fifty thousand is to clamor for places as near as possible to an expected shambles between Primo Carnera, champion, and Max Baer, challenger, for the heavyweight championship of the world. It's a fight that took two months to make and may take a lifetime to forget. Men have already died on the ring floor before both of them.

That's a sanguinary view that may, in the light of later events, be quite without justification. This pair, probably the biggest and strongest that ever fought for the championship, may brawl desultorily and inanely for the complete schedule of fifteen rounds. But that's not the reason the crowd has paid $25 ringside prices and a total of almost $400,000, the bumper yield of four long, haggard years.

Are Not Friendly.

They will expect more than action. They'll be there because they expect the principals to do great violence to one another and, frankly, these are not principals who would care to major in culture and refinement. As a matter of fact, they'll kick, bite, gouge and claw. They do not like each other; anyhow, they didn't the first time they met socially. After that, it seems their repugnance rapidly ripened into something really worth while and fine.

So all the rules are liable to go by default tonight, while the greatest crowd of recent years will have its fling in pre-arranged and organized assault. At 210 pounds, Baer has the potentialities of a charging water buffalo and all of its chivalry. He was a very rough, touch person when he knocked out Schmeling in his last appearance about a year ago.

As for Carnera, his more than 260 pounds have been used to advantage in recent fights, especially when he clasped the victim in a smothering embrace or stomped upon his careless feet. They say he can't punch. But when he even looks at you, it hurts.

Referee Is Unknown.

In the midst of this profound uproar will be a comparatively little man in gray, delegated by the New York commission to call what shots he may and, in general, enforce order. This official, whoever he is, may find himself in the spot occupied by Dave Barry in the seventh round at Chicago or by Johnny Gallagher the night he stood around in a daze and let Dempsey go over Firpo like an estimate. Something undoubtedly is going to happen tonight and it probably won't rebound to the referee's credit. Altogether, I'd say that the selected official might do better if he lost his way to the arena and didn't quite make it.

The man might be Gunboat Smith because of his size but that gentleman no longer is in great favor with the commission. My guess, in fact, is that the nominee will be a man, picked largely because Ancil Hoffman, of the Baer camp, has objected to him, namely Arthur Donovan, son of Old Mike, which is all right. I don't think Mike had a marcel.

Weather Is Fair.

Of course, all may go well, in which case a very fantastic prize fight will wind up in a surprisingly conventional way. So far, the only guarantee offered is that the weather will be mild and fair. Otherwise, there have been times in the last few days when everybody wondered what was coming next. A week ago, Baer was publicly derided by a boxing commissioner as a "bum" who was physically unfit to enter the contest. A few days later, Carnera took to his bed with something the doctors diagnosed as "pharyngitis." Both ultimately survived a physical examination on Tuesday but Carnera, who had been the favorite in the betting, was rapidly receding toward even money this morning.

However, there was very little betting. One just doesn't bet on anything so seemingly unstable as this pair.

Giants Assume League Lead In National Loop

Billy Terry Has Giants Hitting Hard And Hustling On Ball Field

PIRATES HAND DODGERS DEFEAT

By GENE LAWRENCE
International News Service Sports Writer

NEW YORK, June 14.—Controversies may last until dooms day on the effect on the new uniform baseball, but the fact stands proven today that the world's champions New York Giants are far liveller with it now than they were a year ago when the so called "dead ball" was in use.

While their pitching and defense is not what it might be, the Giants have turned from powder puff dusters into real he-men hitters in these past weeks to lift themselves right to the top of the National League standings.

Giants Hitting

With Bill Terry, Mell Ott, Travis Jackson and Joe Moore leading the attack with a steady barrage of base hits, the Giants have scored 79 runs in their last eight games and that includes their 6 to 4 victory over the Cincinnati Reds yesterday. In all these games they have rapped opposing pitchers for 95 hits.

Although they dropped a 9 to 0 decision to the Boston Braves, the St. Louis Cardinals held their second place berth. Fred Frankhouse hurling effectively set the Cards down with six hits while his mates ran up 19 off Hallahan, Haines and Winford.

Ethan Allen's homer with Bartell on base in the eighth gave the lowly Philadelphia Phillies a 2 to 1 decision over the Chicago Cubs.

Pirates Win

The good ol' Brooklyn Dodgers reeled under a 15 to 2 lacing administered by the Pittsburgh Pirates. Herring, Munns and Beck were rapped for a total of 17 base hits as the Bubs romped home on the chin strap.

The Detroit Tigers lost ground to the New York Yankees in their fight for the American League leadership. Mickey Cochrane's team was nosed out 15 to 13 by the Boston Red Sox despite a six run rally in the ninth.

The Yankees moved nearer to the leading Tigers when they won 6 to 2 from the St. Louis Browns. "Lefty" Gomez hung up his 10th victory as he turned back the Browns with six hits. Lou Gehrig walloped his 16th homer with Babe Ruth on base in the first.

A seven run spree in the sixth as Bob Johnson hit a homer gave the Philadelphia Athletics an 11 to 2 win over the Cleveland Indians.

The Washington Senators moved into fourth place winning both games from the Chicago White Sox, 11 to 3 and 13 to 11.

Wilson Hurls Four-Hit Game As Clifton Flats Takes League Victory

Clifton Flats had their ace pitcher Wilson in the box last night at Shenango High Field and he allowed the East New Castle Merchants but four hits. He fanned six men. He was master of the game in every inning. The Flats found Miller for seven hits.

HERE AND THERE IN SPORTS' LAND

The tent is pitched and the audience is ready to swarm in to see the two mastodons of the ring strut their stuff tonight in New York. There is plenty of interest locally in the fight and the radios will be popular. Jimmie Dime believes that if Max Baer fights Carnera like he did Max Schmeling the present title contender will be the champion of the world at midnight. "I like him because he is the best puncher but he is such a clown I don't know what he might do" said Dime when asked for his opinion last night. Dime does not believe either one of them is a good fighter. Tom McMahon has picked Baer to win from Carnera and Bob Latera believes Carnera will still be the champion when the fighting is over. Former Middleweight Champion George Chip could not be located for his opinion. The writer likes Baer tonight, providing he goes in and fights. To do this he will have to keep walking into the champion throwing punches all of the time. He cannot afford to try to box with Carnera or do any backing away.

Desmore Shute, Philadelphia professional, who won the British open golf championship last year has sailed for Southampton to defend his title at Sandwich, England, in June.

Blews Pitches One-Hit Game

Coaltown Defeats Rose Point As Blews Hurls Great Game, Score Is 2 To 0

Blews was in rare form last night, so rare in fact that he just missed a no-hit game at Rose Point Field, but as it turned out D. Jackson spoiled a perfect night for Blews ace of the Coaltown pitchers by crackling out a single. Only one hit did Mr. Blews allow. Ten men whiffed the gentle breezes before his tantalizing slants.

Coaltown gained an Independent league victory 2 to 0 as a result of the airtight hurling of Blews. Coaltown found Farrell for only five hits, and he whiffed eight men! Heidish and McGaffic hit for extra bases.

Hoffman Enters Protest Against Hiring Of Morgan

Manager For Maxie Baer Protests Naming Of Dan Morgan Chief Second For Carnera

By SID ZIFF
Sports Editor, Los Angeles Herald-Express
Written Especially For International News Service

NEW YORK, June 14— Ancil Hoffman, manager of Max Baer, today served notice that he would enter an official protest with the New York Boxing Commission against the use of Dan Morgan as chief second in the corner of Primo Carnera at the world's heavyweight championship fight here tonight.

The selection of Morgan to second Carnera was made by Louis Soresi, manager of the vast Venetian yesterday when it became practically certain that Bill Duffy would not obtain a temporary release from federal penitentiary to serve in that capacity.

Morgan Well Known

Soresi confessed that he knew too little about the machinations of the boxing racket to hope to be Carnera's chief advisor in such an important contest. He has only been connected with Carnera and with boxing for the short space of a year.

Morgan is one of the best connected boxing men in the East. Too well connected in the opinion of Manager Ancil Hoffman who bases his objection on the fact that Morgan and commissioner William Brown are close personal friends.

Hoffman does not intimate that this would have any effect on the outcome of the match but he does not particularly care for a friend of Brown's in the champion's corner. Commissioner Brown is the athletic authority who considered Baer more suitable for a morgue than a title contest after observing him in a workout last week.

APPROVE BOND

The board of education last night approved the $75,000 bond of City Treasurer L. W. McClung as treasurer of the New Castle school district.

Bingo—Have you forgotten that $2 that you owe me?

Stingo—Certainly not. Didn't you see me try to dodge into that doorway?

Ryantown upsets the Mahoning Indies last night at the Ryantown field 7 to 3 in an Independent league game. Book was in great form and allowed the slugging Indies but five hits. He fanned 10 batters. The Ryantown team had eight hits off Higgins.

Hartman featured the game with a resounding smash that went for a homer, while Brumbaugh, Kerr, T. Maher and Cardella also hit the ball hard.

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, June 14.— Here's what the two contestants in tonight's heavyweight championship bout have to say regarding their prospects for victory.

By PRIMO CARNERA

Max Baer is a good fighter or he would not be getting this chance at the heavyweight championship. Without saying I will knock out Baer I will say positively I will retain my title. I am feeling great. The trouble in my throat will not bother me. If I thought it would, I would not enter the ring. Baer's work will decide what kind of a fight it is to be. I am ready to box or slug, it makes no difference to me. I am ambitious to become a great champion. Baer will not destroy that ambition.

By MAX BAER

I am going to leave the ring tonight the heavyweight champion of the world. I have felt all along that I was destined to become the champion and I hope I win in such a manner as to convince everyone I have the ability to fight as well as frolic. I became absolutely certain I would win when I found it so easy to "ride" Carnera when we met at the state athletic commission examination. He's easily flustered and that's in my favor. I am in perfect condition despite the criticism my training workouts aroused. I know how to whip Carnera. You'll see tonight.

Scarazzos Win From Merchants

Scarazzos defeated the East Side Merchants last night in a softball game at the E. & O. Field. It was the 20th victory of the year for the Scarazzos. The score was 16 to 3. Barlett pitched a fine game for the American league leaders. The Merchants used Dweyer and Richardson.

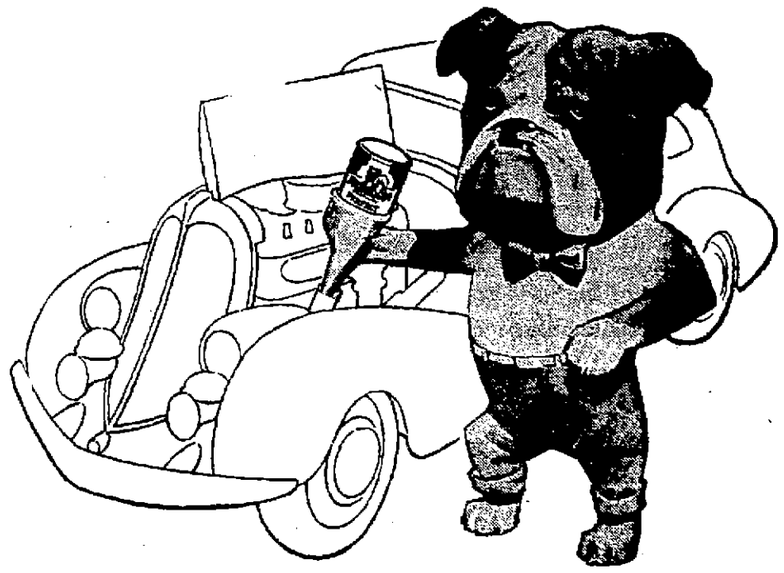

Bartlett had eight strikeouts. He walked seven men. Dweyer and Richardson were found for 16 hits. The stars of the game were: Tex Richards, Natale, Llewellyn, Gentile and Tip Richards. Tex Richards had four hits while Llewellyn and Tip Richards had three hits apiece. "Bung" Cutler played first for the Merchants. This victory evens up the series between the two teams.

Carnera And Baer Await Big Battle

New York Fight Crowd Awaits Spectacle Of Oversized Leather Pushers

Expect Gate Of $400,000 To See Title Bout; Odds Favor Carnera

By DAVIS J. WALSH
International News Service Sports Editor

NEW YORK, June 14.—They call it a spectacle but so was the scene, millions of years ago, when men climbed down out of trees and went at each other with a club in either hand. However, times change but human nature does not and so tonight a crowd of maybe fifty thousand is to clamor for places as near as possible to an expected shambles between Primo Carnera, champion, and Max Baer, challenger, for the heavyweight championship of the world. It's a fight that took two months to make and may take a lifetime to forget. Men have already died on the ring floor before both of them.

That's a sanguinary view that may, in the light of later events, be quite without justification. This pair, probably the biggest and strongest that ever fought for the championship, may brawl desultorily and inanely for the complete schedule of fifteen rounds. But that's not the reason the crowd has paid $25 ringside prices and a total of almost $400,000, the bumper yield of four long, haggard years.

Are Not Friendly.

They will expect more than action. They'll be there because they expect the principals to do great violence to one another and, frankly, these are not principals who would care to major in culture and refinement. As a matter of fact, they'll kick, bite, gouge and claw. They do not like each other; anyhow, they didn't the first time they met socially. After that, it seems their repugnance rapidly ripened into something really worth while and fine.

So all the rules are liable to go by default tonight, while the greatest crowd of recent years will have its fling in pre-arranged and organized assault. At 210 pounds, Baer has the potentialities of a charging water buffalo and all of its chivalry. He was a very rough, touch person when he knocked out Schmeling in his last appearance about a year ago.

As for Carnera, his more than 260 pounds have been used to advantage in recent fights, especially when he clasped the victim in a smothering embrace or stomped upon his careless feet. They say he can't punch. But when he even looks at you, it hurts.

Referee Is Unknown.

In the midst of this profound uproar will be a comparatively little man in gray, delegated by the New York commission to call what shots he may and, in general, enforce order. This official, whoever he is, may find himself in the spot occupied by Dave Barry in the seventh round at Chicago or by Johnny Gallagher the night he stood around in a daze and let Dempsey go over Firpo like an estimate. Something undoubtedly is going to happen tonight and it probably won't rebound to the referee's credit. Altogether, I'd say that the selected official might do better if he lost his way to the arena and didn't quite make it.

The man might be Gunboat Smith because of his size but that gentleman no longer is in great favor with the commission. My guess, in fact, is that the nominee will be a man, picked largely because Ancil Hoffman, of the Baer camp, has objected to him, namely Arthur Donovan, son of Old Mike, which is all right. I don't think Mike had a marcel.

Weather Is Fair.

Of course, all may go well, in which case a very fantastic prize fight will wind up in a surprisingly conventional way. So far, the only guarantee offered is that the weather will be mild and fair. Otherwise, there have been times in the last few days when everybody wondered what was coming next. A week ago, Baer was publicly derided by a boxing commissioner as a "bum" who was physically unfit to enter the contest. A few days later, Carnera took to his bed with something the doctors diagnosed as "pharyngitis." Both ultimately survived a physical examination on Tuesday but Carnera, who had been the favorite in the betting, was rapidly receding toward even money this morning.

However, there was very little betting. One just doesn't bet on anything so seemingly unstable as this pair.

Mahoning A. A. To Play Greenville

Mahoning A. A. Will Play Fast Greenville Team At E. & A. Field At 5:30 P. M.

Mahoning A. A. will play the fast Greenville Merchants tonight at the E. & A. field at 5:30 o'clock. The Mahonings recently won a game at the Greenville field 5 to 4, and the Mercer countians will be out for revenge.

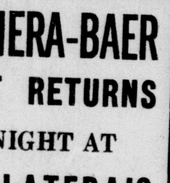

Paul McCullough will take the mound for the seventh warders tonight in an effort to snatch two straight from the Greenvillians. Teddy Bair, former Westminster college star athlete, will probably pitch for the visitors.

Whatever the secret of success may be, it isn't a reluctance to charge enough.

NEW YORK, June 14.—Controversies may last until dooms day on the effect on the new uniform baseball, but the fact stands proven today that the world's champions New York Giants are far livelier with it now than they were a year ago when the so called "dead ball" was in use.

While their pitching and defense is not what it might be, the Giants have turned from powder puff dusters into real he-men hitters in these past weeks to lift themselves right to the top of the National League standings.

Giants Hitting

With Bill Terry, Mell Ott, Travis Jackson and Joe Moore leading the attack with a steady barrage of base hits, the Giants have scored 79 runs in their last eight games and that includes their 6 to 4 victory over the Cincinnati Reds yesterday. In all these games they have rapped opposing pitchers for 95 hits.

Although they dropped a 9 to 0 decision to the Boston Braves, the St. Louis Cardinals held their second place berth. Fred Frankhouse hurling effectively set the Cards down with six hits while his mates ran up 13 off Hallahan, Haines and Winford.

Ethan Allen's homer with Bartell on base in the eighth gave the lowly Philadelphia Phillies a 2 to 1 decision over the Chicago Cubs.

Pirates Win

The good ol' Brooklyn Dodgers reeled under a 15 to 2 lacing administered by the Pittsburgh Pirates. Herring, Munns and Beck were rapped for a total of 17 base hits as the Bubs romped home on the chin strap.

The Detroit Tigers lost ground to the New York Yankees in their fight for the American League leadership. Mickey Cochrane's team was nosed out 15 to 13 by the Boston Red Sox despite a six run rally in the ninth.

The Yankees moved nearer to the leading Tigers when they won 6 to 2 from the St. Louis Browns. "Lefty" Gomez hung up his 10th victory as he turned back the Browns with six hits. Lou Gehrig walloped his 16th homer with Babe Ruth on base in the first.

A seven run spree in the sixth as Bob Johnson hit a homer gave the Philadelphia Athletics an 11 to 2 win over the Cleveland Indians.

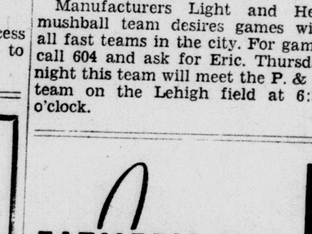

The Washington Senators moved into fourth place winning both games from the Chicago White Sox, 11 to 3 and 13 to 11.

HERE AND THERE IN SPORTS' LAND

The tent is pitched and the audience is ready to swarm in to see the two mastodons of the ring strut their stuff tonight in New York. There is plenty of interest locally in the fight and the radios will be popular. Jimmie Dime believes that if Max Baer fights Carnera like he did Max Schmeling the present title contender will be the champion of the world at midnight. "I like him because he is the best puncher but he is such a clown I don't know what he might do" said Dime when asked for his opinion last night. Dime does not believe either one of them is a good fighter. Tom McMahon has picked Baer to win from Carnera and Bob Latera believes Carnera will still be the champion when the fighting is over. Former Middleweight Champion George Chip could not be located for his opinion. The writer likes Baer tonight, providing he goes in and fights. To do this he will have to keep walking into the champion throwing punches all of the time. He cannot afford to try to box with Carnera or do any backing away.

Blews Pitches One-Hit Game

Coaltown Defeats Rose Point As Blews Hurls Great Game, Score Is 2 To 0

Blews was in rare form last night, so rare in fact that he just missed a no-hit game at Rose Point Field, but as it turned out D. Jackson spoiled a perfect night for Blews ace of the Coaltown pitchers by crackling out a single. Only one hit did Mr. Blews allow. Ten men whiffed the gentle breezes before his tantalizing slants.

Coaltown gained an Independent league victory 2 to 0 as a result of the airtight hurling of Blews. Coaltown found Farrell for only five hits, and he whiffed eight men. Heidish and McGaffic hit for extra bases.

Hoffman Enters Protest Against Hiring Of Morgan

Manager For Maxie Baer Protests Naming Of Dan Morgan Chief Second For Carnera

By SID ZIFF
Sports Editor, Los Angeles Herald-Express
Written Especially For International News Service

NEW YORK, June 14— Ancil Hoffman, manager of Max Baer, today served notice that he would enter an official protest with the New York Boxing Commission against the use of Dan Morgan as chief second in the corner of Primo Carnera at the world's heavyweight championship fight here tonight.

The selection of Morgan to second Carnera was made by Louis Soresi, manager of the vast Venetian yesterday when it became practically certain that Bill Duffy would not obtain a temporary release from federal penitentiary to serve in that capacity.

Morgan Well Known

Soresi confessed that he knew too little about the machinations of the boxing racket to hope to be Carnera's chief advisor in such an important contest. He has only been connected with Carnera and with boxing for the short space of a year.

Morgan is one of the best connected boxing men in the East. Too well connected in the opinion of Manager Ancil Hoffman who bases his objection on the fact that Morgan and commissioner William Brown are close personal friends.

Hoffman does not intimate that this would have any effect on the outcome of the match but he does not particularly care for a friend of Brown's in the champion's corner. Commissioner Brown is the athletic authority who considered Baer more suitable for a morgue than a title contest after observing him in a workout last week.

APPROVE BOND

The board of education last night approved the $75,000 bond of City Treasurer L. W. McClung as treasurer of the New Castle school district.

Bingo—Have you forgotten that $2 that you owe me?

Stingo—Certainly not. Didn't you see me try to dodge into that doorway?

Ryantown Defeats Mahoning Indies

Book Holds Seventh Warders In Check As Mates Drive Out 7 To 3 Victory

Baer And Carnera Make Statements

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, June 14.— Here's what the two contestants in tonight's heavyweight championship bout have to say regarding their prospects for victory.

By PRIMO CARNERA

Max Baer is a good fighter or he would not be getting this chance at the heavyweight championship. Without saying I will knock out Baer I will say positively I will retain my title. I am feeling great. The trouble in my throat will not bother me. If I thought it would, I would not enter the ring. Baer's work will decide what kind of a fight it is to be. I am ready to box or slug, it makes no difference to me. I am ambitious to become a great champion. Baer will not destroy that ambition.

By MAX BAER

I am going to leave the ring tonight the heavyweight champion of the world. I have felt all along that I was destined to become the champion and I hope I win in such a manner as to convince everyone I have the ability to fight as well as frolic. I became absolutely certain I would win when I found it so easy to "ride" Carnera when we met at the state athletic commission examination. He's easily flustered and that's in my favor. I am in perfect condition despite the criticism my training workouts aroused. I know how to whip Carnera. You'll see tonight.

Scarazzos Win From Merchants

Tex Richards had four hits while Llewellyn and Tip Richards had three hits apiece. "Bung" Cutler played first for the Merchants. This victory evens up the series between the two teams.

Most Amazing Proof

OF EXTRA STRENGTH · SAFETY AND DEPENDABILITY

Ever Known!

WORLD RECORD BROKEN!

IT IS almost inconceivable that human ingenuity could build tires that would withstand the terrific punishment of the 500-mile grind at Indianapolis, May 30.

'Round and 'round the blistering track they streaked, hour after hour, under the blazing sun . . . the low moan of powerful motors rose to a terrific roar as they hit the straightaways at 150 miles or better—grinding, pulling, pounding around treacherous tire-destroying curves faster than they ever dared before. Sliding into the turns at these terrific speeds, there was nothing to hold the car to the track except the tire.

Mile after mile, lap after lap, greater and greater heat and increased centrifugal force developed to separate the tread from the body of the tire. Every conceivable force known was working to tear the tires to pieces — yet Firestone High Speed Tires, with Gum-Dipped High Stretch Cords, withstood this most gruelling test.

Thirty-three demons of speed—thirty-three cars equipped with Firestone High Speed Tires—all protected by Gum-Dipped High Stretch Cords—entered the Annual Speed Classic. Every tire was bought by the driver or owner of the car.

In all the heat—in all the grinding—in all the straining and pulling—not one cotton strand loosened—not one life was endangered by tire failure—not one car was forced out of the race by tire trouble. Six of the winners finished without a tire change.

What a tribute to the Extra Strength—Safety and Durability built into Firestone High Speed Tires.

WHAT THIS MEANS TO YOU

The amazing record of Firestone dependability at Indianapolis was made possible by the Firestone patented process of Gum-Dipping. This Gum-Dipping process is used only by Firestone. Every fiber of every cord in every ply of the tire is saturated and coated with pure liquid rubber; there are eight extra pounds of rubber to every 100 pounds of cotton cords. This is the most valuable rubber that goes into the tire, but you pay no more for it. It is your assurance of extra safety, extra blowout protection.

Firestone High Speed Tires withstand the terrific racing speeds because they are built with Gum-Dipped high stretch cords which provide an extra margin of safety. This extra margin of safety is built into the Firestone High Speed Tires that you buy from your Firestone Service Dealer or Service Store.

There is greater adhesion between the plies of the Gum-Dipped Cord body and between the body and the tread. As a result of this patented process of Gum-Dipping Firestone engineers have been able to build a wider tread of flatter contour, with more and tougher rubber and deeper non-skid, giving you more than 50% longer non-skid mileage.

Don't delay! Call on the Firestone Service Dealer or Service Store in your community today and equip your car with the new Firestone High Speed Tires for 1934. Drive with security and peace of mind. Choose the Tires that Champions Buy!

MAKE THIS TEST YOURSELF

Note how the rubber in a Firestone Tire clings to the high stretch Gum-Dipped cords. This greater adhesion and strength is made possible by the Firestone patented process of Gum-Dipping.

Note how the rubber in an ordinary tire pulls away from the cords that have not been soaked and insulated with rubber. This causes friction and heat within the cords, resulting in separation.

AMERICAN LEAGUE GOOD

Fred Marcella of the Scarazzo team of the American softball league comes to bat today with a statement that the American league is every bit as fast as the National league, and thus a controversy will probably start. Anyhow Marcella quotes the figures of the game last night in which the Scarazzos topped the East Side Merchants in substantiation of his claim.

SCARAZZOS ARE FAST

Scarazzos have defeated the Rads this year 8 to 5 and lost to the Rads 10 to 9 in 11-innings at the Radiator Field. In two games with the E. S. Merchants the Scarazzos lost the first one 5 to 3, but came back last night with a 16 to 3 score. The Audias lost to the E. S. Merchants 7 to 6, and the Rads 5 to 3, and also walloped the Cunninghams.

OLD CARNEGIES WIN

Old Carnegies softball team handed the Russo A. C. a 17 to 11 defeat last night at the Carnegie Field. The Carnegie team looked impressive in the victory. The Old Carnegies took a 4 to 1 defeat at Bessemer recently. Tonight the Old Carnegies will play the Unions of the American softball league at Carnegie Field at 6 o'clock, according to an announcement by Rocco P. Viggiano.

RAMBLERS ORGANIZE

South Side Ramblers have organized a baseball team for the balance of the season and would like to schedule games with all first class teams. Call 1740-M for games. The Ramblers will hold a meeting tonight at the ball diamond at 5:30 o'clock. A game is wanted for Saturday of this week.

SAK'S TEAM IN FIELD

Another fast softball team has made its debut in New Castle and will be known as the Sak's Men's team. The team is made up of East Side players with big Joe Kelly, former East Side Merchant star as captain and Johnny Melder as manager. The players will be Johnny Melder, Joe Kelly, Bus Rzechnik, Johnny Shaftic, George Kneram, Ralph Kneram, Bob Jones, Henry Reiter, Russ Battley, Mike Polenick, Johnny Polenick, and possibly Hap Rodgers or Frank Babs. The Sak's want games with all first class teams in the city and county. For games call 797-J. The Sak's will seek to join the National softball league at the end of the first half of the league season.

CENTRAL A. C. WINS

Central A. C. baseball team handed the East Brookians a 4 to 3 upset at the East Brook High Field last night. The game was well played in every inning. Gray on the mound for the Centrals allowed only three hits. He whiffed five men. Wilson featured the game with a two-base blow. Shuler was the pitcher for the East Brook team.

NORTH HILL TIGERS WIN

North Hill Tigers baseball team handed the Wilmington Sluggers a 22 to 20 defeat at the Boyles Field with Swisher the last man up hitting a home run that won the game. The Tigers scored eight runs after the Sluggers had six runs to their credit in the first of the 10th inning. McCormick, Brest and Louer took batting honors.

NEW WILMINGTON WINS

New Wilmington A. A. handed the Volant team a 2 to 1 defeat in a game at the Volant field, with "Dink" Campbell on the knoll for the College Towners and allowing only four hits. C. Coates on the mound for the Volant team allowed only four hits also.

Church Golfers To Play Tonight

New Castle Church golfing league teams will meet at the Castle Hills golf course tonight at 5:30 o'clock for the fourth round of matches in the current season. The league leading First Methodists will play the First Christians. The Trinity and Epworth teams will tangle.

There are 48 men playing every Thursday night. The First Christians hope to drag the First Methodist team out of first place.

Carnera And Baer Await Big Battle

New York Fight Crowd Awaits Spectacle Of Oversized Leather Pushers

Expect Gate Of $400,000 To See Title Bout; Odds Favor Carnera

By DAVIS J. WALSH
International News Service Sports Editor

NEW YORK, June 14.—They call it a spectacle but so was the scene, millions of years ago, when men climbed down out of trees and went at each other with a club in either hand. However, times change but human nature does not and so tonight a crowd of maybe fifty thousand is to clamor for places as near as possible to an expected shambles between Primo Carnera, champion, and Max Baer, challenger, for the heavyweight championship of the world. It's a fight that took two months to make and may take a lifetime to forget. Men have already died on the ring floor before both of them.

That's a sanguinary view that may, in the light of later events, be quite without justification. This pair, probably the biggest and strongest that ever fought for the championship, may brawl desultorily and inanely for the complete schedule of fifteen rounds. But that's not the reason the crowd has paid $25 ringside prices and a total of almost $400,000, the bumper yield of four long, haggard years.

Are Not Friendly.

They will expect more than action. They'll be there because they expect the principals to do great violence to one another and, frankly, these are not principals who would care to major in culture and refinement. As a matter of fact, they'll kick, bite, gouge and claw. They do not like each other; anyhow, they didn't the first time they met socially. After that, it seems their repugnance rapidly ripened into something really worth while and fine.

So all the rules are liable to go by default tonight, while the greatest crowd of recent years will have its fling in pre-arranged and organized assault. At 210 pounds, Baer has the potentialities of a charging water buffalo and all of its chivalry. He was a very rough, touch person when he knocked out Schmeling in his last appearance about a year ago.

As for Carnera, his more than 260 pounds have been used to advantage in recent fights, especially when he clasped the victim in a smothering embrace or stomped upon his careless feet. They say he can't punch. But when he even looks at you, it hurts.

Referee Is Unknown.

In the midst of this profound uproar will be a comparatively little man in gray, delegated by the New York commission to call what shots he may and, in general, enforce order. This official, whoever he is, may find himself in the spot occupied by Dave Barry in the seventh round at Chicago or by Johnny Gallagher the night he stood around in a daze and let Dempsey go over Firpo like an estimate. Something undoubtedly is going to happen tonight and it probably won't rebound to the referee's credit. Altogether, I'd say that the selected official might do better if he lost his way to the arena and didn't quite make it.

The man might be Gunboat Smith because of his size but that gentleman no longer is in great favor with the commission. My guess, in fact, is that the nominee will be a man, picked largely because Ancil Hoffman, of the Baer camp, has objected to him, namely Arthur Donovan, son of Old Mike, which is all right. I don't think Mike had a marcel.

Weather Is Fair.

Of course, all may go well, in which case a very fantastic prize fight will wind up in a surprisingly conventional way. So far, the only guarantee offered is that the weather will be mild and fair. Otherwise, there have been times in the last few days when everybody wondered what was coming next. A week ago, Baer was publicly derided by a boxing commissioner as a "bum" who was physically unfit to enter the contest. A few days later, Carnera took to his bed with something the doctors diagnosed as "pharyngitis." Both ultimately survived a physical examination on Tuesday but Carnera, who had been the favorite in the betting, was rapidly receding toward even money this morning.

However, there was very little betting. One just doesn't bet on anything so seemingly unstable as this pair.

Mahoning A. A. To Play Greenville

Mahoning A. A. Will Play Fast Greenville Team At E. & A. Field At 5:30 P. M.

Mahoning A. A. will play the fast Greenville Merchants tonight at the E. & A. field at 5:30 o'clock. The Mahonings recently won a game at the Greenville field 5 to 4, and the Mercer countians will be out for revenge.

Paul McCullough will take the mound for the seventh warders tonight in an effort to snatch two straight from the Greenvillians. Teddy Bair, former Westminster college star athlete, will probably pitch for the visitors.

Whatever the secret of success may be, it isn't a reluctance to charge enough.

Giants Assume League Lead In National Loop

Billy Terry Has Giants Hitting Hard And Hustling On Ball Field

PIRATES HAND DODGERS DEFEAT

By GENE LAWRENCE
International News Service Sports Writer

NEW YORK, June 14.—Controversies may last until dooms day on the effect on the new uniform baseball, but the fact stands proven today that the world's champions New York Giants are far livelier with it now than they were a year ago when the so called "dead ball" was in use.

While their pitching and defense is not what it might be, the Giants have turned from powder puff dusters into real he-men hitters in these past weeks to lift themselves right to the top of the National League standings.

Giants Hitting

With Bill Terry, Mell Ott, Travis Jackson and Joe Moore leading the attack with a steady barrage of base hits, the Giants have scored 79 runs in their last eight games and that includes their 6 to 4 victory over the Cincinnati Reds yesterday. In all these games they have rapped opposing pitchers for 95 hits.

Although they dropped a 9 to 0 decision to the Boston Braves, the St. Louis Cardinals held their second place berth. Fred Frankhouse hurling effectively set the Cards down with six hits while his mates ran up 13 off Hallahan, Haines and Winford.

Ethan Allen's homer with Bartell on base in the eighth gave the lowly Philadelphia Phillies a 2 to 1 decision over the Chicago Cubs.

Pirates Win

The good ol' Brooklyn Dodgers reeled under a 15 to 2 lacing administered by the Pittsburgh Pirates. Herring, Munns and Beck were rapped for a total of 17 base hits as the Bubs romped home on the chin strap.

The Detroit Tigers lost ground to the New York Yankees in their fight for the American League leadership. Mickey Cochrane's team was nosed out 15 to 13 by the Boston Red Sox despite a six run rally in the ninth.

The Yankees moved nearer to the leading Tigers when they won 6 to 2 from the St. Louis Browns. "Lefty" Gomez hung up his 10th victory as he turned back the Browns with six hits. Lou Gehrig walloped his 16th homer with Babe Ruth on base in the first.

A seven run spree in the sixth as Bob Johnson hit a homer gave the Philadelphia Athletics an 11 to 2 win over the Cleveland Indians.

The Washington Senators moved into fourth place winning both games from the Chicago White Sox, 11 to 3 and 13 to 11.

HERE AND THERE IN SPORTS' LAND

The tent is pitched and the audience is ready to swarm in to see the two mastodons of the ring strut their stuff tonight in New York. There is plenty of interest locally in the fight and the radios will be popular. Jimmie Dime believes that if Max Baer fights Carnera like he did Max Schmeling the present title contender will be the champion of the world at midnight. "I like him because he is the best puncher but he is such a clown I don't know what he might do" said Dime when asked for his opinion last night. Dime does not believe either one of them is a good fighter. Tom McMahon has picked Baer to win from Carnera and Bob Latera believes Carnera will still be the champion when the fighting is over. Former Middleweight Champion George Chip could not be located for his opinion. The writer likes Baer tonight, providing he goes in and fights. To do this he will have to keep walking into the champion throwing punches all of the time. He cannot afford to try to box with Carnera or do any backing away.

Desmore Shute, Philadelphia professional, who won the British open golf championship last year has sailed for Southampton to defend his title at Sandwich, England, in June.

Coaltown Defeats Rose Point As Blews Hurls Great Game, Score Is 2 To 0

Blews was in rare form last night, so rare in fact that he just missed a no-hit game at Rose Point Field, but as it turned out D. Jackson spoiled a perfect night for Blews ace of the Coaltown pitchers by crackling out a single. Only one hit did Mr. Blews allow. Ten men whiffed the gentle breezes before his tantalizing slants.

Coaltown gained an Independent league victory 2 to 0 as a result of the airtight hurling of Blews. Coaltown found Farrell for only five hits, and he whiffed eight men. Heidish and McGaffic hit for extra bases.

Hoffman Enters Protest Against Hiring Of Morgan

Manager For Maxie Baer Protests Naming Of Dan Morgan Chief Second For Carnera

By SID ZIFF
Sports Editor, Los Angeles Herald-Express
Written Especially For International News Service

NEW YORK, June 14— Ancil Hoffman, manager of Max Baer, today served notice that he would enter an official protest with the New York Boxing Commission against the use of Dan Morgan as chief second in the corner of Primo Carnera at the world's heavyweight championship fight here tonight.

The selection of Morgan to second Carnera was made by Louis Soresi, manager of the vast Venetian yesterday when it became practically certain that Bill Duffy would not obtain a temporary release from federal penitentiary to serve in that capacity.

Morgan Well Known

Soresi confessed that he knew too little about the machinations of the boxing racket to hope to be Carnera's chief advisor in such an important contest. He has only been connected with Carnera and with boxing for the short space of a year.

Morgan is one of the best connected boxing men in the East. Too well connected in the opinion of Manager Ancil Hoffman who bases his objection on the fact that Morgan and commissioner William Brown are close personal friends.

Hoffman does not intimate that this would have any effect on the outcome of the match but he does not particularly care for a friend of Brown's in the champion's corner. Commissioner Brown is the athletic authority who considered Baer more suitable for a morgue than a title contest after observing him in a workout last week.

APPROVE BOND

The board of education last night approved the $75,000 bond of City Treasurer L. W. McClung as treasurer of the New Castle school district.

Bingo—Have you forgotten that $2 that you owe me?

Stingo—Certainly not. Didn't you see me try to dodge into that doorway?

Baer And Carnera Make Statements

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, June 14.— Here's what the two contestants in tonight's heavyweight championship bout have to say regarding their prospects for victory.

By PRIMO CARNERA

Max Baer is a good fighter or he would not be getting this chance at the heavyweight championship. Without saying I will knock out Baer I will say positively I will retain my title. I am feeling great. The trouble in my throat will not bother me. If I thought it would, I would not enter the ring. Baer's work will decide what kind of a fight it is to be. I am ready to box or slug, it makes no difference to me. I am ambitious to become a great champion. Baer will not destroy that ambition.

By MAX BAER

I am going to leave the ring tonight the heavyweight champion of the world. I have felt all along that I was destined to become the champion and I hope I win in such a manner as to convince everyone I have the ability to fight as well as frolic. I became absolutely certain I would win when I found it so easy to "ride" Carnera when we met at the state athletic commission examination. He's easily flustered and that's in my favor. I am in perfect condition despite the criticism my training workouts aroused. I know how to whip Carnera. You'll see tonight.

Ryantown Defeats Mahoning Indies

Ryantown upsets the Mahoning Indies last night at the Ryantown field 7 to 3 in an Independent league game. Book was in great form and allowed the slugging Indies but five hits. He fanned 10 batters. The Ryantown team had eight hits off Higgins.

Hartman featured the game with a resounding smash that went for a homer, while Brumbaugh, Kerr, T. Maher and Cardella also hit the ball hard.

Scarazzos Win From Merchants

Scarazzos defeated the East Side Merchants last night in a softball game at the B. & O. Field. It was the 20th victory of the year for the Scarazzos. The score was 16 to 3. Barlett pitched a fine game for the American league leaders. The Merchants used Dweyer and Richardson.

Bartlett had eight strikeouts. He walked seven men. Dweyer and Richardson were found for 16 hits. The stars of the game were: Tex Richards, Natale, Llewellyn, Gentile and Tip Richards. Tex Richards had four hits while Llewellyn and Tip Richards had three hits apiece. "Bung" Cutler played first for the Merchants. This victory evens up the series between the two teams.

Accessories, Tires, Parts

FRANK (Fleetwing) Dewberry likes to yap about his good gas and tires and other things he sells but he thinks maybe the folks grow tired of gas and tire ads so that's why he fills up this space once in a while with something else. Yesterday Frank put six duck eggs, three hen eggs and three turkey eggs under his prize duck, Sara Jane, out at his camp and wonders now when they hatch out how this brood will get along. If the duck can induce the turkeys and the chickens to swim then we will have another story for the book. One of the boys found a couple of turtle eggs and wanted to slip them in the duck's nest but Frank stopped that. 1t—5

Accessories, Tires, Parts

FRANK (Fleetwing) Dewberry likes to yap about his good gas and tires and other things he sells but he thinks maybe the folks grow tired of gas and tire ads so that's why he fills up this space once in a while with something else. Yesterday Frank put six duck eggs, three hen eggs and three turkey eggs under his prize duck, Sara Jane, out at his camp and wonders now when they hatch out how this brood will get along. If the duck can induce the turkeys and the chickens to swim then we will have another story for the book. One of the boys found a couple of turtle eggs and wanted to slip them in the duck's nest but Frank stopped that. 1t—6

AMERICAN LEAGUE GOOD

Fred Marcella of the Scarazzo team of the American softball league comes to bat today with a statement that the American league is every bit as fast as the National league, and thus a controversy will probably start. Anyhow Marcella quotes the figures of the game last night in which the Scarazzos topped the East Side Merchants in substantiation of his claim.

SCARAZZOS ARE FAST

Scarazzos have defeated the Rads this year 8 to 5 and lost to the Rads 10 to 9 in 11-innings at the Radiator Field. In two games with the E. S. Merchants the Scarazzos lost the first one 5 to 3, but came back last night with a 16 to 3 score. The Audias lost to the E. S. Merchants 7 to 6, and the Rads 5 to 3, and also walloped the Cunninghams.

OLD CARNEGIES WIN

Old Carnegies softball team handed the Russo A. C. a 17 to 11 defeat last night at the Carnegie Field. The Carnegie team looked impressive in the victory. The Old Carnegies took a 4 to 1 defeat at Bessemer recently. Tonight the Old Carnegies will play the Unions of the American softball league at Carnegie Field at 6 o'clock, according to an announcement by Rocco P. Viggiano.

RAMBLERS ORGANIZE

STEEL STOCKS EASIER TODAY

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, June 14.—A carry over of yesterday's selling sent the stock market down again today although losses in most instances were small.

Auburn was the only feature as it sank to a new all time low and down more than 3 points from yesterday's close. The consistent selling in Auburn was precipitated by the recent omission of the dividend. Other motor shares, however, were only slightly easier.

The German moratorium was virtually ignored by the stock list, and in the bonds the German 5-½s and 7s which had been falling for more than a week reached new lows again today.

The commodity markets were again easier as wheat sold down about a cent a bushel on further rains, and cotton lost more than 50 cents a bale.

United States Steel and other steel shares were fractionally easier along with the rest of the list.

Profit taking pressure was again evident in the rail share list where losses ran to about a point. New York Central, Union Pacific, Lackawanna and several of the lower priced issues suffered losses running to about a point.

Utilities were quiet, oils marked time as did the aviations, chemicals and specialties.

FRANK (Fleetwing) Dewberry likes to yap about his good gas and tires and other things he sells but he thinks maybe the folks grow tired of gas and tire ads so that's why he fills up this space once in a while with something else. Yesterday Frank put six duck eggs, three hen eggs and three turkey eggs under his prize duck, Sara Jane, out at his camp and wonders now when they hatch out how this brood will get along. If the duck can induce the turkeys and the chickens to swim then we will have another story for the book. One of the boys found a couple of turtle eggs and wanted to slip them in the duck's nest but Frank stopped that. 1t—6

Plan Inquest In Air Crash

Part Of Exhibits Of Recent Air Disaster Are Handed Over To Navy

CHEMICALS ARE BEING STUDIED

(International News Service)

LIBERTY, N. Y., June 14.—With part of the exhibits in the hands of the navy department, the inquest into the crash of the Chicago-bound airliner in the Catskills will be held this afternoon.

Documents found in the baggage of E. W. B. Bader, one of the seven victims of the plane crash, were turned over to a naval intelligence officer by Dr. V. G. Bourke, coroner of Livingston Manor.

Three bottles containing ammonium picrate crystals, also found in the luggage of Bader, were turned over to the navy.

Bader was a chemical engineer with the Semet-Solvay company, which had been a bidder some months ago on "explosive D", used by the navy.

However, naval officials declared there was no "secret formula" involved in the investigation of Bader's effects.

Will Ask Pitts To Take Partial Delinquent Tax

Reports that the office of County Treasurer W. O. Pitts has refused to accept partial payments on delinquent school taxes within the last few weeks caused the New Castle board of education last night to instruct its solicitor, Attorney William J. Moffatt, to carry to Mr. Pitts its request that he accept the payments.

Involved in the matter is a legal point which permits Mr. Pitts to accept the part-payments but does nont compel him to.

The board, feeling that money is scarce enough now, will urge the county treasurer to accept any sum on the delinquent duplicates. The matter came to its attention after it was claimed by an outsider that his part-payment offer had been refused.

Charge Denied By Alvin Fix

Collector Of Internal Revenue Hands In Resignation Upon Request

DECLARES GUFFEY IS RESPONSIBLE

(International News Service)

PHILADELPHIA, June 14.—Still insisting he was innocent of political macing, Alvin F. Fix of York, Pa., was in Philadelphia today, conferring with his advisers, following his resignation from the post of collector of internal revenue for the first Pennsylvania district.

The former collector, whose dismissal stirred up a hornet's nest of factional disputes within the Democratic party, complied with President Roosevelt's request by mailing his resignation to the White House from his home in York yesterday afternoon.

The president had asked for Fix' resignation after the civil service commission recommended the collector's dismissal, the discharge of his assistant, William E. Brown, and the suspension of five division chiefs.

Although silent on his plans for the immediate future, Fix continued to assert that he had no connection with the alleged solicitation in the internal revenue office here of funds for the Pennsylvania Democratic campaign in last month's primaries. He intimated that his enforced resignation culminated efforts of Joseph F. Guffey, Roosevelt patronage dispenser in this state, to get him out of office because he refused to discharge competent bureau officials to make room for political henchmen.

VENDOL WAS A BLESSING TO NEW CASTLE MAN AND WIFE

Both Suffered About The Same Way. Stomach Upset, Suffering From Gas, Cramps And Sourness. Constipation Great Annoyance. Both Praise Vendol Tonic.

MR. JOHN DRYFUSE

"My wife and I join in praising Vendol as it has been a blessing to us, bringing more comfort than anything we have found for years," said Mr. John Dryfuse, of 7 O'Brien Street, New Castle.

"Most everything I ate disagreed with me, even vegetables like beans and potatoes. Just seemed to lie there and ferment, filled me with gas and the pains in my bowels were so bad at times I was afraid I had appendicitis. The gas pressed against my heart so bad that it would beat fast, and my breathing would come hard. I often vomited my food a short time after eating. I had bad headaches at times which often made me walk the floor at night.

"My liver was sluggish I am sure, because I often felt dizzy, had spots before my eyes and I was constipated all the time.

"I cannot recall when I've felt so good since taking a treatment of Vendol. It just cleaned me out thoroughly, yet it was gentle. My bowels are now regular and I haven't had a dizzy feeling lately.

"Vendol soothed my stomach from the start. Settled the sour condition and that seemed to end the gas, cramps and bloating and I haven't suffered one of those midnight headaches lately.

"My wife, Lillian, had a stomach disorder about the same as mine, and Vendol has also given her great relief. We just can't thank Vendol enough."

Come to the New Castle Drug Company and get a treatment of Vendol. You will be surprised how quickly it will help you.

About Two Hundred Attend Park Picnic

Presbyterian Annual Affair Held Yesterday—Is great Success

Cascade Park grove accommodated 175 Mahoningtown Presbyterian people Wednesday afternoon and evening at the annual Sunday School picnic. Promptly at 6:30 p. m. the dinner was served and was given a hearty reception by the picnickers.

Swimming had been enjoyed during the afternoon. Although the air was cool the water was warm and the bathing was enjoyed by everyone. Horseshoe playing amused the men, while special amusements were arranged for the children.

The first crowd of picnickers left here at 2:00 p. m. and another crowd left at 6:00 p. m. The total number attending is estimated as 200.

"CAMPEREE" SOON

The Mahoningtown Boy Scouts will send one patrol to Camp John M. Phillips, the Lawrence County Boy Scout camp, on July 15 and 16, to compete in the "camperee" contests in which all troops will be represented. The local scouts are quite proficient in their work, are experienced campers for the most part, and expect to present some stiff competition for the other patrols.

An overnight outing was enjoyed by one of the local troop's patrols Monday. The boys practiced cooking their own suppers and breakfasts over outdoor fires.

PENNA-BO MEETS

Penna-Bo Auxiliary met in the city building Wednesday afternoon. After the business meeting plans were made for a picnic but no date was set.

The Kard Klub of the organization will meet next Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. Louise Ridley, Edison avenue.

AID HAS MEETING

Mrs. S. E. Park, of West Cherry street, entertained the Ladies Aid Society of the Madison Avenue Christian church at a meeting Wednesday afternoon, with Mrs. Fanny Hutnick as associate hostess.

This was the last meeting of the society until the latter part of September when Mrs. Walter Wilkins will entertain.

FIRST AID MEETING

A meeting of supervising employes of the State Highway Department was conducted Tuesday evening at the headquarters on West Cherry street for the purpose of receiving instructions in first-aid.

STEAK FRY

Another picnic is planned for Cascade Park by a seventh ward organization. This time it is a steak fry for 6:30 o'clock this evening. The Loyal Workers of the local Christian church will be the guests.

STATZER MONDAY

A meeting of Augusta Statzer Auxiliary to the B. and L. E. will take place Monday evening at the Clendenin building.

WORK ON BUILDING

Painting and redecorating work is in progress in a part of the Dean block on Liberty street.

POURING CONCRETE

Workmen on the job of building a new underground entrance to the B. & O. train platform via Liberty street are now engaged in pouring the concrete in the wall and step forms. The job will be completed soon. Considerable difficulty was experienced in removing the old concrete walls and steps with picks and drills.

MAY MOVE PORTABLE

The Mahoning school portable may be moved to the New Castle senior high school grounds this summer. The recommendation is to be presented to the school board for approval.

BREAKS HIS ARM

Tom Holliday, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Holliday of West Clayton street, broke his arm in a fall from a tree this week.

FLAGS DISPLAYED

In observance of the annual "Flag Day" flags were displayed in various parts of seventh ward today.

SEVENTH WARD PERSONALS

Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Cummings, of Beaver, were Wednesday afternoon visitors here.

R. H. Thornburg, of Weirton, W. Va., spent a day recently at the J. H. Hossler home, West Cherry St.

REPORT LIGHTING SURVEY

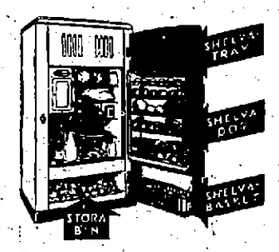

Reports of a survey of light conditions in the New Castle public school buildings were presented to the board of education last night by Superintendent of Schools C. C. Green, but pressure of other business kept the members from giving much attention to it. It will be taken up later for discussion.

The survey, Dr. Green reported, has been completed for the North Street, Croton, Oak Street and Aiken buildings.

Plan Inquest In Air Crash

CHEMICALS ARE BEING STUDIED

(International News Service)

LIBERTY, N. Y., June 14.—With part of the exhibits in the hands of the navy department, the inquest into the crash of the Chicago-bound airliner in the Catskills will be held this afternoon.

Documents found in the baggage of E. W. B. Bader, one of the seven victims of the plane crash, were turned over to a naval intelligence officer by Dr. V. G. Bourke, coroner, of Livingston Manor.

Three bottles containing ammonium picrate crystals, also found in the luggage of Bader, were turned over to the navy.

Bader was a chemical engineer with the Semet-Solvay company, which had been a bidder some months ago on "explosive D", used by the navy.

However, naval officials declared there was no "secret formula" involved in the investigation of Bader's effects.

Will Ask Pitts To Take Partial Delinquent Tax

Reports that the office of County Treasurer W. O. Pitts has refused to accept partial payments on delinquent school taxes within the last few weeks caused the New Castle board of education last night to instruct its solicitor, Attorney William J. Moffatt, to carry to Mr. Pitts its request that he accept the payments.

Involved in the matter is a legal point which permits Mr. Pitts to accept the part-payments but does nont compel him to.

The board, feeling that money is scarce enough now, will urge the county treasurer to accept any sum on the delinquent duplicates. The matter came to its attention after it was claimed by an outsider that his part-payment offer had been refused.

Charge Denied By Alvin Fix

Collector Of Internal Revenue Hands In Resignation Upon Request

DECLARES GUFFEY IS RESPONSIBLE

(International News Service)

PHILADELPHIA, June 14.—Still insisting he was innocent of political macing, Alvin F. Fix of York, Pa., was in Philadelphia today, conferring with his advisers, following his resignation from the post of collector of internal revenue for the first Pennsylvania district.

The former collector, whose dismissal stirred up a hornet's nest of factional disputes within the Democratic party, complied with President Roosevelt's request by mailing his resignation to the White House from his home in York yesterday afternoon.

The president had asked for Fix' resignation after the civil service commission recommended the collector's dismissal, the discharge of his assistant, William E. Brown, and the suspension of five division chiefs.

Although silent on his plans for the immediate future, Fix continued to assert that he had no connection with the alleged solicitation in the internal revenue office here of funds for the Pennsylvania Democratic campaign in last month's primaries. He intimated that his enforced resignation culminated efforts of Joseph F. Guffey, Roosevelt patronage dispenser in this state, to get him out of office because he refused to discharge competent bureau officials to make room for political henchmen.

Cascade Park grove accommodated 175 Mahoningtown Presbyterian people Wednesday afternoon and evening at the annual Sunday School picnic. Promptly at 6:30 p. m. the dinner was served and was given a hearty reception by the picnickers.

An overnight outing was enjoyed by one of the local troop's patrols Monday. The boys practiced cooking their own suppers and breakfasts over outdoor fires.

The job will be completed soon. Considerable difficulty was experienced in removing the old concrete walls and steps with picks and drills.

Friends here are glad to learn that M. L. Wallace of Highland avenue, a patient at the Jameson Memorial hospital, is getting along nicely after undergoing an operation.

REPORT LIGHTING SURVEY

Reports of a survey of light conditions in the New Castle public school buildings were presented to the board of education last night by Superintendent of Schools C. C. Green, but pressure of other business kept the members from giving much attention to it. It will be taken up later for discussion.

The survey, Dr. Green reported, has been completed for the North Street, Croton, Oak Street and Aiken buildings.

Now that France has an alliance with Russia, gratitude should prompt her to erect a bronze statue of Hitler's mouth.

VENDOL WAS A BLESSING TO NEW CASTLE MAN AND WIFE

Both Suffered About The Same Way. Stomach Upset, Suffering From Gas, Cramps And Sourness. Constipation Great Annoyance. Both Praise Vendol Tonic.

MR. JOHN DRYFUSE

"My wife and I join in praising Vendol as it has been a blessing to us, bringing more comfort than anything we have found for years," said Mr. John Dryfuse of 7 O'Brien Street, New Castle.

"Most everything I ate disagreed with me, even vegetables like beans and potatoes. Just seemed to lie there and ferment, filled me with gas and the pains in my bowels were so bad at times I was afraid I had appendicitis. The gas pressed against my heart so bad that it would beat fast, and my breathing would come hard. I often vomited my food a short time after eating. I had bad headaches at times which often made me walk the floor at night.

"My liver was sluggish I am sure, because I often felt dizzy, had spots before my eyes and I was constipated all the time.

"I cannot recall when I've felt so good since taking a treatment of Vendol. It just cleaned me out thoroughly, yet it was gentle. My bowels are now regular and I haven't had a dizzy feeling lately.

"Vendol soothed my stomach from the start. Settled the sour condition and that seemed to end the gas, cramps and bloating and I haven't suffered one of those midnight headaches lately.

"My wife, Lillian, had a stomach disorder about the same as mine, and Vendol has also given her great relief. We just can't thank Vendol enough."

Come to the New Castle Drug Company and get a treatment of Vendol. You will be surprised how quickly it will help you.

No More Piles

Doctor's Prescription Guaranteed

Thousands of Pile sufferers do not know that the cause of Piles is internal—bad circulation of blood in the lower bowel.

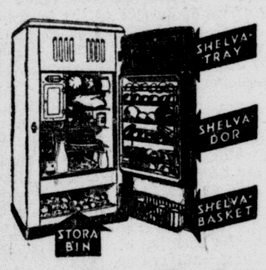

This is the scientific truth about Piles—the real reason why salves and suppositories do not give lasting relief, why cutting does not remove the cause.

Your itching, bleeding or protruding Piles will only go when you actually remove the cause. External treatments can't do this—an internal medicine should be used. HEM-ROID, the prescription of Dr. J. S. Leonhardt, sold by good druggists everywhere succeeds because it stimulates the circulation, drives out congested blood, heals and restores the affected parts.

So why waste time on external remedies or worry about an operation when Eckerd's Cut Rate and New Castle Drug Co. invite every Pile sufferer to try HEM-ROID with guarantee of money-back if not joyfully satisfied with the help one bottle gives.

Carry Over Of Wednesday's Selling Sends Stock Market Down Slightly

STEEL STOCKS EASIER TODAY

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, June 14.—A carry over of yesterday's selling sent the stock market down again today although losses in most instances were small.

Auburn was the only feature as it sank to a new all time low and down more than 3 points from yesterday's close. The consistent selling in Auburn was precipitated by the recent omission of the dividend. Other motor shares, however, were only slightly easier.

The German moratorium was virtually ignored by the stock list, and in the bonds the German 5-1/4s and 7s which had been falling for more than a week reached new lows again today.

The commodity markets were again easier as wheat sold down about a cent a bushel on further rains, and cotton lost more than 50 cents a bale.

United States Steel and other steel shares were fractionally easier along with the rest of the list.

Profit taking pressure was again evident in the rail share list where losses ran to about a point. New York Central, Union Pacific, Lackawanna and several of the lower priced issues suffered losses running to about a point.

Utilities were quiet, oils marked time as did the aviations, chemicals and specialties.

The evening session featured a Young People's banquet at 6 o'clock and a pageant entitled "The Choosers" by the Ellwood B. Y. P. U. The session and convention closed with another address by Dr. Thomas on "The Glory of the Baptist Adventure." This was the third time that Dr. Thomas had spoken during the convention. Each time he held the intense interest of the audience throughout, with his inspiring and educational message. Dr. Thomas was scheduled to leave for London, Eng. today.

Will Ask Pitts To Take Partial Delinquent Tax

Reports that the office of County Treasurer W. O. Pitts has refused to accept partial payments on delinquent school taxes within the last few weeks caused the New Castle board of education last night to instruct its solicitor, Attorney William J. Moffatt, to carry to Mr. Pitts its request that he accept the payments.

Involved in the matter is a legal point which permits Mr. Pitts to accept the part-payments but does not compel him to.

The board, feeling that money is scarce enough now, will urge the county treasurer to accept any sum on the delinquent duplicates. The matter came to its attention after it was claimed by an outsider that his part-payment offer had been refused.

Charge Denied By Alvin Fix

(International News Service)

PHILADELPHIA, June 14.—Still insisting he was innocent of political macing, Alvin F. Fix of York, Pa., was in Philadelphia today, conferring with his advisers, following his resignation from the post of collector of internal revenue for the first Pennsylvania district.

The former collector, whose dismissal stirred up a hornet's nest of factional disputes within the Democratic party, complied with President Roosevelt's request by mailing his resignation to the White House from his home in York yesterday afternoon.

The president had asked for Fix' resignation after the civil service commission recommended the collector's dismissal, the discharge of his assistant, William E. Brown, and the suspension of five division chiefs.

Although silent on his plans for the immediate future, Fix continued to assert that he had no connection with the alleged solicitation in the internal revenue office here of funds for the Pennsylvania Democratic campaign in last month's primaries. He intimated that his enforced resignation culminated efforts of Joseph F. Guffey, Roosevelt patronage dispenser in this state, to get him out of office because he refused to discharge competent bureau officials to make room for political henchmen.

VENDOL WAS A BLESSING TO NEW CASTLE MAN AND WIFE

Both Suffered About The Same Way. Stomach Upset, Suffering From Gas, Cramps And Sourness. Constipation Great Annoyance. Both Praise Vendol Tonic.

MR. JOHN DRYFUSE

"My wife and I join in praising Vendol as it has been a blessing to us, bringing more comfort than anything we have found for years," said Mr. John Dryfuse of 7 O'Brien Street, New Castle.

"Most everything I ate disagreed with me, even vegetables like beans and potatoes. Just seemed to lie there and ferment, filled me with gas and the pains in my bowels were so bad at times I was afraid I had appendicitis. The gas pressed against my heart so bad that it would beat fast, and my breathing would come hard. I often vomited my food a short time after eating. I had bad headaches at times which often made me walk the floor at night.

"My liver was sluggish I am sure, because I often felt dizzy, had spots before my eyes and I was constipated all the time.

"I cannot recall when I've felt so good since taking a treatment of Vendol. It just cleaned me out thoroughly, yet it was gentle. My bowels are now regular and I haven't had a dizzy feeling lately.

"Vendol soothed my stomach from the start. Settled the sour condition and that seemed to end the gas, cramps and bloating and I haven't suffered one of those midnight headaches lately.

"My wife, Lillian, had a stomach disorder about the same as mine, and Vendol has also given her great relief. We just can't thank Vendol enough."

Come to the New Castle Drug Company and get a treatment of Vendol. You will be surprised how quickly it will help you.
